Distinguished Visitor

The Reporter last Monday had the pleasure of a visit from ex-Senator Sam H. Hobbs of Clinton, Sampson county, who was spending some time in this county visiting his daughter, Mrs. County Agent Kirby. He was accompanied by Mrs. Kirby and Miss Laura Ellington.

Senator Hobbs is one of the most distinguished citizens of the State, of very courtly manners, delightful personality and rare culture. He is a large planter of Sampson county, and one of its outstanding citizens. Besides representing his county in the State Senate, he has held a number of other positions of public honor and trust.
