STOKES MAN LOSES MONEY IN WINSTON

FRANK REDMAN GETS HIS POCKET PICKED OF $20 BILL BUT LANDS THE THIEF IN JAIL.

Stokes boys who have money or wood to burn, must be careful when they contact the crooks at Winston-Salem.

Alleged to have picked the pocket of Frank Redman, 35, of Germantown Route 1, late Saturday afternoon on East Twenty-first street of a pocketbook containing $20. Lee Bolt, of 440 Fifteenth street was arrested Sunday morning about 2 o'clock on North Liberty street, near White street, on a charge of larceny from the person. He was lodged in the city jail in default of $500 bond to await trial in municipal court.

According to information, Redman is said to have gone to the home of Helen Magee on East Twenty-first street to collect for some wood he had delivered. He made change for a large bill and replaced his pocketbook in a hip pocket.

While Redman was leaning over his automobile, Bolt is alleged to have slipped the pocketbook out of the pocket. Redman is said to have caught Bolt in the act and demanded the return of his money. Bolt gave him $1 and refused to return any more, saying he would repay the money later, according to police. Redman demanded the money and Bolt is said to have drawn a large knife and ordered Redman to leave.

G. O. P. Propaganda.

Mispah, Sept. 27.

Editor Danbury Reporter: During the present sojourn of Republicanism, there is one branch of the G. O. P. in which the Republicans have proven themselves very adept. They have proven, beyond a doubt, that they are able to originate and circulate propaganda that will control the majority of public opinion.

In 1893 when the Cleveland stringency was upon the country and everything was cheap, the propaganda was circulated that called this a panic. Propaganda proved to the public that it was, and accordingly it was put down in history as a panic.

At the present date, times are exceedingly hard, people are unemployed and starving, but still no Republican will call it a panic. The propagandists are still on their job, and they have called these hard times a "depression."

If "depression" does not imply something worse than a "panic" then the propagandists have proven themselves very adept in controlling public opinion and history.

C. H. R. Sheriff J. John Taylor, S. P. Christian and Calvin Mabe were visitors to Greensboro Sunday.

ORGANIZING FOR THE CAMPAIGN

SHUPING HOPES TO HAVE 100,000 MEMBERS — SPARGER STOKES DIRECTOR OF FINANCE.

Greensboro, Sept. 25.—Appointment of county directors of finance in 38 counties was announced here tonight by C. L. Shuping, State director of finance in North Carolina for the Democratic National Committee, who at the same time voiced pleasure over the widespread interest already aroused in this appeal for financial support for the Democratic campaign. "The indications of impending victory of most decisive character for the Democracy are multiplying daily," he declared.

To Enroll Members. County directors of finance, it was shown, are perfecting their organizations and will proceed at once with the enrolment of members in the Roosevelt-Garner Club, a State-wide body, and with the solicitation of campaign funds. Organization of the State will be completed this week. Mr. Shuping is continuing to receive voluntary contributions at his office constituting State headquarters in this financial campaign. They are being credited to the counties from which they come.

Roosevelt-Garner medallions, designed by Gutson Borglum, will be promptly forwarded to county directors for distribution among those contributing specified minimum amounts.

Seek 100,000

"We hope to enroll more than 100,000 members in the Roosevelt-Garner Club in North Carolina," said the State director. "The apparent certainty of the election of Governor Roosevelt as president is greatly stimulating the movement. This appeal is being made to all Democrats—business men, professional men, farmers, wage earners, men and women in all walks of life, no class being excluded. It is a thoroughly inclusive movement, extending its appeal to all persons interested in the success of the Democratic national ticket as well as the Democratic State ticket.

S. G. Sparger, of Danbury, has been appointed by Mr. Shuping as county director of finance for Stokes.

Three negroes were arrested Friday night by Deputy Sheriff Carl Ray when they stepped into his car while he was waiting for the owners of several 5-gallon cans of liquor which had been thrown off a N. & W. freight train near Walnut Cove. The men were brought to Danbury and placed in jail but at a hearing Saturday they denied ownership of the whiskey. Sheriff Ray had located the liquor and parked his car right near it. The men with him falling to come up, he began blowing the horn on his car, and the negroes, evidently thinking it was the car they were looking for, walked up and got in the car and were arrested, but the evidence was not sufficient to connect them with the whiskey and they were released, while the liquor was poured out.

Kirby Answers His Critics

Mr. N. E. Pepper, Editor Danbury Reporter, Danbury, N. C.

Dear sir:— Will you be so kind as to allow me space in your paper to answer "Reader" who was so good to tell you about the applause that is coming from the Republicans down in Forsyth with reference to me being a candidate for Congress against Mr. Hancock.

Yes, there is considerable applause about it. In fact there is loud applause from the rank and file of the Republican ex-servicemen and their friends that there is some one running for Congress that will vote to get them what is due them and don't you forget that they know who he is. They know that they cannot depend on Mr. Hancock. They know they cannot depend on their own nominee, for in the same paper in which the article by "Reader" appeared there appeared a report of a speech that Mr. Wall made in Danbury on Saturday night before and in which he is reported to have said that he favored the payment of the bonus now "if possible." Where did Mr. Wall get those words "if possible"? From Mr. Hoover, of course. And should Mr. Wall get elected how easy it would be after he gets up there to say along with Mr. Hoover that it was just "no possible."

But Mr. Editor, it was possible to give the big boys two billion dollars. The railroads that received a bonus after the war, while the boys who did the fighting had to stand back and wait, now come in for some more that should be paid to the boys. Yes, there is quite a little applause for me for these Republican boys know what to expect from Mr. Hoover and his crowd. Personally Mr. Wall the Republican candidate, might like to see the bonus paid, but don't think for a moment that the boys know they cannot expect anything from him. Was it not his presidential candidate that vetoed the bonus in advance of the passage of the bill? Did not Mr. Coolidge veto it before him and was it not Mr. Hoover, who although he professes to be a Quaker and is opposed to the spilling of blood, that drove the boys with defenseless women and children from the very property they fought to defend with gas and bayonet and in the night time. Yet some are foolish enough to claim that these Republican boys are going to vote for the Republican candidate with the hopes of getting their money.

But Mr. Editor, "Reader" says: "Of course large numbers bonus Democrats will not (vote for me) as few of them are unsophisticated enough not to know that a vote for Dallas is a half vote for Wall, the Republican candidate." Does he think that with all the money that Mr. Hancock can put behind his fight he can pay the boys from one to eight hundred dollars each? That is what they would get if the bonus is paid,—or on the average of five hundred dollars each. The boys of Stokes county would receive

OAKLEY GIVES BOND FOR OCT. COURT

HEARING IN THE MATTER OF THE GUN AFFAIR AT MEADOWS—HAPPY RECONCILIATION BETWEEN OAKLEY AND HIS WIFE.

Noel Oakley was bound over to October court on the charge of shooting at his brother-in-law Let Mabe and the latter's family on the highway at Meadows the first Sunday in September. The hearing was before Justice James B. Joyce here Saturday. The magistrate continued Oakley's bond at $300.00, which was given.

At this trial, prior indictments against Oakley on the charge of assaulting his wife, were quashed, when Oakley and his wife, after mutual concessions and forgiveness, became reconciled, and with the children, all left for home together, very happy.

The law is indulgent toward wedded couples who have been separated or estranged, and encourages the marital rapprochement.

It had developed at the trial that Oakley's wife had been embittered and goaded by outside interference, and that there had never been any pronounced mistreatment of his wife by her husband. Mrs. Oakley admitted to her husband that he had never seriously mistreated her. With some diplomacy on the part of the magistrate and the friends of the couple, the differences were easily ironed out, and everything ended with satisfaction on both sides.

Mrs. Mary Nannie Simmons, 52 widow of the late W. W. Simmons, died last week at Martin Memorial hospital at Mt. Airy after a long illness.

over $275,000. If Mr. Hancock can give them that amount then they may vote for him,—otherwise they will not. Do the people of Stokes want this money put in circulation up there? If they do then they will vote for me. Do the fathers and mothers and brothers and sisters of these boys want them to get what is due them? If they do then they will vote for me. So do not be surprised when all the votes are cast that you will find that they do and that Mr. Hancock and Mr. Wall have failed to fool them.
