

A Hand-Picked List of "Eligibles" For Your Dainty Springtime Salads

By JOSEPHINE B. GIBSON

It has been said that we here in America are the greatest eaters of salads the world has ever known. Crisp, green salads at dinner—vegetable or meat salads for luncheon or supper—fruit salads, in infinite variety, for regular desserts or for party refreshments. Small wonder, indeed, that the aspiring hostess often finds it quite a problem to create something new in this crowded field of foods. And no wonder she sometimes is perplexed about just what to serve with the deliciously different course she has concocted.

For the type of food that accompanies any salad will vary greatly, according to the components of the principal dish. A snappy sandwich, for instance, is exactly proper for serving with vegetable or meat salads, but would be entirely unsuitable with a salad made from fruit. And the sweet sandwich, cookie, or piece of cake that is so delightful with a dainty fruit salad is not at all the type of thing to serve with the salad course at a substantial luncheon or dinner.

Following are a number of suggestions that may help when you are confronted with the problem of what to let accompany some particular, new salad you have created. They have been tested and proved correct from the standpoint of deliciousness as well as dietetics.

A.—To Accompany Crisp Green Salads:

1. Crisp Crackers
2. Paprika Crackers
Spread saltines with soft butter, and sprinkle lightly with paprika. Place in a hot oven until the butter and paprika are blended, and the crackers thoroughly crisp. Serve hot.
3. Cheese Straws
Roll pie pastry 1/4 inch thick. Sprinkle with grated cheese, and roll the cheese into the pastry. Cut into strips with a sharp knife and bake in a hot oven.

B.—To Accompany Fruit Salads:

1. Sandwiches of buttered nut-bread spread with Apple Butter or Fruit Preserves.
2. Small open sandwiches of Currant or Grape Jelly decorated with cream cheese.
3. Cheese Straws.
4. Jam Tea Biscuit
Prepare baking powder biscuit dough, turn out on lightly floured board and pat 1/4 inch thick. Cut with a biscuit cutter. In half of the biscuits make holes with a doughnut cutter or other small round cutter. Place a cut biscuit on a whole one, and fill the center with Fruit Preserves or Apple Butter. Bake in a hot oven about 15 or 20 minutes.
5. Crisp Cookies.
6. Unfrosted angel food or sponge cake.

C.—To Accompany Vegetable or Meat Salads:

1. Devil'd Biscuits
Sift together 2 cups flour, 4 tablespoons baking powder, and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Add 2 tablespoons butter, and 2 tablespoons lard and blend thoroughly, using two knives or a fork. When flaky add milk to form a firm dough (about 2/3 to 3/4 cup.) Mix lightly and toss on a lightly floured board. Pat about 1/4 inch thick, and shape with a biscuit cutter. Spread each biscuit with a thin layer of devil'd ham, prepared by mixing 1 cup cold cooked chopped ham, 1/2 cup chopped Stuffed Spanish Olives, 1/2 teaspoon Prepared Mustard and 1 tablespoon Mayonnaise Salad Dressing. Cover each biscuit with another one of the same thickness, and bake in a moderately hot oven from 12 to 15 minutes.
2. Cheese Biscuits
To the flour, baking powder and salt in the above recipe add 1/2 cup grated cheese and mix lightly. Add milk to form a soft dough. Pat 1/4 inch thick and shape with a very small biscuit cutter. Bake for 10 to 12 minutes in a hot oven, and serve hot.
3. Sandwiches of chopped nuts—meats and sliced Stuffed Spanish Olives, moistened with Mayonnaise Salad Dressing.
4. Sandwiches of prepared Sandwich Relish.
5. Sandwiches of chopped celery and Stuffed Spanish Olives, moistened with Mayonnaise Salad Dressing.
