ZACHARIAS AND ELISABETH: LIFE IN A PICQUJ JEWISH HOME

LESSON TEXT—LUKE 1:5-25. GOLDEN TEXT—And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. PRIMARY TOPIC—Helping to Make Our Homes Good. JUNIOR TOPIC—Helping to Make Our Homes Good. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What I Owe to My Home. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—What Makes a Home Christian?

I. A Godly Husband and Wife (Luke 1:5-7). The name Zacharias means " Jehovah hath remembered," and the name Elisabeth means "A covenant name." 1. When they lived (v. 5). "In the days of Herod the king," they lived in a day when godlessness was rife. The priesthood was corrupt, and the ruling classes most wicked. 2. Their character (v. 6). Both were righteous before God. Many appear to be righteous before man who are not righteous before God. They were so united that they walked in the commandments of the Lord blameless. The highest in wedded life can be attained only when both husband and wife are united in Jesus Christ. Their practical living was manifested in obedience to God's commandments. 2. They were childless (v. 7). Though this godly couple were well mated and possessed the joy of the Lord in their souls, there was a real lack in their home. No home is quite ideal into which no child has come. II. A Son Promised (Luke 1:8-23). 1. By whom (v. 11, 19)? Gabriel, a special messenger of God, appeared and made known the good news to Zacharias. 2. When (v. 8, 14)? While officiating as priest this good news came to him. From verse 13 the implication is that Zacharias had been praying definitely about this matter. While he burned incense, which is typical of prayer, the multitudes without were praying. 3. Characteristics of the child (v. 15-17). (1) Shall be great in the sight of the Lord (v. 15). "Though the people did not greatly esteem him, he was highly esteemed by the Lord." (2) Shall drink neither wine nor strong drink (v. 15). He was to be a Nazirite, separating himself from sensuous things and dedicating himself unto the Lord (Numbers 6:1-6). (3) Shall be filled with the Holy Ghost (v. 15). The energy of the divine Spirit was needed to enable him to lead the people to repentance (v. 16). (4) Shall go in the spirit and power of Elijah (v. 17). In this power he was to prepare the people for the coming of the Savior, and the salvation which he was to bring. 4. Zacharias asking for a sign (v. 18-23). Although the aged priest was earnestly praying for the salvation of Israel, the angelic promise of the angel which was the beginning of that salvation staggered his faith. The angel gave him a sign. Because he refused to profess God in faith for this angelic promise, God caused his tongue to be silent until the promise was fulfilled. God wants us to believe his promises no matter how contrary to reason they may seem. III. The Promise Fulfilled (Luke 1:27-40). 1. Neighborly and kindly relations with Elizabeth (v. 37, 38). 2. The child circumcised and named (v. 39-40). On the eighth day they circumcised the child and named him "John" (v. 39). By means of writing Zacharias made known the name which he would have by divine instruction. 3. Zacharias praises God (v. 41). At this time God opened the mouth of Zacharias, and he offered up praise to God. IV. Zacharias Prophesying (Luke 1:67-80). 1. Praising God for fulfillment of the promise of salvation (v. 67-75). This was according to covenant promise. 2. John to be called "The Prophet of the Highest" (v. 76-79). He was to go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways. 3. The growth of John (v. 80). He grew and waxed strong in the Spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his showing unto Israel. Our Own Sins The world today is openly confessing other people's sins, but too few people see their own.—J. G. Ruth. God Stamps Us Only melted gold is coined and ready for the stamp. When melted, God stamps us.—Evangelical Visitor. The Favorite Book The Bible has been the favorite book of those who were troubled and down trodden.—Henry van Dyke.

CHICKEN STEW GIVEN AT KING

Christian Sunday School Has Picnic—Several Births Recorded—Other Items.

King, Sept. 30. — William Gordon gave a big chicken stew and weiner roast at his tobacco barn Friday night on Pinnacle Route 2. Quite a large crowd attended and all seemed to enjoy themselves to the limit. O. W. Sisk and family, of King, were among the ones attending.

The King Christian Sunday School went on a picnic to Crystal Lake near Winston-Salem Friday afternoon. About one hundred people were in the party and it was an enjoyable occasion for all who made the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Brady Dely have returned to their home here after spending a few days with relatives at Sparta.

Theodore Newsum is soliciting funds to improve and fence the Newsum graveyard which is located near Tobaccolville. All who have relatives buried there are requested to send Mr. Newsum a donation to this worthy cause. It will be appreciated it matters not how small. His address is King, N. C.

The new home of Dr. Rupert S. Helsabeck which is located on the site of the old Stokes County Fair grounds, is nearing completion. The doctor expects to move in within the next few days. When completed this will be decidedly the best residence in King.

The following births were registered here last week: To Mr. and Mrs. Oakley Hartgrove a son, to Mr. and Mrs. Wick Owens a son, to Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Baker a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Lawton a son and to Mr. and Mrs. Grady Shore a son.

Lin Southern, planter, who resides just north of town had the misfortune to lose a good barn of tobacco by fire Saturday afternoon.

The Pinnacle base ball team was bent on defeating the King Tigers in a game played in the Pinnacle park Saturday, so they secured Rabbit Whitman, but it was to no avail. The Tigers devoured them to the tune of six and three. But the Pinnacle boys who are a jolly good bunch took it good naturedly.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Newsom, of High Point, were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. Newsom's brother, Land's R. Newsom, who resides just east of town.

Messrs. Spencer and Homer Slate, of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday here the guests of relatives.

John Abe Newsom and family of Winston-Salem, were among the visitors here Sunday.

Farmers in this section are very busy preparing tobacco for the market.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Ross Newsom, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny McGee and Mrs. S. W. Pulliam spent Sunday with relatives in Davie county.

Everett Stone, of High Point, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stone, who reside here.

There will be preaching service at the King Moravian church next Sunday at eleven A. M. and at 7:30 P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Pulliam spent Monday in Winston-Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Reeves have returned to their home here after spending several days with relatives at Sparta.

Two heavy show trains passed through here Monday en route to the Mount Airy fair. Harry H. Leake made a business trip to Danbury Saturday.

An inquest on Mrs. Catherine Watson of London, who died suddenly at 92, showed her heart was turning to stone.
