STOKES ELECTION DECLARED LEGAL

BOARD OF ELECTIONS HEARS PROTEST OF REPUBLICANS — CCC BOYS WHO CAST BALLOTS AT DANBURY ARE WITHIN THEIR RIGHTS — REPUBLICANS MAY APPEAL.

A written protest signed by W. G. Petree, J. S. Joyce, A. B. Carter and Baxter Hall was presented to the Board of Elections here this week, charging irregularities at Danbury precinct wherein about 20 CCC camp boys were allowed to cast their ballots at Tuesday's election.

After hearing the complaint and investigating the matter, the Board which is composed of C. L. Carroll, chairman, Bill Fulton and S. P. Christian sustained the boys in their rights and allowed their votes to be counted.

Mr. Fulton, the Republican member of the board, declined to concur in the decision.

The contention of the Republicans was that the CCC boys were not citizens of this State and had no right to vote here under the law.

The board took the view that the voters had taken the oath prescribed by the election law qualifying legalized voters, and that there was no evidence but that they met the legal requirements.

The Board of Elections together with the county returning board, was in session Thursday and Friday. After canvassing the votes of the county the returning board gave place to the session of the Board of Elections.

The protesting Republicans evidenced their intention to appeal to the State board of elections at Raleigh.
