MAY DAY PROGRAM CORRECT DATE IS COVE HIGH SCHOOL THIRD SUNDAY MAY

BEAUTIFUL CEREMONIAL ATTENDED BY THROUNGS—MARGARET FULTON CROWNED QUEEN OF THE MAY—H. C. BURNETT FALLS ON CEMENT AND IS NOW SERIOUSLY ILL WITH PNEUMONIA—AMERICAN LEGION WILL DEMAND THE SOLDIER BONUS—NEXT MEETING THIRD SATURDAY IN MAY.

Walnut Cove, May 8.

The May Day Program, which was deferred from last Friday on account of the inclement weather, until this afternoon at 2:30 p. m., was feted with a throng of people. Running exactly on schedule time, the student body of the entire school assembled themselves in perfect order, after which the song by the primary children was followed by a song from the sixth and seventh grade students. Harry Hutchison gave a fine impressive history of the May Day, stating that the history of the day dated far back in the early centuries in Europe. The May Pole Dance, and the dance of the flowers, followed by the song of the Pixies, showed that the children in the primary grades had been given excellent training by their teachers. Even though the sun was hot, not even respecting the pianist, Miss Blue and her assistant, Little Miss Nancy Lambe, the Queen, and her entire court appeared dressed in all the splendor of the various Spring colors, and received the wreath, crowning Miss Margaret Fulton Queen of the May.

Mr. H. C. Burnett, who was on Nas Thursday morning making arrangements for the connection with the Southern Public Utility Company for lights to the Neal filling station office room, suffered a severe fall on the concrete in front of the building. On Friday afternoon pneumonia developed; and at this writing Mr. Burnett's condition is serious.

Mr. Elph B. Mills and family spent Sunday in Statesville. The mother of Mr. Mills returned with her son to spend the summer in Walnut Cove.

Mr. M. Oliver Marshall, R. F. D. No. 2, died at his home last Thursday morning, and was buried Saturday at Stokesdale. Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Lessie Pegram Marshall; two daughters, Doris and Mary; and three sons, Percival, Martin Oliver, Jr., and Garland; his father, W. D. Marshall, Petersburg, Va.; two sisters, Mrs. W. P. Gerrey and Mrs. O. L. Gerrey of Walnut Cove; two brothers, W. M. Marshall, Suffolk, Va., and N. J. Marshall, Detroit, Mich.

Last Tuesday evening after dark, Dr. C. J. Helsabeck had an accident of serious appearance when his Buick automobile crashed into a ten foot embankment at the intersection on Main and Sixth Streets. Other than having his fenders slightly damaged, there was no other damage to his person or property. "Doctors" says it was caused by the drizzling rain and a car light reflecting through his windshield, making for obscure vision; but who knows that was the actual cause?

CORRECT DATE IS THIRD SUNDAY MAY

HOME COMING DAY AT BETHEL IS FINALLY DEFINITELY ARRANGED, AND YOU ARE INVITED TO BE THERE—SPECIAL MUSIC, DINNER IN PICNIC FASHION, ETC.

Meadows, May 8.

We wish to correct the statement which appeared in the article in last week's Reporter regarding the changing of the date of the Home Coming Day at Bethel Baptist church from the third to the second Sunday in May.

The idea of making the change was brought about after learning of the Annual Primitive Baptist Association in Walnut Cove on the third Sunday. However, since learning that there is an all day service at Palmyra M. E. Church on the second Sunday and also that this is the regular church day at Clear Springs, our nearest neighbor church, we deemed it advisable to have our Home Coming Day on the third Sunday as was the original plan.

We hope everyone will try to find it convenient to come out and worship with us on this day. There will be special music all day with the entire afternoon service being devoted to a community singing. Dinner will be served picnic style, and everyone is invited to attend.

OTIS CAMPBELL SHOOTS SAM CORN

THE AFFAIR OCCURRED AT THE HOME OF HUGHES STOVALL, IN PETER'S CREEK TOWNSHIP—CORN IN RATHER SERIOUS CONDITION—CAMPBELL IS AN ESCAPED CONVICT FROM STATE PENITENTIARY.

Sam Corn was seriously shot by Otis Campbell Saturday night at the home of Hughes Stovall, in Peter's Creek township.

Immediately after the shooting, Campbell fled over the State line into Virginia, near by.

Campbell is an escaped convict from the State prison, and has been at large for more than a year. He was sent up from Stokes for 20 years for murder several years ago. The Stokes authorities have been on the lookout for him for months.

The particulars of the affair at Stovall's as told to the Reporter are that a fight was in progress between a brother of Corn and a brother of Campbell, in the yard near the house. Corn was trying to separate the combatants, when he was shot by Campbell from a window in the house.

Hughes Stovall was shot several years ago by Zack Campbell, a brother of Otis.

Prosperity.

Jim Finchum has got him a new car that runs rings around all the rigs on the road. It is one of those shiny V-8 things, a streamline baby that sails like a swallow on the wind, and makes the pedestrian—when Jim whizzes by—feel like a maltreated hound at a dog frolic.

CH'CH RAPS BEER AT WALNUT COVE

THE REVEREND FITZGERALD INVITES METHODISTS WHO DEAL IN THE FOAMING FLUID, TO GET OUT THE BACK DOOR—SCATHING DENUNCIATION FROM THE STOKESBURG PULPIT CREATES SENSATION, AND BRINGS REPLY FROM CORRESPONDENT, WHO QUOTES SAINT MATTHEW BACK AT THE PREACHER.

Walnut Cove, May 8.

The Reverend J. B. Fitzgerald last Sunday morning laid aside his Bible, unheathed his two-edged sword, and brought down upon the heads of his erring church members the righteous indignation of Deity. He read from the Church Discipline for a text: "Let all our preachers and members abstain from the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors to be used as a beverage.... under the laws of any state. If any member shall violate any of the provisions of this paragraph, he shall be deemed guilty of immorality;" (Secs. 513-515); and be subject to indictment by the church and expulsion."

In fact, it was only the repetition of the same sermon on the entire category of sins with the subject of "BEER" thrown in for good measure.

Never has any minister stood in the Stokesburg pulpit and directed such scathing denunciations at one or two particular inhabitants of the "doomed" city of Walnut Cove for dispensing beer, inviting those of the sinful nature to walk out the "Church's back door."

While this scribe is in no position to judge, we are reminded of what St. Matthew relates: "And he said unto them: an enemy hath done this. The servant said unto him, Wilt thou, then, that we go and gather them up? But he said, Nay, lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them."

And in this same connection, we are wondering if this good man of Faith would accept a donation on the pastor's salary from these people who dispense beer; who drink beer; who play croquet, or cards; who would swim in public; waltz; who talk with bad language? We are also wondering if this Holy man of God has been to see these erring members; or if he has prayed with them, and pleaded with them to stop their erring ways before inviting them out the back door??
