

THE DANBURY REPORTER.

Volume 61.

Established 1872.

Wednesday, August 15, 1934

Number 3,031

ILL WITH TYPHOID

R. BRUCE HUTCHERSON

Member of Stokes County Board of Education. Was taken to Johnson City, Tenn., hospital this week suffering from an attack of typhoid fever.

Mr. Hutcherson had just returned from a visit to the World's Fair at Chicago.

Primitive Baptist Communion Service At Rock House

Pinnacle, Aug. 15.—The Primitive Baptist church at Rock House held its annual communion service last Sunday, with a large crowd in attendance. One hundred and twenty-five members took part in communion service.

The preaching members were Elders Harris, Braswell, Mabe, Priddy, Fulk, Brown, Tuttle, Beasley, Pyrtle.

We believe that these are some of God's chosen ones He has called out of darkness into his marvelous light, and sent out into the world to preach the Gospel to the poor, to heal the sick, bind up the broken-hearted, unstop the deaf ears, bringing glad tidings of joy, of peace on earth and good will to men, rightly dividing the word of truth, preaching Jesus to be the way, the truth, the life, and without Him no other way. The same old truth, in the same old way. Among those are some whose heads are silvering with age, while some are in their young age. As the old ones are passing out and declaring this wonderful truth, the young ones are following in their footsteps. We feel to be thankful for the privilege of hearing them tell of God's goodness and power, which does away with all confusion.

READER.

More legumes are being grown this year than ever before. Extension Service leaders recommend legumes for acres retired from cotton, tobacco, wheat or corn production.

Ed Lawson, Mind Affected, Put In Jail Friday

Ed Lawson, a young man about 30 years of age of near Meadows, was placed in jail here Friday for safety, his mind being affected. He was arrested by Deputy Sheriff A. G. Sisk and Game Warden T. L. Booth.

Religious Controversy

Harry Davis and Riley Turner, two well known and popular Walnut Cove citizens one day this week engaged in a religious controversy with such intense fervor that they had to be held apart by their friends.

Hanes Linville says the argument will be resumed as soon as each of the disputants can be provided with a rattlesnake.

Moccasin Bites Mule.

One of the mules of J. Will Morefield was bitten on the nose by a moccasin in the stable at Meadows. The mule's proboscis was badly swollen, but no serious effects otherwise were noted. The snake, which had crawled in amidst the hay, was killed.

State Planters.

This bank now carries government insurance for your deposits up to $5,000.

The State Planters has won the confidence of the public, and its influence and resources are growing every day.

Patronize your home bank—it is safe.

PETITION TO RELIEF HEADS

LAWRENCE MACRAE SPONSORS PROJECT FOR COUNTY RECREATIONAL AND LAKE CENTER — MRS. O'BERRY AND MRS. DOYLE ASKED TO RENDER AID — CO-OPERATION OF BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS IS INVOKED.

Lawrence MacRae of Walnut Cove, whose public spiritedness and disinterested efforts for the material upbuilding of the county have heretofore been noticed in this paper, is sponsoring a movement for the creation of a lake center and county-wide recreational development.

Mr. MacRae has drawn petitions directed to Mrs. O'Berry, head of the FERA activities in the State, and to Mrs. Doyle, chief of federal relief agencies in this county, requesting their respective aids and co-operation in securing the adoption of this project. The influence of the Board of County Commissioners is also invoked in the petitions, a copy of which appears below:

A PETITION.

Addressed to:

Mrs. Thomas O'Berry,
N. C. FERA Administrator,
Raleigh, N. C.
Mrs. Minnie Doyle,
Stokes County FERA,
Danbury, N. C.

Honorable Public Officials:

In behalf of the welfare and best interests of the people of our county, and looking to its social and recreative stimulation and uplift, we respectfully present to you individually and jointly, the following request and petition:

Whereas, the people of Stokes county have no suitable and common meeting place for social contact and recreation and for the gathering together of political, religious, fraternal and social bodies and;

Whereas, we believe such a meeting place will promote county-wide goodwill, and the common social and material advancement of our county;

We therefore ask that you have built from such funds as may come into your official hands for outlay in Stokes county, a county lake center, equipped with a suitable assembly hall and athletic grounds and located at a convenient point near the center of the county.

We further ask that you give this undertaking preference, and commence its building at the earliest date possible.

And be it resolved that a copy of this petition be presented to the Board of County Commissioners of Stokes county, with the request that they give this county-lake-center project their official support.

Miss Alma Rumley has returned to her home at Winston-Salem after spending a week with Mrs. Lowell Poore of Sandy Ridge.

EDWIN KISER'S NARROW ESCAPE

ATTACKED BY VICIOUS BULL, HE IS RESCUED BY HIS DAUGHTER — KING TIGERS LOSE TO WALKERTOWN — ELMER HAUSER TENDERED SURPRISE BIRTHDAY DINNER — OTHER NEWS OF KING.

King, Aug. 15.—Edwin Kiser, prominent planter residing two miles east of town, narrowly escaped with his life Saturday morning when attacked by his bull. The vicious animal knocked Mr. Kiser down, goring him in the side, breaking one rib and bruising his hip very badly. Mr. Kiser owes his life to his daughter, who came to his rescue subduing the bull with a large stick. Mr. and Mrs. George Yelverton of Greensboro, spent Sunday here the guests of relatives.

The Junior class of the Moravian Church went on a picnic to the Little Yadkin river bridge near Danbury Friday. It was an enjoyable day for the little folks.

S. L. Pulliam of Asheboro, formerly of King, is spending a few days with relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Alridge of Stoneville, spent the week-end with relatives near here.

Miss Ruby Lawson has returned to her home here after spending several days with relatives at Lawsonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ham Kiger and Mr. and Mrs. Kiah Butner of Donaha, spent Sunday here the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hauser.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Tuttle of Rural Hall, visited relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Dan Stewart is seriously sick at her home three miles north of here, her many friends will regret to learn.

The King Tigers lost to Walkertown on the Walkertown diamond Saturday in one of the best games of the season. Final score 3 and 1.

The following births were registered here last week: To Mr. and Mrs. Marshall James, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. James Alderman, a daughter; and to Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Moser, a daughter.

Miss Maud Southern of Winston-Salem, was a week-end visitor to relatives here.

Relatives and friends of Elmer Hauser gave him a surprise birthday dinner Saturday. This was Mr. Hauser's 33rd milestone.

Civil Action—Priddy vs. Holland

Next Saturday here before Justice Campbell, Corbett Priddy will test out a civil action against C. S. Holland for the recovery of some $200.00, alleged due him for timber which he sold to Holland, for $300.00.

Priddy contends that Holland cut the timber and sold it, only paying him $100.00.

Holland says Priddy only paid $50 for the timber, but represented to him that he had bought it at the price of $250.00.

J. H. FOLGER INJURED IN WRECK

PROMINENT MOUNT AIRY MAN IN HOSPITAL RECOVERING FROM INJURIES RECEIVED IN ACCIDENT THAT OCCURRED LAST THURSDAY NIGHT.

Attorney John H. Folger of Mt. Airy, is in Martin Memorial Hospital there recuperating from injuries sustained in an automobile accident that occurred between Lexington and Salisbury on Highway 10 early last Thursday night. He was taken to a Salisbury hospital for treatment, but was brought to the hospital at Mt. Airy on Monday. He is reported improving rapidly and is expected to be out in the next few days.

The wreck is said to have occurred at a sharp curve near the Yadkin River on Highway 10 when the car, reported driven by R. A. Jones, an ex-sailor of Norfolk, Va., left the highway and plunged into the woods to be practically demolished. Jones was reported to be a hitch-hiker picked up by Mr. Folger near Raleigh. Other occupants of the car were Miss M. Newman, of Columbia, S. C., also a hitch-hiker given a lift near Raleigh; and Boyd and Floyd Smith, two brothers picked up near Lexington for a ride to Salisbury.

Mr. Folger, Miss Newman and Boyd Smith were the only ones injured, and all were carried to the Salisbury hospital for treatment, while Jones was reported held in jail at Lexington pending the outcome of the injuries to Mr. Folger and the other two patients in the hospital. Local hospital authorities reported Mr. Folger resting well.

Boy Disappears.

H. A. Fulp of Flat Shoal, was here Thursday hunting measures for the recovery of his 12-year old son, who mysteriously disappeared from his home Wednesday.

No reason is assigned for the youth's leaving home.

The parents will appreciate any information in regard to the boy's whereabouts. He left home in his everyday clothes. He has a habit of holding his head one-sided.

Mr. Fulp resides on the Gid Baker old homestead near Flatshoal church.

Death at the Wheel. A Lonely Road, Two Girls in a Car, Pursued by the Disappointed Lover—Then Attempted Murder and Suicide. A Thrilling Real-Life Story in The American Weekly, the Magazine Which Comes on Aug. 19 With The Baltimore American. Buy Your Copy From Your Favorite Newsboy or Newsdealer.

The entire State is becoming "rural electrification conscious." Groups of farmers from numerous communities are communicating with D. S. Weaver at State College in regard to electrifying their homes.

DOLLY MADISON BOOK CLUB MEETS

SEVERAL DANBURY GUESTS PRESENT AT THIS EXCLUSIVE MADISON SOCIAL ORGANIZATION — MRS. CHAS. B. PRATT HOSTESS.

Mrs. Chas. B. Pratt was hostess to the Dolly Madison Book Club on August 14th. The many beautiful baskets and vases of dahlias and zinnias gave eloquent testimony to the taste and skill of the hostess in the growth and arrangement of flowers. The club was delighted to have present Miss Luna Taylor, a club member who had been absent from several meetings. Other guests from Danbury were Mrs. J. Spotswood Taylor, Miss Miriam Hall and Miss Estelle Humphreys. Mrs. Russell Spear of Madison was also a guest at this meeting.

Mrs. Victor Idol, president of the club for 1934-35 read the list of committees for the Flower Show which is to be held in connection with the Madison Fair on September 13-15.

Mrs. Nat M. Pickett, program chairman, announced the subject of study, two heroines of much historic importance, who have ever been subjects of discussion and controversy.

The first, Charlotte Corday, was presented by Mrs. Robert Labberton in her own charming manner.

A young French woman of great beauty and courage, Charlotte Corday, lived during the French Revolution. Marat appeared to her to be the arch enemy of France and she therefore considered it her duty to destroy him.

A delightful musical number was the song, "There, Little Girl, Don't Cry," sung by Miss Miriam Hall, accompanied by Miss Luna Taylor.

The second historical character study, Mary Todd Lincoln, was most interestingly given by Mrs. Junius C. Brown.

Dr. William A. Evans, of Alabama, has made a study of Mrs. Lincoln from a psychological standpoint. He finds her the victim of circumstances, caught in the riptide of the momentous conflict between the North and South. Extravagant, high strung, emotionally, she was ever devoted to the great emancipator.

Mrs. Pratt served a most attractive salad course, followed by a sweet course.

Sandy Ridge News.

Mrs. J. E. Dowdy and Nancy Lee were visitors in a Winston-Salem hospital Tuesday to see Dr. Dowdy, who is a patient there. Dr. Dowdy underwent an operation for the amputation of several fingers.

Miss Marian Needham, who has been on a visit to California and other points on the Pacific coast, is here to visit her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Needham.