EVERYBODY WINS IS SLOGAN IN THE REPORTER'S BIG CIRCULATION DRIVE

Guarantee of 20 Per Cent. Commission Even Though Entries do Not Win One of Four Cash Prizes Makes it Worth Anyone's Time to Enter. Spare Time Only Can Net Workers From $10 to $160 or More in Clear Profit, Besides Having a Chance to Win First Prize of $500.

Fulfilling the most optimistic anticipation of the Reporter, Danbury and its surrounding territory is all agog over the announcement of this newspaper's Free Gift Distribution of cash. The liberality of the offer and the fact that everybody wins something, and the ease with which even the biggest of the awards may be won, has already fostered interest among readers of The Reporter.

That it provides an unprecedented opportunity for people to share in a distribution of gifts through an old established business, as The Reporter is freely admitted to be, in every one of the many inquiries coming into our office.

With the announcement that there will be given away within the next few weeks four cash prizes, busy business men, energetic housewives and ambitious boys and girls all gave pause and considered such possibilities as applied to themselves.

Particularly notable is the feature that everybody wins something in this campaign. There will be no losers. There is no subterfuge in this campaign. The only thing required of anyone to become a participant in this gift distribution is for him or her to be ambitious and willing to grab the golden opportunities of life when they are presented upon such a scale as is now offered under our profit-sharing plan.

COSTS NOTHING TO ENTER

Nor does it cost anyone a single cent, now or any time during the campaign to enter and win. It is for honest efforts well expended that the cash prize list is being offered to the people of Danbury and surrounding territory. Anyone will be proud to claim success for each and every one of the gifts listed are well worth the time and work it takes to acquire them. To become a candidate for the gift distribution is an easy matter. To win the biggest of the prizes is just as easy, if you apply yourself during spare moments.

Elsewhere in this issue there appears an entry or "nomination" blank which properly filled out and mailed, or brought to the campaign department of The Reporter, will start you in the campaign with 5,000 votes. Additional votes are obtained in two ways: by securing new and renewal subscriptions and selling advertising cards.

It makes no difference where a candidate resides, so far as his or her chances of winning the biggest gifts are concerned. The distribution of prizes have been so arranged that each candidate will have an equal opportunity.

The campaign is a very short one and under no circumstances will it be extended beyond the date advertised. If you have been considering entering, by all means — do it today. At the end a committee of judges of high standing will count and tabulate the vote totals, and those who poll the greatest number of votes will win the cash prizes. Others will receive 20 per cent of their sales.

The Reporter is the home paper of this entire section and it already enjoys a large circulation all over this territory — but it is expected to continue to build and add to its great family of readers until there is a Reporter in every home in Stokes County and adjacent territory. There are two ways of building circulation. One is by the positive method of sending out solicitors and the other is by a big, liberal prize campaign. The Reporter is choosing the latter because it enables us to get a large circulation more quickly (even though the cost is greater) and also to share with those who are willing to assist in the growth of this paper.

The Reporter is an established newspaper in this territory. This feature alone will make it a "ready seller" in every home and candidate in the Reporter gift distribution will find it easy to secure new subscriptions and renewals.

VOTES PILE UP QUICKLY

People who have never taken part in a voting campaign of this magnitude are unable to realize how rapidly their vote totals accumulate. Once the start is made they pile up like magic. Subscriptions will secure thousands of votes in the Reporter campaign. And it is not expected that the candidates will depend wholly upon their own efforts — friends will help them to gather subscriptions — and what a merry past time it will be — with cash rewards at the end.

There are plenty of prizes to go around among the hustlers — indeed there is a prize for every active participant. The plan is a competitive one, and will be conducted on a business basis. The bigger your effort, the bigger your prize.

GET AN EARLY START

Get an early start for one of the cash prizes by sending in your nomination blank or that of a friend today. The Reporter is placing a golden opportunity before you.

R. L. Blaylock Dies At Greensboro

R. L. Blaylock, who was Clerk of the Federal court at Greensboro for 16 years, died at his home in Greensboro Sunday, with a heart attack.

GERMANTON-TO-MEADOWS ROAD

SURVEY UNDER R. R. KING TO BEGIN WEDNESDAY—CURVES TO BE STRAIGHTENED, AND GRADE REDUCED TO SIX PER CENT. — PROBABLY TO BE SURFACED.

District highway officials Stewart and Ray were here Monday instructing R. R. King of Danbury to start a survey Wednesday on the Meadows to Germanton highway, which will doubtless be surfaced by the State at once.

Mr. King was ordered to straighten out the curves, and to reduce the sharp grades to six per cent.

The news of the early improvement of the Germanton-Meadows highway will be learned with pleasure and interest by everybody, this being one of the most important thoroughfares in the county.

King Woman's Club Meets

King, Nov. 29 — The Woman's Club held its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening at the high school building. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. G. E. Stone, roll call and reports read by secretary, Miss Agnes Pulliam. Quite a number of the members were present at the meeting. The club was delighted to have some visitors from the Pineapple club.

During the business session, a number of reports were presented by different committees. Mrs. T. G. New, chairman of the literature department, was in charge of the program for the evening. Readings on Thanksgiving were given by Miss Thelma Newsom and Mesdames C. O. Boyles, Jr., and C. D. Slate, Sr.

An interesting contest was entered in, in which Mrs. C. O. Boyles, Jr., and Miss Sue May Slate were winners. A delicious salad course with pickles and coffee was served by the hostesses, Miss Leona Graham and Mesdames G. E. Stone and Eugene Spears.

A production credit association with a capital stock of $20,000 has been organized by Carteret County farmers.

The Pitt County Mutual Exchange sold $100 worth of products at the curb market last Saturday and helped to organize a production credit association for the county.

FRANCISCO TEAM NEEDS EXERCISE

BALL BUNCH UNDER CLYDE FORREST COACH, LANGUISHES FOR VICTIMS — CAN'T GET GAMES IT WANTS—REYNOLDS SCHOOL NOTED FOR ITS SMOKE SCREENS — WHERE IS WALNUT COVE? — THE FRANCISCO LINE-UP.

Reports have reached the Reporter office that the Francisco baseball team is languishing for victims.

This team, which is said to be the kernel out of which the champions of the county may be carved, last week defeated the Germanton team twice, both home and away games. Many other contenders have crumpled up in defeat before the Francisco onslaught.

The Reynolds team has been over to try the mettle of the Francisco bunch, and being unable to win, threw out smoke screens in the way of disputes or disturbances. This is the statement of the Reporter's informant — that we know anything about it.

The Reporter man interviewed Clyde Forrest, coach of the Francisco bunch, who was not disposed to talk, yet he allowed that his nine found it hard to get games, Walnut Cove being especially difficult to negotiate with for a contest.

There is no question about the outstanding superiority of this Quaker Gap bunch, composed of the following lusty youths:

A. Collins.
H. Collins.
H. Cook.
L. Sheppard.
W. Lawrence.
R. George.
B. Shelton.
H. Simmons.

Hog-Killing Times At Danbury

The holiday seasons are now rapidly approaching, and hog-killing times in many households are all the go.

Quite a number of Danbury people are slaughtering porkers this week, as follows:

Hence Finchum, A. J. Fagg, Berkley Smith, J. R. Leake, Bill Mounce and A. G. Sisk.

The friends of all the above are requested to be patient just for a day or two till the meat can cool out before calling.

Call For Andy Fagg at Winston

Andrew J. Fagg, who was Clerk of the Superior Court of Stokes county for about sixteen years, and is known and respected by all the people of Stokes, has accepted a position with Manufacturers Outlet Store at Winston-Salem.

When you are in the Town City, remember to call at this place and ask for Andy Fagg. He will wait on you with pleasure, and you will feel assured that you will get fair and square treatment from Andy Fagg. See big ad in this issue of the Reporter, and don't forget to call to see your friend A. J. Fagg.

TWO-THIRDS TOBACCO SOLD

PRICES REMAIN GOOD AND FARMERS ARE FEELING MUCH BETTER — SIGNED FOR 1931 WILL DOUBTLESS GO OVER WITH A BANG.

It is conservatively estimated that at least two-thirds of the 1930 tobacco crop is sold.

Prices on all markets remain firm, with attractive averages for specially good grades. Farmers are feeling the best for years. Business over one hundred years old. This men generally report the effect on trade and traffic as greatly beneficial. Most all farmers are paying their debts and purchasing needed supplies.

This week will mark heavy breaks on the markets, as the idea prevails that prices usually weaken after Thanksgiving.

It is thought that the campaign for the permanent stand-up for the 1931 crop will go over with a bang, as farmers appreciate the steady rise in prices due to their co-operation with the government.

Sandy Ridge School Has Entertainment

Slightly over $61 has been turned over to the Sandy Ridge high school as a result of the addlers' convention held there Friday night, Nov. 24. V. R. White, principal of the school, stated Sunday.

Mr. White said this money plus $38.94 made at the school's Halloween program, will buy library books, maps and science equipment for the school, which, with 611 students and 17 teachers, has the largest enrollment in its history.

Margaret Reid, a student at the school, won a $30 prize for a special dance. Other cash prizes were awarded as follows, first named receiving first prize.

Violin, Harvey Creasy and Edgar Rodgers; guitar, George Ashley and Hasel Campbell; banjo, Douglas Richardson and Peter Stone; band, W. A. McGee band and Jubilee Band; dancing, Marton Beasley and Lester Sands. Leonard Smith, a very old man, was given a third prize by the audience. Sheppard Moore and Edgar Balljack won first and second harmonic prizes, respectively.

Baptizing Sunday.

The ordinance of baptism was administered by Elder Via of Patrick county, Va., Sunday to two candidates at Back Island ford, as follows:

Mrs. Ham Stephens of Lawsonville.

Mrs. Zeb Rhodes of High Point. A large crowd was in attendance at the immersion.

T. W. Tilley of Lawsonville was in town Friday.

Farm girls by thousands lured to industrial slavery in our big cities. Story about new traffic appears in the BALTIMORE SUNDAY AMERICAN, issue of December 3. Buy your copy from your favorite newsboy or newsdealer.

MUCH BUILDING IN KING SECTION

CARY CARROLL COMES TO TOWN AND CONVULSES FOLKS WITH HIS JOKES — OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST

King, Nov. 29 — Miss Susan Gayner, who resides one mile east of town, visited the high school Friday. She brought along her old time spinning wheel and did some spinning for the students. She was wearing a cotton homespun dress over one hundred years old. This was quite interesting for the students, many of whom had never seen a spinning wheel.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baker, of Trinity, spent Sunday here the guests of relatives. James Wasson, of Winston-Salem, has opened up a safe stable here. He has a fine lot of mules. A force of brick masons are at work on the foundation of a new work on the foundation of a new school street. The new building will be constructed of brick veneer and will be modern in every particular.

A force of men will be put to work on the Bethania road from here to the Forsyth county line and the connecting link of road between King and Timmons Cross Roads.

Preparing for a coat of oil and stone, which will be put down just as soon as the road bed is ready. The King High lost to Pilot Mountain in a game of basketball played at Pilot Friday evening. Score 32 and 28.

Our old friend, Cary Carroll of Mizpah, was here Saturday with a new supply of good jokes. We always get a good laugh when Cary comes to town.

Norman White, of King, and Miss Mildred Samuels of Tobaccoville and Thurman Calloway, of Tobaccoville, R. F. D. 2, and Miss Gracie White of King motored to Hillsville, Va., Saturday where both couples were united in marriage.

Anthony Gordy, who has been quite sick at his home on Pulliam Street for several days, is able to be out on the street again.

Grady Holland, planter of the Flat Shoal section, was a business visitor here Saturday.

The following births were registered here last week: To Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Covington, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. James Hill, a son, and to Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Campbell, a daughter.

Banner Shelton is preparing to open up a new barber shop on Main street.

Repeal puts "public enemies" on the run. Story of how new law will affect welfare of country. Read it in the BALTIMORE SUNDAY AMERICAN on December 3. On sale by your favorite newsdealer or newsboy.

Taxes.

Recalcitrant humanity is said sometimes to be able to get by with everything except death and taxes.

John Taylor, sheriff, says he is not so certain about death, but he will have to have the taxes.

See his list of appointments elsewhere in this paper, and get ready to unbutton your pocket.

The State, the county, must go on in their functions, and every good citizen will arrange to pay his taxes. Save extra cost and penalty by paying in time.
