ESCAPED FLASH, DIES BY TRACTOR

ANOTHER MEMBER OF ILL-FATED SAWMILL CREW MEETS DEATH — A. J. LITTLE PASSES IN HOSPITAL FOLLOWING ACCIDENT — LITTLE WAS DRIVING ACROSS THE RIVER WHEN MACHINE TURNED OVER AND CRUSHED HIM.

Another chapter was written in the lightning-tragedy of August 6 near Mt. Ajry, killing 3 men, when A. J. Little died in a Winston-Salem hospital Wednesday following a tractor accident on Dan river near Pine Hall.

The last issue of the Reporter told of the fatal affair near Dobson, in Surry county, when a stroke of lightning killed Robert Welch, white, and Henry Davis, col., of Pine Hall, and Paul Russell, col., of South Carolina.

The men were returning with a mill from Surry to Pine Hall, Surry county, when caught in a storm with the fatal result as mentioned above.

A. J. Little, one of the owners of the sawmill and who was with the party killed by the lightning, but who was unhurt, died at the Winston-Salem hospital as the result of injuries received when a tractor turned over on him in Dan river near Pine Hall this week.

It seems that Little had been plowing some land and after finishing the work, attempted to drive his tractor across the stream. When near the bank on the opposite side the machine reared and turned over catching Little under the steering wheel and crushing his abdomen and breast. He was accompanied by Dave Tuttle and a young man named Welch. The latter held Little's head above the water for nearly an hour to prevent his drowning until help could arrive to lift the machine.

Mr. Little, who was 38 years old, was in a critical condition when he was removed to a Winston-Salem hospital where he died some hours later.

The ill-fated crew of 8 men with the sawmill that went from Pine Hall to Surry county, is survived by Glenn Beale, Charles Neale, L. D. Blackwell and a brother-in-law of Beale, name not known, four in all. The other four are dead.

WANTS OUR MOUNTAIN MUSIC

GREENSBORO WBIG EXTENDS CORDIAL INVITATION TO PALMER-BEASLEY BAND TO GET ON THE AIR — WE SING AND PLAY LIKE QUEEN ELIZABETH'S MINSTRELS.

August 18, 1936.

Mr. N. E. Pepper, Editor and Publisher, Danbury Reporter, Danbury, North Carolina. Dear Gene:

I thank you very kindly for your editorial in the issue of August 13th. We certainly would like to have Palmer, Beasley, Tucker band on our Carolina Jamboree, which is put on every Saturday night by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, at the Sportsarena, in Greensboro. This program runs from 10 p. m. on . . . sometimes until two in the morning. We have sometimes as many as twenty bands and we would like to have them represent Stokes county on Saturday night, any week.

Your editorial was a masterpiece. Whatever the highbrows say, at least 90% of the people like old-time mountain and cowboy music, and your description was something fine. String music is for the pure in heart, and cannot be appreciated to the fullest extent by the morose stunted. I am glad to see that you have not gone back on your raising to demand a symphony orchestra.

We get about a thousand post-cards and letters each month written in pencil, in appreciation of hillbilly music. Many of them request hymns and mountain songs. If I could write as you do, I could almost write a poem on this. We try in every way possible to fill every request. You know, this kind of music is exactly the same as that the old minstrels sang before Queen Elizabeth and other rulers, hundreds of years ago. They all tell a story, of some victory or tragedy.

Very sincerely yours,
EDNEY RIDGE.
