

THE DANBURY REPORTER

The State Library

Volume 61.

Established 1872.

Danbury, N. C., Wednesday August 2 1933

Number 3787

CHILD SWALLOWS LAMP OIL AT KING

INFANT WILL PROBABLY RECOVER — BEES STING CALF NEARLY TO DEATH — NEWS AND PERSONALS OF KING.

King, Aug. 2 — The three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Long, who reside near Tobaccoville got to the kerosene oil can and drank a quantity of the fluid. The child was soon unconscious, she was rushed here where Doctors Stone and Helsabeck treated her. It is thought the child will recover.

S. W. Pulliam, who has been on the sick list for several days, is able to be out on the street again his friends will be glad to learn.

The King Christian Sunday school went on a picnic trip to James Park Wednesday. All of the 108 making the trip report an enjoyable occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Shore and son, Fred Jr., have returned from a vacation trip. While on the trip they visited Roanoke, Elkton and Endless Tavern, Va., and Washington, D. C.

A very large crowd was here Saturday night to see the boxing contest which was put on by James Overly of Winston-Salem.

Dr. Ernest M. Griffin made a professional trip to Winston-Salem Friday.

A calf belonging to Spencer Tuttle, planter residing one mile south of town, was tied near some stands of bees Friday morning. The animal turned over one of the hives and was almost stung to death by the insects before it could be rescued by Mr. Tuttle.

Miss Clara Pulliam, of Greensboro, spent the week end here the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. S. D. Pulliam.

John McGee, of the Civilian Conservation Camp, at Walnut Cove, spent Sunday with his family on Pulliam street.

The recent refreshing rains have made a wonderful improvement in crops in this section.

Homer and Spencer Slate, of Winston-Salem, spent the week end here the guest of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Slate in Pilot View.

Thomas G. New is right sick at his home here at this writing.

The following births were registered here last week: To Mr. and Mrs. Lin Southern, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Snider, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. Omie Boyles, a daughter and to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Phillips, twins, both boys.

Riley G. Fulk, who has been seriously sick at his home near here for several days, is slightly improved.

Mrs. D. A. Walker and daughter Mrs. Harris of Winston-Salem, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Grady Fulk.

Paul Owen, of Burlington, formerly of King, was among the visitors here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Newsom spent Sunday with relatives near Donaha.

Gilbert Alley, of Hartman, was in town Saturday.

TUTTLE EMPLOYS FRANK P. STONE

FORMER AUDITOR TAKES JOB IN OFFICE OF CLERK SUPERIOR COURT — A. J. FAGG, ASSISTANT TO CLERK FOR MORE THAN TWO YEARS, SEVERES CONNECTION WITH DUTIES AT THE COURT HOUSE.

A. J. Fagg, who was Clerk of Superior Court of Stokes County for twelve years, and who though a Republican, has acted as assistant clerk to J. Watt Tuttle, Democratic incumbent, for more than two years, this week severed his connection with his duties at the clerk's office. His place will be filled by Frank P. Stone, former auditor, who has been engaged by Clerk Tuttle as assistant.

Mr. Fagg was recently painfully hurt in an automobile accident, and has not yet entirely recovered from his injuries, though he has been on duty for a week or more. It is not known what Mr. Fagg's plans are for the future. He has long been in official duty in Stokes, and is a very capable official. He has a large circle of friends here who hope that he may find it convenient to remain at Danbury.

Mr. Stone is a son of County Commissioner F. P. Stone, Sr. He has had considerable experience as tax supervisor and accountant and is considered very efficient and is withal a young man of highest character and qualifications.

The change in the Clerk's office came as quite a surprise here as Mr. Fagg had held his position as assistant to Clerk Tuttle for about two-thirds of the present incumbent's term, and it was generally supposed that he would remain until December, 1934, which would mark the end of Tuttle's first term.

Address By Dr. Hege.

Dr. J. Roy Hege, of Winston-Salem, head of the Forsyth-Stokes-Surry County Health Department spoke to the Meadows, Danbury Homemaking class July 24 on the subjects of Goitre, Pellagra and Prenatal care. He stressed the fact that goitre was less frequent in sections where iodine was prevalent in the drinking water and he also stressed the care of the teeth and tonsils in connection with prevention of goitre.

In connection with pellagra, he said that it was a rare occurrence in a case where plenty of milk was used. He said the motto of the county should be a "Cow On Every Hill." Dr. Hege also encouraged the women to use plenty of eggs and vegetables in connection with pellagra prevention. He discussed the symptoms of the disease in detail.

Dr. Hege spoke briefly on Prenatal care. He told the group about Dr. Dodge, a famous woman physician who is planning to hold prenatal clinics in the three counties in the near future. Dr. Hege stressed the fact that Dr. Dodge, being a woman among women could do more in this type of work than a man physician. There were twenty-five members of the class present and the entire group felt very much benefited by this splendid talk by Dr. Hege.

MANY WOMEN TO ARRIVE AT CAMP

VADE MECUM NOW HAS SIXTY-NINE GIRLS IN CAMP — WOMAN'S AUXILIARY OF EPISCOPAL DIOCESE COMING — BEGINNING AUGUST 15 BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN INVITED.

Vade Mecum has at this time 69 girls in camp, these being the junior girls. Following this encampment the Women's auxiliary of the Episcopal diocese will have a 2-weeks' conference under the leadership of Mrs. John Gilmer of Winston-Salem.

Rev. Roderick Jackson, of Sumter, S. C., will act as chaplain. Rev. Theo Partrick, rector of Good Shepherd church, Raleigh, and Mrs. Partrick; Rev. J. A. Vache, rector of St. Andrew's church, Greensboro, and Mrs. William Gordon, of Spray, will make up the conference faculty. Women from all over the diocese are expected to be in attendance.

Beginning August 15, the diocesan center will welcome business and professional women desiring a place to rest that can boast of mountain climate and scenery.

Vade Mecum, it is pointed out, is 1,500 feet above sea level and Moore's wall towers some 2,500 feet near by. The mountain affords splendid hiking facilities. An outdoor swimming pool 40x100 feet, filled by a mountain stream, is one of the attractions, and tennis is another.

Miss Edna Henly, of Durham and Raleigh, will direct athletics during the period, which will run two weeks, and Miss Jessie Thowbridge of Greensboro, will have charge of swimming. Mr. Vache will direct the camp.

Walter Francis In Marine Corps

Walter G. Francis, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. L. Francis of Francisco, has been accepted for enlistment in the United States Marine Corps at the Marine Corps Recruiting Station, Post Office Building, Savannah, Ga., and transferred to the Marine Barracks, Parris Island, S. C., for training according to an announcement received from Lieutenant Colonel A. B. Drum, Officer in Charge. Francis is a graduate of the Westfield high school.

Colonel Drum has also announced that a limited number of high school graduates will be accepted during the month of August. Applications will be mailed upon request.

Rev. C. W. Ervin

Rev. C. W. Ervin and his good wife of Glade Valley visited friends in Danbury last week. Mr. Ervin is pleasantly remembered here where for several years he was pastor of Danbury and other Presbyterian churches in the county.

New Mr. Ervin is principal of Glade Valley High School, Alleghany county, an institution of great influence and usefulness in northwestern North Carolina, and which under Mr. Ervin's management is steadily growing.

ELDER FAGG ON PREDESTINATION

SAYS HE AND ELDERS TUTTLE, BROWN, AND PRIDDY ARE PREACHING THE MAYO DOCTRINE.

Elder J. A. Fagg, prominent minister of the Primitive Baptist church, advises the Reporter that the recent article published by us touching certain changes alleged to have occurred in the preaching of himself, Elders Tuttle, Brown and Priddy, is incorrect, and that the Reporter was misinformed. Elder Fagg says that Elders Tuttle, Brown, Priddy and himself are preaching the same doctrine that the Mayo Association has always contended for, and that Mayo is one among the oldest associations in the United States. Elder Fagg adds that "we believe in predestination as taught in the Bible, and we do not feel that it needs any proscription."

Elder Fagg was on his way with his family to his home in Winston-Salem, having been visiting his mother near Danbury.

Campbell's Court

Joe Edm. Holston and Wiley Mann, both colored, were tried Friday by Justice of the Peace P. C. Campbell. These negroes were caught in Dicktown Thursday by Deputies Bert Smith, Mack Wall and Carl Ray, charged with larceny manufacturing. They were bound over to court each under $300 bond, which they failed to arrange, and are held in jail for next term of court.

Roy Young, charged with assault on his wife, was held for court under a $200 bond, which he gave.

Monday, B. J. Robertson, Floyd Campbell, Roseberry Gatewood and Woodrow Allen, who had been arrested for beating transportation on N. & W. Railway, each was fined $5 and cost, and failing to provide the fine, all were given 20 days on roads.

Bonnie Holloway and Thelma Lowalloy, two young women, tried for the same offense, were taxed with $5 and cost each, which they were unable to pay and were sentenced to work in jail at scouring, etc., for 30 days.

Hawkins Reunion.

The fourth annual reunion of the Hawkins family will be held at Oak Ridge Baptist church near Sandy Ridge Sunday, August 6th. All relatives and friends are requested to attend and help make this a big reunion. Carry along a well-filled basket of good eats to help make the day more enjoyable.

Back From Chicago.

Sheriff J. John Taylor and family returned Saturday after several days spent at the Century of Progress Exhibition, World's Fair, Chicago.

45 acre hilly farm for rent on halves. Good house 5 rooms, Spring, good church, fine people. Fair treatment. Bells Farm, Danville Road, Reidsville, N. C.

HANGING ROCK WORK STARTS OVER

R. F. C. FORCES, SUPPLEMENTED BY STATE CONVICT SQUADS, RESUME CONSTRUCTION OF HIGHWAY TO MOUNTAIN TOP — CONCENTRATION OF LABOR ON PROJECT TO BE ADOPTED BY STATE.

Prof. J. C. Carson, who is head of the federal relief work in the county, advises the Reporter that work will be resumed August 2 on the construction of a road to Hanging Rock.

Prof. Carson says the crew of R. F. C. workers who have recently been grading the Seven Island road, as well as the squad of federal laborers on Walnut Cove projects, will be put on the Hanging Rock project.

Recently a crew of State highway convicts from the camp near Meadows, under the supervision of E. O. Creakman, have been at work on the Hanging Rock road. It is learned that the services of this force will probably be continued, as the State is expected to adopt the Hanging Rock highway as a public proposition.

The grading of the Hanging Rock highway has progressed well on toward Chestnut Cove, which is beyond the first mountain peak from Danbury. Chestnut Cove is probably considerably more than half way to the destination of this road which is the summit known as Hanging Rock.

Lawsonville News.

This community was visited by good rains all last week, which was a big help to the crops.

The citizens are taking the typhoid-diphtheria vaccine this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Robertson visited their parent, Mrs. R. A. Oakley, of Walnut Cove, Route 2, Sunday.

Squire Tilley's court had a busy week last week, disposing of several cases.

Miss Declorice Robertson has as her guests this week: Miss Bessie Oakley, of Walnut Cove, Little Miss Ruth Alice Priddy of Danbury R. 1.

The baseball team of Lawsonville, under the management of Cleve Lawson, has been playing several games each week this summer, playing Buffalo last Wednesday at Buffalo, Smithtown Saturday at Lawsonville.

Miss Hallie Spencer, of Boone Teacher's College, spent the week end with her parents at Lawsonville.

Misses Georgie and Bernice Lawson of Leaksville spent the week end with their parents Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lawson.

Returned From Beach.

Frances and Estelle Humphreys, Nell Buckley and Mrs. W. E. Joyce have returned from a delightful outing at Carolina Beach.

Ralph Clippard of Caldwell County has dug a trench silo with a capacity of 60 tons. He says it will furnish silage for 30 cows during 132 days.

FINE TOBACCO CROP AHEAD

RECENT RAINS BRING WONDERFUL IMPROVEMENT — SANDY RIDGE CLAIMS BEST CROP IN YEARS — MANY FARMERS NOW CURING WITH SATISFACTORY RESULTS.

News begins to come in now of an excellent crop of tobacco in all sections of the county.

Dixie Wood, of the North View section, here Monday told the Reporter the crop in his section had wonderfully improved since the late rains, and that throughout Snow Creek townships, especially in the Sandy Ridge zone, farmers report the best crop of tobacco for years. Priming is in order, and excellent cures are being made.

The early corn crop was seriously damaged in many sections by the dry weather of June and July.

James S. Knight

James S. Knight, son of John and Jane Knight was born April 26th 1863 near Stokesdale, N. C., and died at his home near Pine Hall N. C., July 30th 1933, being at that time 70 years, 3 months and 4 days old. For more than 50 years he has lived in this community. In 1899 he was married to Glennie Lee Creakman and from this union was born two children, Talmadge and Emory; wife and both children survive him. In 1924 he publicly confessed his faith in God and joined the Congregation at Pine Hall Presbyterian church living a life ever after consistent with the rules of that congregation.

Nine weeks before his passing he had a heart attack which with complications caused his death.

He patiently bore his sufferings and told several of his closest friends that the end was near and that he had no fear of death—that he was only waiting the Master's summons. He has left us an example of straight and simple faith, not only in God but his fellow man, believing that such was the only way to spend a life here and eternity hereafter.

J. H. Tilley Sustains Stroke

J. H. Tilley, a farmer who lives on the Davis place a mile south-east of Danbury, sustained a stroke of paralysis Monday, and is in a serious condition. Mr. Tilley had gone down to the field to work when he felt a numbness and tingling which caused him to realize something was the matter, and he returned to the house where he sat down. On attempting to rise he fell and broke his collar bone. It was then found that he was paralyzed in his entire left side.

Noted Artist's "Hole-in-the-Wall" Model. As fast as He Marries His Models, Their Faces and Figures Go Out of Fashion. Read This Amusing Story in The American Weekly, the Magazine Distributed With Next Sunday's Baltimore American. Buy your copy from your favorite newsboy or newsdealer.