ALLISON JAMES FOR CONGRESS

ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING OF WINSTON-SALEM CANDIDATE MONDAY NIGHT ONE OF THE BIGGEST RALLIES OF THE CAMPAIGN.

The Reporter man attended a n Allison-James-for-Congress rally in Winston-Salem Monday night, which was one of the largest and most enthusiastic political gatherings we have seen in the campaign. More than a thousand persons crowded the James headquarters on Liberty street, the band played patriotic airs and men and women stood up and shouted their acclaim for Forsyth county's candidate for Congress. The testimonials given by men and women as to the character and ability of this splendid citizen were indeed touching. His courtesy, his gentleness, his sincerity, his honesty, his unvarying loyalty to his friends, his loyalty to North Carolina, his friendliness to the poorer classes during his long experience as a druggist in Winston-Salem, his service to his friends during his stay in Washington, his service to the Democratic party during his career which embraced legislative experience at Raleigh—all these tributes spoken by enthusiastic admirers made the meeting seem like a love-feast.

Allison James will carry an enormous vote in Winston-Salem. We hear it estimated as high as 15,000. In other counties of the Fifth district, including Stokes, he will win large support.

WHO IS ALLISON JAMES?

Allison James was educated at Davidson College, N. C., and Page School of Pharmacy, Greensboro, N. C. Passed the state board of pharmacy in June, 1909. Has been in the wholesale, retail and manufacturing drug business in Winston-Salem for 26 years. Is a past president of the North Carolina State Pharmaceutical Association. He has always taken an active and prominent part in every civic endeavor. The Southern Tobacco Journal, March, 1933, said in part: "As a resident of a tobacco growing and manufacturing community, Mr. James has always been keenly interested in the problems and affairs of tobaccoists. Tobacco growers of the Piedmont section recognize

$30,188.26 WPA CASH FOR STOKES

THIS MONEY HAS ALREADY BEEN SPENT, BUT MORE IS COMING — JIM RIVERS SAYS WPA WILL CONTINUE TILL JUNE 30, OR LONGER.

Director Jim Rivers, of the Sixth W. P. A. District, in which Stokes County is located, announced today that this county had during the W. P. A. program received a total of $30,188.26 in Federal funds. This money has already been spent, or is now being used to carry on projects in the county to give work to unemployed. Under the present program W. P. A. should continue until June 30, according to Mr. Rivers, and it is hoped that before Congress adjourns suitable provisions will have been made for a much larger and better program for the balance of the year.

Women's Work received a greater portion of the W. P. A. funds in Stokes county, over $9,000.00 being allotted for this work. Road Construction received over $7,000.00 in Federal funds.

In addition to the above projects the following were also operated under W. P. A.: Heating Plants Installation, School Building Construction, School Improvement, School Pump House Construction, Privies, Sewing, Clerical and Recreational Activities.

What Will Happen At Saturday's Convention

At the Democratic convention here next Saturday it is certain that a county chairman will be elected by the new executive committee, as a result of last Saturday's precinct committee meetings. The chairman of these precinct committees will have the power of creating a new organization. Those precincts who failed to organize last Saturday, according to the State party law, will not be permitted to participate in the election of a new chairman except on a majority vote of the duly qualified members of the newly elected committee.

The question of the right of Surry to claim the nominee for a Senator will also come up. This will be occasioned by the agreement between Stokes and Surry for alternating candidates for the Senate. Fred Kirkman of Surry has offered for the Senate from the two counties. G. Sparger, the Stokes candidate, claims the preference in the primary. This matter will have to be settled by the convention as a whole.

SIGN-UP WILL CLOSE MAY 31

THIS CAMPAIGN AND ITS MEANING ARE EXPLAINED BY COUNTY AGENT KIRBY — MEETINGS FOR NEXT WEEK.

Good crowds have turned out at each of the special meetings held so far for the discussion of the Soil Conservation Program. Too, the making and signing of work sheets following these meetings is moving forward at a very encouraging rate. The indications are that Stokes farmers will cooperate in this program in the same splendid way that they did under the AAA.

The rush of farm work during the past few weeks gave the program a slow start here, although there has been much interest in this work all of the while. An interesting thing in connection with the present campaign to get the sign-up is that practically every farmer whom you come in contact with states that it is his intention to reduce to seventy per cent. of his tobacco base or less. These men are outspoken in their loyalty to the plan and they have the faith to believe that under this program the tobacco farmer farmers can largely control the production to where a fair price may be expected. One man was advised that since he had a base acreage of only 1.7 acres that he would hardly be expected to reduce any. His reply to this was: "Yes, but I am a man who tries to stand by my neighbors. My neighbors are reducing to seventy per cent. and I expect to stand by them."

Get Work Sheets In Before June 1st

This sign-up campaign closes on May 31st. All farmers who wish to do so should make and sign their work sheets before June 1st as this date has been announced from Raleigh as the closing date for making work sheets. Farm owners or operators can call upon their committeemen or come to the office of the County Agent in Danbury and sign their work sheets at any time before this closing date.

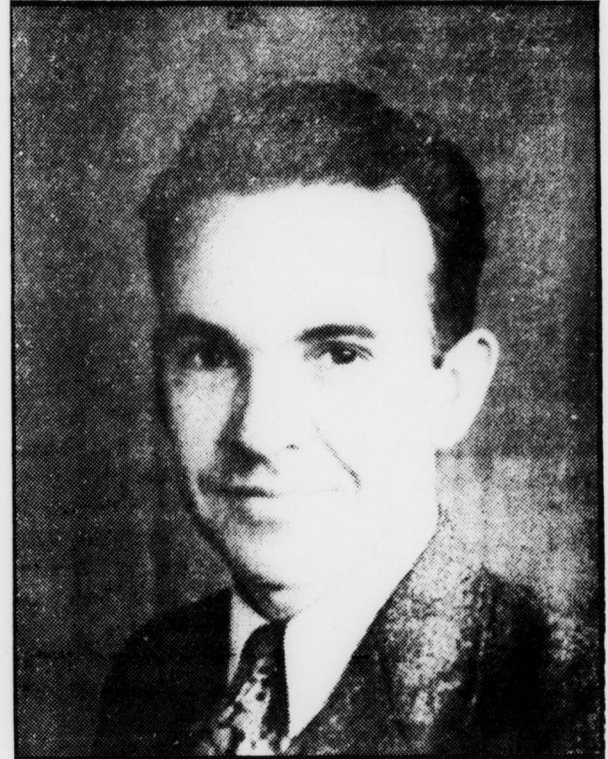

Any farmer who may wish to apply for any grants or payments under this program this year either for reducing tobacco acreage or planting conserving or improvement crops will have to show that he has made a work sheet. Many farmers may find it to their interest to apply for these grants before the end of the year and to be in position to qualify for these everyone should make a work sheet now.

Schedule of Meetings For Next Week

Special meetings will be held for the discussion of the Soil Conservation Program at the hours and places given below and the day following each of these meetings the county agent with clerks to assist the local committeemen will be at the

MAX GARDNER REBUKES GRAHAM

SAYS CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR HAS NO RIGHT TO SACRIFICE A FRIEND OR COMPROMISE THE TRUTH

Washington, May 11. — Former Governor O. Max Gardner tonight tossed his name into the Pandora box of the contest over the North Carolina governorship by striking at Lieutenant Governor A. H. (Sandy) Graham, one of the candidates in the four-cornered contest for the Democratic nomination.

Saying that Graham "has no right to sacrifice a friend or compromise the truth," Gardner's formal statement reads:

"Sandy Graham undoubtedly thinks it is good politics or good prejudice to assail me at this time. He has not always thought so. He knows that I have always been his friend and I have always thought he was mine.

The statement he is reported to have made over the radio last Friday night that I 'run North Carolina from Washington over the long-distance telephone' was not only a blow below the belt; it was also without the shadow of foundation in fact.

"I have been out of the office of governor nearly four years. Since my term expired I have never talked with Governor Ehringhaus at any time about his politics, appointments or administration. I have never made a recommendation of any character to Governor Ehringhaus. I have visited Raleigh only five times since 1933 and have never opposed, advocated or suggested a legislative policy, or communicated with a member of the General Assembly. I have never attempted, directly or indirectly to take part in the administration of any institution or department of the state.

"When I came to Washington I divested myself of all personal political ambition. I resigned from every political office and party recognition that had come to me except membership on the board of trustees of the university. I have declined three appointments to me by President Roosevelt.

"I do not feel that it is either just or fair for Lieutenant Governor Graham to undertake to prejudice the people of North Carolina against Clyde Hoey by the abortive charge that I am running or expect to run North Carolina from Washington or any other place. The character, party record and life-long integrity of Clyde Hoey entitles him to a fair trial on his own merit without the collateral and unwarranted assault from the lieutenant governor.

"I served the state to the utmost of my ability for more than twenty years and I respectfully submit that there is no basis on the charge that I now seek to become dictator of the state which has honored me in so many ways and for which I entertain the same exalted devotion that a son should feel for his mother.

"Sandy Graham has a perfect right—a democratic right—to run for the high office of governor and to win if he can, but in doing so he has no right to sacrifice a friend or compromise the truth."
