

THE DANBURY REPORTER.

Volume 60.

Established 1872.

Danbury, N. C., Wednesday, June 29, 1932

Number 3,732

MRS. WILEY BAKER DIES SUDDENLY

SHE WAS AGED 50, AND SUFFERED A HEART ATTACK—OTHER NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM KING AND YADKIN TOWNSHIP.

King, June 29.—Charlie Hunter found a terrapin on his farm three miles south of here last week with the initials of Albert Petree and date 1894 carved on the shell. Mr. Petree was reared on a farm near where the terrapin was found but left this section about thirty years ago, going to Ohio where he has resided since. He is now a resident of Cincinnati and holds a position as locomotive engineer with the Norfolk & Western Railway. Mr. Petree evidently did the engraving 38 years ago when he was only a boy.

A dog leaped into the road in front of a mule which was being ridden by Arnold Fulk Tuesday. The animal became frightened and started to run. Mr. Fulk was thrown from the mule, one foot being tangled in a plow trace. He was dragged on the hard road for a distance of about 20 feet inflicting severe bruises about his body.

Miss Eunice Lawson, trained nurse of Westfield, N. J., is spending a month's vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Lawson, on Main St.

Mrs. Wiley Baker, aged about 50, died almost suddenly at their home at Mountain View Thursday night about ten o'clock from a heart attack. The deceased is survived by the husband and several children. The funeral service was conducted at Mizpah Baptist church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock and burial followed in the church cemetery.

Miss Leona Pulliam, trained nurse of High Point, is spending her vacation with relatives here.

Spencer and Homer Slate, of Winston-Salem, spent the weekend here the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Slate.

John Tillotson, planter of the Mt. Olive section, has a Ford touring car which he purchased new in 1914. This automobile is well preserved and is still in use.

Thomas A. Dalton, of Dalton, was a business visitor here Saturday.

The following births were recorded here last week. To Mr. and Mrs. John Fulp, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Darnell, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. Elder M. Hauser, a son, and to Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Worden, a daughter.

Attorney Pierson Rumley and Perry B. Turner, of Winston-Salem, were among the business visitors here Saturday.

Muertus Caudle, of Greensboro, is spending a few days with relatives in Walnut Hills.

The King Tigers lost to Walkertown in a game played on the Walkertown diamond Saturday. The final score stood 6 and 2.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Tuttle and son, Master T. D. Tuttle, were among the visitors here Saturday.

Miss Flossie B. Caudle, of Bon Air, Winston-Salem, was a weekend visitor to relatives here.

There will be preaching at the Moravian church next Sunday evening at eight o'clock. The service will continue through the week. Everybody is cordially invited to attend these services.

John Stewart, who resides in Pilot View, fainted and fell from the door steps at his home Sunday afternoon inflicting an ugly wound on his forehead. He was attended by Dr. G. E. Stone.

Fred Hauser, medical student of Richmond, Va., spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mrs. Susan Love has returned from Salisbury, where she spent a week with her son, John Love.

Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Harding have returned to their home here after spending some time with relatives at Farmington.

Mrs. Edwin F. Walker, of Pinna, spent Sunday here the guest of relatives.

Mrs. Laura Hilderman, Miss Elsie Zafager and Miss Ethel Cheatham, all of Baltimore, are the guests of Mrs. R. H. Morefield here.

FINE ARTS CLUB IS ENTERTAINED

MRS. DR. R. H. MOREFIELD, HOSTESS—PROGRAM INTERESTING, FOLLOWED BY DELICIOUS REFRESHMENTS.

The June meeting of the Fine Arts Club was held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. H. Moore, field when she entertained the members and several additional guests at one of the most delightful meetings of the year. The president, Mrs. J. J. Taylor, was in the chair and the meeting opened with the Club woman's Hymn, followed by the collect. The general topic of study was, "New Wine in Old Bottles." Three splendid papers were given under this topic. Galahad: Twentieth Century Version by John Erskine was outlined by Miss Luna Taylor; Galahad: Mid-Victorian Version by Miss Nellie Joyce; Mil-lay's, The King's Henchman by Mrs. William Joyce. Miss Mary Taylor concluded the altogether enjoyable program with a piano selection "Indian Love Call."

During the social hour a contest suggestive of the approaching National holiday, the 4th of July, was engaged in with much interest. Mrs. R. R. King, Mrs. Em Pepper, Miss Luna Taylor and Miss Nell Joyce each answered the same number correctly and drew for the prizes which resulted in Mrs. King receiving a lovely jardener, Mrs. Pepper an attractive wall basket and Miss Taylor dainty powder puffs.

The hostess was assisted in entertaining her guests by Mrs. John Morefield and daughters, Misses Annie King and Elizabeth and Mrs. W. Leman, of Winston-Salem, who helped in serving a tempting con-gealed salad course followed by an ice course and salted nuts.

Mrs. R. R. King will be hostess to the club at the July meeting.

—A-Ddr shrdia etacin emfwy m

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

A new Chevrolet car, bearing an Ohio license plate, was badly wrecked yesterday just north of here on the Virginia road when the car ran into a bank and turned over. The driver, who left immediately failed to give his name. He instructed that the car be repaired and he would come back for it.

Attorney J. E. Patterson, of Leaks-ville, manager in Rockingham county of the campaign of R. R. Reynolds, candidate for U. S. Senate, was in Danbury yesterday in the interest of Mr. Reynolds.

Mrs. S. P. Christian is recovering from a recent illness with influenza. J. R. Leak was a visitor in Winston-Salem today.

The members of the King Baptist Sunday school will spend Thursday at 'Paul Taylor's club house, near Lake Steadman, where they will have a program and a picnic dinner following. The exercises will begin at 3 o'clock p.m.

Robt. Sisk, manager of the Piedmont Springs dance hall, announces that he will start a fourth of July dance at that place on Sunday night at 12 o'clock.

J. W. Lovill, prominent Mt. Airy citizen, was at the court house here on business yesterday.

OXFORD ORPHANS AT WALNUT COVE

SINGING CLASS GIVES CONCERT AT SCHOOL AUDITORIUM—PEACHES HIGH AND SCARCE IN THE SANDHILLS—REVIVAL SERVICES AT BAPTIST CHURCH.

Walnut Cove, June 27.—The singing class of the Oxford Orphanage gave a concert here in the school building auditorium on Tuesday evening, June 28, at 8 o'clock. These concerts always prove highly enjoyable and the cause is one that lies close to the hearts of the people. Coy Preston, of King, who was being held in Stokes jail on a charge of violating the prohibition laws, was released Saturday when Chas. Hutchins, of Winston-Salem, signed his bond.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hill, of Sandy Ridge, are the happy parents of a fine girl, the young lady arriving Friday.

The annual foot-washing of the Primitive Baptists will be celebrated at Piney Grove church, near here, next Sunday. This is one of the most important events held by this church and is always attended by large crowds.

Frank Hill, prominent farmer here from Sandy Ridge yesterday stated that in his opinion there would not be more than one-third of the usual tobacco crop throughout his entire community. This section probably produces the finest tobacco of any section of Stokes county when crops are good.

A small audience heard Attorneys C. O. McMichael and W. R. Johnson, of Winston-Salem, Saturday night when they spoke in the court house at Danbury in the interest of R. R. Reynolds, candidate for U. S. Senate. Judge G. H. Hastings, who was also expected to speak, was unavoidably detained at home.

Mrs. Donald Van Noppen, of Mebane, was the weekend guest of relatives here.

Miss Margaret Fulton spent the weekend with friends in Danbury.

Mrs. Anne Carter, who is attending summer school at Chapel Hill, spent Sunday with relatives here.

John Maroney, of Winston-Salem, was here yesterday enroute to Danbury to visit friends.

Walnut Cove, June 28.—H. H. Davis returned Thursday from a trip through the sandhills and the peach orchards of southern Carolina. He found that the crop of peaches is going to be good, though not as good as last year. The fruit will likely be finer but the trees are not so full. A few of the orchards are already gathering the Early Rose peaches and getting $2.50 per crate, which is a fancy price, the crates holding less than a bushel.

Tobacco is poor in the southern counties, having been drowned out by so much rain. Corn, watermelons and cantaloupes promise to be fair.

Bill Jones, of Walnut Cove, and George Morris, of Martinsville, were in eastern Carolina last week on a fishing trip. Mrs. Morris spent the week with her sister here, Mrs. I.

ELDER D. COLLINS DIES AT HIS HOME

ONE OF THE BEST KNOWN STOKES COUNTY PRIMITIVE BAPTIST MINISTERS ANSWERS THE SUMMONS, AT 74.

Danbury, June 24.—Elder Darian Collins, aged 74 years, one of this entire section's best known Primitive Baptist ministers, passed away at his home in Quaker Gap township yesterday after an illness of three weeks, following a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Collins has for many years served churches in Surry, Patrick, Rockingham and other counties, as well as being pastor of several churches in Stokes. The deceased is survived by one son, Will Collins, of Stokes, and by several daughters, his wife having passed away about 6 months since. Funeral services will be held at Rock House Baptist church today and will be in the cemetery there.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Fagg went to Winston-Salem today to visit their young daughter who recently underwent an operation in a hospital there. The little girl is getting along nicely.

Pastor of the Presbyterian church W. F. Marshall and family received a "pounding" at the hands of the pastor's congregation and friends today.

Robt. A. Joyce, of Winston-Salem, was a visitor to Danbury Saturday. He was accompanied by Charlie Martin, who has been spending some time in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. James L. Moore is seriously ill at her home near Lawsonville.

George A. Young, of Greensboro, former solicitor in this district, will address the voters of Stokes county in the interest of the candidacy of Hon. R. T. Fountain, for Governor, at the following times and places: Lawsonville, June 29; Sandy Ridge, June 30 and Danbury, July 1. All appointments are made for 8:30 at night.

Mrs. J. W. Whitton, of the Lawsonville community, is confined to her bed with illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene LeGrande, of Winston-Salem, were here today en route to the mountains on a camping trip. Mr. LeGrande is one of the efficient members of the Journal-Sentinel force. He has some warm friends here, who hope for the couple a pleasant outing.

W. Jones.

Mrs. Herbert Smith, of Liberty, and Mrs. B. N. Jones, of Winston-Salem, are spending a few days with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Jones.

Mary Vaughn Lewellyn, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewellyn, was operated upon last week at a Winston-Salem hospital for appendicitis. She is getting along nicely.

Mrs. S. C. Rierison, Sr., who has been ill some days, is able to be out again.

Rev. Fred N. Day, of Winston-Salem, is assisting pastor E. O. Ward in a series of revival services at the Baptist church.

STUART, VA., WILL CELEBRATE 4TH

GREAT DAY PROMISED BY COUNTY SEAT OF PATRICK—THE STUART FLOYD HIGHWAY IMPROVING.

Walnut Cove, June 25.—Patrick county, Va., citizens here today were enthusiastic over the prospect of the big fourth of July celebration to be held at Stuart, Va. Special stress was laid on the fact that the services of the American Legion Band of Winston-Salem had been secured for the occasion, this aggregation having held the honor of being the Legion's band for 5 years. There are 35 men in the ensemble, there will be an address by Hon. J. Murray Hooker, congressman; parades, daylight fireworks, baseball games, fiddler's convention, carnival shows, etc. It is hoped by the management to have one or more aeroplanes on the field to carry visitors for rides throughout the day. Jas. A. McCartney is chairman of the committee on arrangements.

It is a matter of general interest that work is progressing as rapidly as possible on the highway leading from Stuart to Floyd county house. This is Virginia route 23 and Patrick citizens claim that it will, when finished, be the most direct route from the Great Lakes to Florida. This road leads through Walnut Cove and Danbury.

Walnut Cove, June 25.—The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. A. G. Jones this week when the usual custom was followed by having a number of additional guests. The June meeting of all Methodist Societies being the same meeting when all the church members were especially invited to attend. Mrs. A. G. Jones who is the president, presided over a very enjoyable and instructive meeting. Mrs. J. L. Wolff, of Mt. Airy, spoke on "Why I Am a Member of the Missionary Society." Mrs. George Stinson, of Mt. Airy, gave a report of a recent council at Charlotte.

Mrs. C. J. Lamb, of the Walnut Cove Society gave a report of the district meeting held in Danbury in May. Miss Saxon Voss gave a beautiful solo. The hostess was assisted in entertaining her guests by her daughters, Mrs. Norman Stone, of Winston-Salem, Mrs. H. L. Smith, of Liberty, Mrs. C. H. Lamb and Miss Nannie Jones. A delightful social half hour was enjoyed and refreshments served.

Walnut Cove, June 30.—As additional evidence that there will be a very short crop of tobacco this year, Geo. W. Smith, of Sandy Ridge, who grew sixty-nine barns of the weed last season, stated today that his farm would certainly not have more than half this number this year. Mr. Smith stated that he found about the same conditions throughout his section. He reports a good wheat crop and a fine corn crop.

Farmers are just getting acquainted with the fact that this year threshing machines must pay $40.00 federal tax and two cents on each bushel.

Parties traveling between here and Danbury early yesterday noted a large grey fox on the concrete. The car came almost up to the animal before it bounded into the brush.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Game Warden R. R. King calls attention to the fact that the law allowing seining in certain counties where the streams are muddy, does not apply to Stokes county. Forsyth and Surry counties will be open to seining in certain streams beginning July 1st.

Three Stokes men captured at a still some time since, when three gallons of their whiskey was poured out, have been assessed $1.10 tax on each gallon by the Federal government, and a lien against the men for the tax of $3.30 was recorded in the Register's office today, the owners of the whiskey having failed to pay the tax.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Hartsfield arrived here from West Palm Beach, Florida, yesterday to visit their son, Rev. F. E. Hartsfield, pastor of the M. E. Church.

Miss Laura Ellington, registrar at Sandy Ridge voting precinct, was a visitor at the court house yesterday.

Spencer Fowler, of Walnut Cove, tomorrow will succeed Sandy East, of Winston-Salem, as carrier of the Walnut Cove-Danbury-Lawsonville star mail route, Mr. Fowler having been the low bidder at the last letting of mail routes. Likewise Will Morefield, of Rural Hall, succeeds Martin Brown, of Moore's Springs, as carrier of the Rural Hall-Moore's Springs star route on July 1.

Arthur Rogers, prominent farmer of the Lawsonville community, was carried to Martin Memorial hospital in Mount Airy last night, suffering with appendicitis and complications. His condition was described as critical.

Laura Mabe, of Danbury Route 1, has returned to his home after an illness in a Stuart hospital of eight weeks with blood poisoning. He is greatly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Pringle, of the community south of Greensboro, arrived here today to visit their mother, Mrs. A. J. Pringle. Mr. Pringle removed to Guilford county 15 years since. He is engaged in farming and is making a success, the depression notwithstanding to the contrary.

Washed of wheat they thresh. In order to take care of the tax the threshers will charge one-fiftieth instead of one-twentieth of the wheat threshed according to Mr. Z. R. Isom, of Walnut Cove. Harvesting the crop is getting well under way now.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Neal, of Walnut Cove, and Miss Nell Thomas, of King, have just returned from a delightful trip to New York and other cities. The trip was made by automobile, and speaking of the recent increase in the price of gasoline, Mr. Neal stated that he bought gas in Pennsylvania for 15c, per gallon.

Parties traveling between here and Danbury early yesterday noted a large grey fox on the concrete. The car came almost up to the animal before it bounded into the brush.