Mrs. Neely Addresses Woman's Auxiliary — Personal and Social News.

Walnut Cove, Oct. 8.—The Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church met at Saura Lodge on Monday evening at which time Mrs. Julius Neely, of Winston-Salem, who is a very charming and entertaining speaker, gave a very interesting account of her trip to the Hawaiian Islands, where her daughter and son-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. Jodi Martin, are doing mission work for the Episcopal church. Mrs. Neely described in a realistic way the beauty of these outlying possessions of ours. The work of the church there, particularly Mr. Martin's work, in a building program was outlined. Russian tea and sandwiches were served during a delightful social half hour. Mrs. Vaughn-Lloyd, of Winston-Salem, accompanied Mrs. Neely and was a guest at the meeting.

Miss Elizabeth Sparger spent the week end in Greensboro with her sister, Mrs. Dickerson.

Mrs. H. J. White, of Elizabethton, Tenn., is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. B. Woodruff.

Miss Helen Rierson, of Charlotte, is the guest of relatives here.

Misses Minnie and Willie Mae Cates, of Greensboro, spent the week end here with their mother, Mrs. O. J. Cates. Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree, of Durham, were guests last week of Mrs. H. N. Scott.

Mrs. W. P. Wheeler and daughter, Helen, of Rocky Mt., Va., were here over the week end.

Thomas Hardy Rothrock, Paul Davis, Jr., and Robert Sisk, University students at Chapel Hill, visited at their respective homes over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. George Morris, of Martinsville, were guests Friday of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, and on Saturday they composed a party to Charlottesville, Va., to attend a foot ball game.

Mrs. Donnell Van Noppen and small son, Donnell, Jr., of Mebane, are spending the week here with relatives.

Mesdames George Fulton, Leake Lovin, J. W. Jones, Paul Davis, and Donnell Van Noppen spent yesterday in Greensboro shopping.

Walnut Cove, Oct. 7.—The W. M. U. of the Walnut Cove Baptist church had a delightful meeting with Mrs. Joe Zimmerman Thursday afternoon.

The home was beautifully decorated with an artistic arrangement of lovely fall flowers.

The meeting opened with singing, "Faith of Our Fathers," followed with prayer offered by Mrs. C. M. Jones.

The study for the afternoon was entitled "In Union There is Strength," providing material for a most interesting program.

Mesdames J. D. Johnson and L. B. Neal took subjects under this general topic which they developed ably.

Mrs. C. J. Helsebeck presented the Bible story choosing as her Theme "The Life of the Boy Jesus" which was very interesting and helpful. Little Everette Ray Voss sang very sweetly "Jesus Was a Little Boy Just Like Me," with Mrs. Helsebeck at the piano.

During the business session routine business was disposed of and the following nominating committee was chosen to name officers to be elected at the next meeting. The meeting closed with prayer, after which a social hour was enjoyed.

The hostess, assisted by Mesdames E. S. Zimmerman and H. E. Blackburn, served a delicious salad course.

Walnut Cove, Oct. 7.—The Euzelean Sunday School class of the Walnut Cove Baptist church met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Claude Mabe at her home on North Main Street with twelve members present.

The meeting opened with the song "Brightly Beams Our Fathers Mercy" and the devotionals were conducted by Mrs. H. E. Blackburn, reading the fifteenth Psalm, followed with prayer by Mrs. W. M. Marshall.

During the short business session Mrs. J. D. Johnson, the secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting which were approved by the class members.

A very interesting feature of the afternoon was the Bible Study which was conducted by the president, Mrs. L. B. Neal, who very cleverly explained the book of Exodus. This was greatly enjoyed by all present.

During the social hour the hostess served delicious fruits.

Lum Booth was among the farmers who sold tobacco on the opening sale day Tuesday at Winston-Salem. Lum was disappointed in the low prices he received.
