

"WHY I TRADE WITH THESE BUSINESS FIRMS."

Winston-Salem, April 12, 1932.
 Contest Editor,
 The Danbury Reporter,

 Winston-Salem, N. C.
 Dear Sir:
 The three greatest reasons why Vogler Service has won and held the confidence of the people of this community over a period of more than seventy-four years are:
 First: Absolute confidence to the sterling Christian character of the members of the firm.
 Second: Experienced service including the smallest details.
 Third: Sympathetic understanding that is the result of many, many years of conscientious study and painstaking experience.
 Respectfully,
 CHAS. J. ALEXANDER.

 Dear Sir:
 I like to trade with H. H. Jones Furniture Company for the following reasons:
 First: I have absolute confidence in the integrity of Mr. H. G. Lewis, the manager, whom I have known for many years.
 Second: I have never been disappointed in any of their merchandise, always finding it just as represented.
 Third: The treatment I have received has always been courteous and considerate.
 Fourth: I have found their prices as reasonable as I could expect for the merchandise offered.
 Respectfully,
 CHAS. J. ALEXANDER.

 Editor Danbury Reporter:
 I am a theatre fan. I go to the shows every day that I can. The best place in Winston-Salem to see a good picture at the lowest price is at the Colonial. It is a modern, nice, comfortable play-house where people in their hard times can see the best shows at a price everybody can afford.

WHY I TRADE WITH E. M. MYERS & CO.
 Winston-Salem, April 13, 1932.
 I have been trading with the firm of E. M. Myers & Co. off and on for the past several years, buying automobile accessories.
 I have always found them courteous and willing to give information of interest to the motorists, this coupled with the right price and quality merchandise they handle gives me an additional pleasure in my dealings with them.
 They also handle a reliable make of tires that go a long way to make friends, and the best part of the Murry line of tires and tubes is that a murrer the customer is a satisfied customer, because they are cheap in price and high in quality.
 E. M. Myers & Co. have always treated me fair and square and that is why I always recommend them to my friends.
 If you trade with them once you will trade with them again if you need anything in their line.
 C. C. JENKINS.

 Dear Sir:
 I have known the officers of the Winston-Salem Building and Loan Association for years and have had the pleasure of transacting business with them.
 They have at all times seemed glad to do anything they could to assist me and have made me feel they were anxious to serve me and appreciated my business.
 The officers and employees of this Association measure up to what I want, so why not tell them so?
 Respectfully,
 CHAS. J. ALEXANDER.

WHY I TRADE WITH E. J. ANGELO & CO.
 Winston-Salem, April 13, 1932.
 Several good reasons allow me to answer the question, "Why I Trade With E. J. Angelo & Co."
 First: Twelve years ago as Bride and Groom my wife and I came to Winston-Salem to make this our home, and to begin our first House-Keeping. We had a home with a place to cook but nothing to cook, so we started looking around and ended up on North Liberty Street at E. J. Angelo's where we bought our first bill of groceries. Even though total strangers we immediately became one of their regular customers and enjoyed prompt and courteous service as long as "Angelo" remained on Liberty St., and when they moved to their new and modern present location on Burke Street, what did we do? we went with them. Why?
 Second: Because I know of no other place where you can find such splendid service combined with the best of all in and out of season vegetables, fruits, groceries, and melons, "Oh, boy, and Angelo's meats are best of eats."
 Third: When in need of the best in all foods, call Angelo's. After the first order is delivered, and you see how well 'twas filled, Call them and give them another "N your grocery worries 'll be stilled."

 "Why I Trade With E. W. O'Hanlon."
 Because for more than 25 years I have patronized this drug store, and have always been treated with utmost fairness, courtesy and liberality. O'Hanlon's has been headquarters for Stokes county people who buy drugs, since my earliest recollections. I know of no better place to trade.

MAKE PLAIN CAKE RICH WITH CHOCOLATE FLAVOR

EVERY housewife has a prized cake recipe for special occasions. But cakes baked every Saturday for daily family needs must be economical as well as tempting.
 How fortunate therefore that chocolate flavor is a family favorite. Chocolate works wonders either with a simple family cake or one for special occasions. A chocolate frosting makes the plainest cake tempting, while a chocolate batter makes your simplest cake rich.
One-Egg Chocolate Layer Cake
 2 cups sifted cake flour
 2 teaspoons baking powder
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1 cup sugar
 Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually. Cream together until light and fluffy. Add egg, beat thoroughly. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time. Beat after each addition until smooth. Add flavoring. Bake in two greased 9-inch layer pans in moderate oven (375°F.) 25 minutes, or in greased loaf pan, 8x3x2 inches, in moderate oven (350°F.) 50 minutes. Double recipe for three 10-inch layers. Spread with Soft Chocolate Frosting.
Soft Chocolate Frosting
 4 squares unsweetened chocolate
 1 cup sugar
 cut in pieces
 1 1/2 cups milk
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 4 tablespoons butter or other shortening
 1 egg, unbeaten
 1/4 cup milk
 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
 Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually. Cream together until light and fluffy. Add egg, beat thoroughly. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time. Beat after each addition until smooth. Fold in chocolate. Pour into greased muffin pans, filling two-thirds full. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) 15 minutes. Cover with Soft Chocolate Frosting. Decorate with chopped nuts, decorated, coconut, or designs of melted chocolate. Makes 20 cakes.
 You will find that these cakes served with fresh fruit in season or stewed fruit will make a delicious dessert.

ORANGE-CRUSH is wholesome and refreshing. Refuse "pop" and imitation drinks. There is only one ORANGE-CRUSH and if it isn't in the "KRINKLY" bottle it isn't ORANGE-CRUSH.
 Choice tree-ripe oranges, fresh from the groves, are used in making ORANGE-CRUSH. But remember there is only one ORANGE-CRUSH and if it isn't in the "KRINKLY" bottle it isn't ORANGE-CRUSH.

RESPONSIBILITY

UPON no other industry falls the stupendous responsibility that is the railroads'. Every hour of every day and night, year in and year out, they are entrusted with the protection and safety of tens of thousands of travelers, and millions of dollars worth of products from thousands of factories, farms, mines and forests. And continuously, the railroads are justifying this faith—fulfilling this great public trust. Consider the evidence:
 In 1931 the American railroads transported more than 961 million tons of freight (estimated to have a value of nearly 52 billion dollars) with such efficiency and safety that their claim bill, for loss and damage, amounted to only five one-hundredths of one percent of the total value of the freight, or approximately two and one-half cents per ton. In addition, the railroads carried more than 600,000,000 persons last year with only four fatalities in train accidents.
 That the Norfolk and Western Railway always "measures up" in fulfilling your trust, is strikingly illustrated by the railroad's extraordinary achievements in safety and efficiency. Here is the record:
 In 1931 the Norfolk and Western moved 37,101,285 tons of revenue freight with the remarkably low claim charge of one-half a cent per ton. Of the total claims presented during the year, more than 88 per cent were handled to a conclusion within 30 days. And during the past three years, the N. & W. has carried 5,426,505 revenue passengers without a single fatality.
 In fulfilling this public trust, railroads have expended billions of dollars for the finest equipment and facilities that can be obtained. They provide and maintain every modern railway safety device and appliance, extensive freight terminals, freight depots, storage warehouses, passenger terminals and stations. They have trained representatives to serve the shipping and traveling public in every hamlet and metropolis. The railroads are dependable; they carry anything, anywhere, any time, in all kinds of weather. And the railroads are financially responsible.
 The Norfolk and Western, and the other railroads of the country, are keenly conscious of the great responsibility resting upon them. Certainly, the facts presented here show that they are continuously fulfilling the trust placed with them. Because of these things and because of their records for safety, efficiency and dependability, the railroads feel justified in asking the continued support and patronage of the American public.

New Varieties
 The old reliable catalog of Wood's Seeds this year is fairly sprouting with new varieties. There is the new Break O'Day Tomato, the latest development of Dr. Pritchard of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture for which a wonderful future is predicted. And there is Wood's Sumptuous Peas—tender and more delicious than any blackeye—a large yield and easy to shell. Superba Cantaloupes—Earlgreen Cucumbers—Tendergreen All-Season Beans—are other varieties offered for the first time.
WOOD'S SEEDS
 Tested, adapted seed of the same high quality that made their excellent reputation and at lower prices this year than for years. The best seeds are the cheapest seeds to plant. Write for catalog.
