SIGNING UP THE 1934 CROP

Campaign in County Under Supervision of Kirby, Moving At High Gear — List of Township Appointments.

The campaign in Stokes county for signatures to the tobacco growers contract is moving at full speed in all sections of the county this week. Early reports show much interest and a hearty spirit of cooperation on the part of tobacco growers throughout the county. Educational meetings held in a majority of the townships have been well attended. The committees from which reports have been secured claim to have been kept busy since they started writing contracts. Quite a large number of people owning farms in this county and residing in other counties or states have come home to sign their contracts.

The local committee has the work in charge in each township. Only a partial list of the places at which they will meet growers to fill out contracts is available, but in so far as these have been reported for the different townships the schedules are listed below:

BIG CREEK

Union Mill, Friday and Saturday, 15th and 16th. Dick Smith's filling station, Monday and Tuesday, 18 and 19.

YADKIN

Polk county farmers who grew lespedeza this past summer are so pleased with results that a shortage of seed is expected in the county this winter.

CARSON RESIGNS CWA DUTIES

Federal Relief Activities In Stokes Loom Larger As Mrs. Minnie Doyle Establishes Headquarters At Danbury—Personnel of Office and Field Forces.

Mrs. Minnie Doyle, of Reidsville, Rockingham county, has been appointed Acting Director of Federal Relief in Stokes and has established headquarters in the N. A. Martin building east of the court house square.

Prof. J. C. Carson, superintendent of schools, who has heretofore held this position, including the responsibilities of the Red Cross, has been relieved of this duty by the State authorities whose policy of imposing the relief work upon the shoulders of county superintendents of schools has been discontinued. It is pointed out that relief activities have now reached such a scale that the superintendents cannot give to them the required attention while doing justice to their educational work.

Walnut Cove Beats Lawsonville

At Walnut Cove last night (Friday) the Walnut basketball team played Lawsonville with results as follows:

BOYS

Walnut Cove 21
Lawsonville 4

GIRLS

Walnut Cove 31
Lawsonville 21

Westfield Beats Francisco At Ball

Clyde Forrest here today reports his crack team Francisco beaten by the cracker team of Westfield.

Forrest says he still holds the Stokes championship, however, while bowing to the Surry kids who play like devils. Mr. Forrest though is a good sport, and speaks very complimentarily of the Westfield team.

Eleventh Grade — Francis Ross Mullican.

The standards upheld in the Germantown school for honor roll are very high.

Early Irish potatoes growers of eastern Carolina plan to reduce their acreage and to stop the practice of growing the potatoes under contract.

DEATH OF MRS. ELLEN PELL

WAS WIFE OF J. W. PELL OF AT DOBSON BURGALARIZED — WESTFIELD — COURT HOUSE SANITARY PROGRAM FOR SURRY.

The Mount Airy News reports as follows:

Mrs. Ellen Pell died at her home at Westfield Route 1 Sunday of pneumonia aged 63 years. She was the wife of J. W. Pell and is survived by her husband, six children, two sisters and one brother. The funeral was conducted Sunday afternoon from the Westfield Friends Church with Dr. Tom Smith, of Westfield and Rev. Thomas A. Drew, of Staley, officiating.

Sometimes during Saturday night the court house at Dobson was broken into and the offices of the register of deeds and clerk of court ransacked. Several drawers with books on them were broken open in the search for money and the thieves finally located the small change carried in the two offices. They got about $10 from the clerk's office and $8 from the register of deeds office. Only the day before Clerk F. T. Lewellyn had deposited in the bank $300 cash he had on hand and this would have been lost along with the other money if it had been left in the office.

Among those from Mount Airy attending Mrs. S. P. Jones' funeral at Pinnacle Sunday afternoon were Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barker, Mrs. W. R. Kiser, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Loffen and daughter Bettie Ray, Mrs. C. R. Stevens, Mrs. T. A. Moody, Mrs. Cora Moore, Miss Mae Moser, Mr. and Mrs. Houston Starling, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Shockley, Archie Barker and Stentz Badgett.

Elbert Partridge, who teaches in Stokes County, spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Partridge in this city.

As a part of the program to give employment to the people the privies in the counties Surry being allotted 2000 to be built within the next ten weeks.

As supervisor of the work to be done in Surry County the department has sent Mr. E. Clyde Banner here and he is now getting everything in shape to begin work on December 15th. He is connected with the state board and comes to Surry County as Supervisor of Rural Sanitation.

These structures will be built wherever found needed at no cost to the property owner. The CWA is providing the labor and the material will be furnished by the county. It is said to require 18 hours on each privy with a material cost of about $10. The force will be divided into nine gangs with a foreman for each gang, to be located in different parts of the county. A standard set of plans to go by has been established to facilitate the work of the men. Most of the labor will be carpenters and the total force will be 125 men, getting from 45 to 60 cents an hour and working 30 hours a week.

Tobacco Campaign Gets Under Way

Farm agents in North Carolina's 57 fine cured tobacco growing counties were busy last week pushing the campaign for reduction of tobacco production during the next two years.

Approximately 55,000 growers representing 95 per cent of the State's tobacco land signed reduction agreements last fall, and they are now placing their names on the permanent contracts.

The county agents have been supplied with all the material necessary for carrying on the work, and seven men from the auditing bureau of the U. S. Department of Agriculture are also in the field assisting in certain counties in which they were first sent are: C. A. Rainey, Robeson; Whit Terrell, Lee; Moore; D. F. Molete, Wake; O. F. Wasmandorff, Pitt; J. E. Wason, Johnston; E. H. Trotter, Jr., Rockingham; and R. H. Tucker, Person.

In addition, the agents have numerous committeemen helping them take the contracts around to the farmers for signing. The number of committeemen vary from three to more than 50 per county according to the number of growers.

For the signers to obtain equalization payments, they should secure data from warehouses showing how much tobacco they sold before the holiday and afterward. Those who furnish the necessary proof will be compensated 20 per cent of the value of the weed sold before the holiday and 10 per cent of the value of that sold afterward up to October 7 in the new belt and up to October 28 in the border belt.

Dean I. O. Schaub, extension service director at N. C. State College, pointed out, however, that these compensations will go only to those farmers who sign reduction contracts.

Hitler Gives the Cue.

Everybody at the present time is singing about the big bad wolf. We'll give a year's subscription to any person who can think up a line to rhyme with this one:

"I never saw the big bad wolf."

This is absolutely a bona fide offer. One year's subscription to THE STATE to anyone who can write a line, the last word of which must rhyme with "wolf." — Carl Georch in The State, magazine.

Then, how is this: "Until I'd seen crazy Adolf?" Ask us a hard one.

Contest Called Off

The subscription campaign which Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Harvey have been installing for the Reporter was last week temporarily called off, and postponed indefinitely.

On account of the inability of Mrs. Harvey to be present, Mr. Harvey thought it best to postpone until he secured additional help.

In addition to the work to be done by Mr. Banner he will also have the cooperation and aid of the county sanitary officer, Edwin P. Hale, and work will be pushed to completion by these men.

GRIND OF THE LOCAL COURTS

Justices of the Peace Dispose of a Number of Minor Actions—Others Referred to Superior Court.

Walter Foley and Kyle Foley, Virginia parties, were bound over to court by Justice P. C. Campbell Tuesday in bonds of $125.00 each, which they arranged.

These men had been arrested on Monday by Deputy Sheriff Ewell Hutcherson of Sandy Ridge. Walter Foley was charged with transporting whiskey and carrying concealed weapons.

Kyle Foley, who is Walter's son was indicted for transporting booze and operating a car under the influence.

Kinley Hall, also arrested by Deputy Hutcherson, was arraigned for drunkenness and fined $5 and cost by Magistrate Campbell. He settled the charges.

Ed Smith and Bernie Ward were arrested by Deputies Carl Ray and Berk Smith, charged with drunkenness at a school house. Justice N. E. Wall fined them $1.00 and cost each, which they paid.

George Nunn and Frank Southern were also cited for same offense.

CAMP VADE MECUM TO OPEN JUNE 8

DECISION REACHED AT MEETING OF COMMITTEE AT GREENSBORO — REV. ALLEN ELECTED DIRECTOR OF THE SENIOR BOYS' CAMP.

The 1934 season at Camp Vade Mecum, Stokes county, recreational center of the North Carolina Episcopal diocese, will begin June 8 and continue until September 2, Rev. J. A. Vache, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal church and general camp director, announced last week. This decision was reached at a meeting of the diocesan camp committee held at St. Andrew's church, Greensboro, Wednesday night.

In attendance were Bishop Edwin A. Penick, of Charlotte; Rev. Theodore Partick, Jr., of Raleigh; Rev. Dan Allen, of Lexington; J. A. Mackey, Porter Steadman and Mrs. John Gilmer, of Winston-Salem, and Mr. Vache.

Rev. Dan Allen, formerly of Walnut Cove, now of Lexington, was elected director of the senior boys' camps, and Rev. Frank Dean, of Wilson, was chosen to direct the junior boys' camps. The girls' camps will be under the supervision of Mrs. Joseph Fletcher, of Raleigh, and Mrs. John Gilmer will direct the camps of the Woman's auxiliary.

Birthday Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Sisk, Sheriff and Mrs. J. J. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Petree, Mrs. Jessie P. Christian, of Danbury; and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lowman of Winston-Salem, were recent guests at dinner with Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Morefield. The occasion, which was a very pleasant one, was the birthday of Dr. Morefield.
