TWO ARRESTS MADE AT KING

One Man Goes To Jail and Another Pays A Fine—Several Births Recorded—Some Visiting Among the People.

King, July 9.—Jimmy Thore, who resides near Quaker Gap, was arrested here Saturday by Deputies R. C. White, J. M. Alley and Joel Southern on a charge of operating an automobile while intoxicated. In default of $200 bond he was carried to Danbury and placed in the county jail, pending a preliminary hearing.

Sylus Allen was given a hearing here Tuesday in Justice J. S. Garner's court on a charge of stepping on the gas a little too freely. He was taxed with $11.65.

Benjamin Atwood, of Sparta, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. U. Atwood on Depot St.

The following births were recorded here last week: To Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Johnson, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. Irving Collins, a son, and to Mr. and Mrs. Dixie Nunn, a daughter.

Mrs. R. S. Helsabeck was the charming hostess to the Christian church Society Friday. The devotional service was taken from the 12th chapter of Romans. A very interesting reading was given by Mrs. Helsabeck. There were 22 regular members and one visitor present. The hostess, assisted by little Francis and Billy Helsabeck served a delicious ice course. The next meeting will be with Mrs. C. A. Moore.

Jas. R. Caudle and D. C. Taylor, Spanish-American war veterans, are attending the State re-union at Greensboro this week.

The revival services at the 1st Baptist church closed Sunday night. There were 16 additions to the church.

Crops in this section are drying up for the want of rain and farmers are getting blue.

Mrs. Janie McGee is confined to her home on Pulliam street this week by illness.

The King Tigers lost to Walkertown in a game played on the Walkertown diamond Saturday, score being 6 and 4.

Daniel and Taylor White, of Roanoke, are visiting relatives here.

A. F. Collins and family spent Sunday with relatives in Mount Airy.

Delightful Picnic.

One of the most delightful picnics of the season was the one given Saturday afternoon at Mr. P. T. Johnson's meadow by Mrs. Carlos Johnson and Mr. Jesse Sizemore to their Sunday school classes of the Quaker Gap church. Many interesting games of croquet, tap and base and horse-shoe pitching were indulged in and while the weiners were being roasted the girls spread a tempting supper of sandwiches of all kinds—pies, cakes and pickles, under the trees by the spring.

Number 89 Languishes

There is a good deal of kicking by the public now on the condition of No. 89, State highway from Danbury to Buck Island bridge. At many places there are inconvenient, and in one or two places, dangerous holes, calculated to seriously defect an automobile traveling at high speed. It is not known why the State authorities are neglecting this highway.

SIMMONS WILL IS BROKEN

Long-Contested Action Results In Favor of Heirs—Case of King vs. Miller Being Tried In Civil Court Here This Week.

The civil action in re the last will and testament of Sam'l P. Simmons resulted in a verdict in favor of the heirs who were suing to set aside the will. This suit was tried at last term of court and resulted in a mistrial. A jury was obtained from Davidson county.

Florence M. Dunlap was granted divorce from Henry H. Dunlap.

The case of J. O. Pyrtle vs. N. P. Boles, resulted in verdict for the plaintiff.

The case of King vs. Miller was being tried today (Wednesday). This is an action brought by the plaintiff to recover an alleged balance due on account and amounting to $2,500.

Other civil actions are on the calendar for trial at this week's term of Stokes Superior court, now being held here by Judge Schenck. The court will possibly continue through the week.

Lawrence Estate Is Left To His Widow

Winston-Salem, June 30.—The estate of Dr. C. S. Lawrence, Winston-Salem physician and surgeon, who died in Richmond, Va., Saturday, was left to the widow, Mrs. Alice R. Lawrence, under the terms of the will, which was admitted to probate today.

The will was written June 3, 1930, just before the departure of Dr. Lawrence for the Richmond hospital, where he died.

An inventory of the estate, which has an estimated value of between $250,000 and $500,000, will be made immediately, it was stated.

Pending a re-adjustment of the affairs of the late physician the Lawrence hospital continues in operation, with Dr. G. C. Cook, superintendent, and no change in personnel.

News and Personals Of Lawsonville

Crops in this section are in bad condition, owing to the dry weather.

Mrs. Cutler Handy, who has been confined to her bed for some time, is able to be out again, we are glad to note.

Ernest Mabe, of Leaksville, and O. C. Brown, of Madison, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rhodes on Sunday.

Carried To Hospital.

William Nelson, who lives in the "Ziffy Island" neighborhood, Walnut Cove Route 3, was carried to a hospital this week. He is seriously ill with high blood pressure and complications.

FOLGER TO RUN FOR SENATE

Well Known Mount Airy Lawyer To Oppose Hiatt, the Republican Candidate.

It is stated on the best authority that John H. Folger, attorney of Mount Airy, will be named by the Senatorial executive committee to run for the Senate on the Democratic ticket in this district, composed of the counties of Stokes and Surry. Mr. Folger's opponent is D. L. Hiatt, of Surry county.

Mr. Folger has represented Surry in the Legislature several times, and is well known and popular not only in Surry but in Stokes, where he has many friends.

REVIVAL SERVICES AT WESTFIELD

Begin Next Sunday With Rev. J. M. Haymore Preaching—Home-Coming Day Will Be Held On Sunday.

Westfield, July 7.—A series of revival services will begin at Westfield Baptist church Sunday, July 9th, and continuing through July 27th. Services will be held each morning at 11 o'clock and at night at 8 o'clock.

Dr. J. M. Haymore, of Decatur, Ga., a native of the Westfield community, will do the preaching at these services, assisted by the pastor and probably other ministers.

On next Sunday there will be a Home-Coming Day at the church and everyone is invited to come out and meet old friends and enjoy the day.

Fulton-Davis.

Walnut Cove, July 9.—The friends of Miss Mary Frances Davis and Mr. John G. Fulton had quite a surprise today when it was learned that the young couple had married on July 4th.

The wedding took place at York, S. C., where they were accompanied by Miss Evelyn White, a close friend of the young couple.

The happy pair left for a trip to Washington and other cities immediately after giving out the announcement of their marriage.

The bride is the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Davis. She is a graduate of the Walnut Cove High school and was a student of the N. C. C. W. at Greensboro.

The groom is the son of the late John G. Fulton and Mrs. Fulton, and holds a responsible position with the J. H. Fulton Mercantile Co.

The young couple are popular with a host of friends who will wish them much happiness.

Meeting At Vaden's.

A series of Presbyterian meetings, conducted by Rev. H. W. Hudspeth, closed last week at Vaden's school house, near George's mill.

DROUGHT TAKING HEAVY TOLL

Crops of Corn, Tobacco, Hay and Vegetables Severely Suffering—Wheat Is Better Than Usual.

Crops are now seriously suffering in every section of Stokes county, and in other counties, though in Davidson, part of Guilford and part of Forsyth, recently good rains have fallen.

In Stokes the drouth is taking a serious toll of tobacco and corn, while grass, vegetables, and garden truck are almost ruined in some places.

Some farmers tell the Reporter that even with good seasons from now on, Stokes farmers cannot make more than half a crop. Other farmers believe that if rain will come immediately, tobacco will revive tremendously, and make a fair crop yet.

The wheat and rye crops, now being threshed are reported much better than last year.

News and Personals From King

King, July 7.—Mrs. Evy Joy Southern, wife of William R. Southern, died at their home 5 miles east of here Thursday following a lingering illness of several months. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Newsom. Her age was forty-six years. She had long been a faithful member of the Missionary Baptist church. Surviving are the husband and 5 children. The funeral service was conducted at Union Hill church Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock and funeral and burial followed in the church cemetery.

A series of meetings is in progress at the Baptist church here. The following births were registered here last week: To Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hauser a son; to Mr. and Mrs. Drewy Manning a daughter and to Mr. and Mrs. Vester Wall a daughter.

Helsabeck and Blackburn will open up within the next few days a new clothing and gents furnishing store in the old bank building on Depot street. Mr. Helsabeck comes from Rural Hall and Mr. Blackburn is of West Jefferson. There is a splendid opening here for a clothing store and it is predicted that they will enjoy a good business.

SOCIAL EVENTS AT WALNUT COVE

Handsone Club House of Jacob Fulton Is Scene of Festivities—Personal and News Items Of Interest.

Walnut Cove, July 8.—Quite a large party of Walnut Cove, Danbury and Walkertown people attended a steak and chicken fry at the club house on the farm of Jacob Fulton, just out of town on the Madison road, Thursday night. Other social events are being planned to be given at the club house in the near future.

Mr. Fulton has just recently completed his club house and has christened it Saura Lodge. The building, which is constructed of select pine logs with the bark removed from them, is considered very beautiful and attractive by those who have seen it. The main room of the building is 32x30, and with its hard-wood floor is ideal for dancing. The lodge also has two bed rooms, kitchen, store room, etc., being fully equipped for cooking and sleeping. A wide attractive porch encircles almost the entire building, with doors and double windows opening onto it. The lodge is located right in the forest, giving it a most picturesque setting.

A series of meetings are being held at the Methodist church here. The pastor, Rev. J. C. Campbell, is being ably assisted by Rev. John Church, who is well known here for the splendid preaching he did here in a meeting a few years since.

Mrs. Donnell Van Noppen and little son, Donnell, Jr., of Mebane, are spending the week here with relatives.

Mrs. Frank Petree, who underwent a major operation in a Winston-Salem hospital Saturday, is getting along very well, her many friends will be delighted to know.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Woodruff announce the arrival of a boy, Ralph Jerome, July 3rd.

Misses Johnsie Graham and Nonie Dell Lovin, of Red Springs, are the guests of Mrs. Leake Lovin.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Woodward, of Newport News, Va., were the week end guests of Mrs. J. H. Woodruff.

Miss Louise Baker, of Reidsville, is visiting Misses Nell and Margaret Hutcherson.

Miss Nellie Chilton left this week for New York City, where she will spend the summer.

Miss Sallie Matt Marshal has returned from a visit to Boone.

Mrs. John Cook, of Danville, Va., is visiting relatives here.

C. E. Davis, cashier of Bank of Stokes County, at Walnut Cove, was here Wednesday on business.
