Democrats Sweep Stokes Again

REPUBLICANS LOSE EVERY OFFICE IN COUNTY -- SHERIFF TAYLOR RE-ELECTED BY 655 MAJORITY--SPARGER ELECTED TO LEGISLATURE BY MORE THAN 400 -- REPUBLICANS STAGED HARDEST BATTLE FOR YEARS -- DEMOCRATIC LANDSLIDE IN NATION AND STATE.

Although the Republicans put up the stiffest fight for years, the Democrats swept Stokes again Tuesday with majorities of 230 to 655.

J. John Taylor for Sheriff received a majority over his opponent, S. A. Flinchum, Republican, of 655.

J. Watt Tuttle for Clerk Superior Court received a majority of 550, over his opponent, Lewellyn.

Robah A. Smith's majority over Nunn, Republican is 546; Sparger for the House, is elected by a margin of 413.

Koonce, for Solicitor, carries Stokes by 569 majority.

Elsewhere in this issue of the Reporter a tabulated statement shows the detailed vote by precincts.

REPUBLICANS FOUGHT HARD

The Republicans turned out in large numbers Tuesday and the Democratic workers say they voted mostly straight, showing the effect of intensive organization. In the nation the Democrats gained 9 senators and several congressmen. It was a land slide in which all but six States endorsed the New Deal.

In the State the usual overwhelming Democratic majorities are everywhere reported.
