While Peaches Are In Season

Don't cast your vote for your favorite peach dessert until you have tried this fresh peach chiffon pie with crisp corn flake crust.

By Barbara B Brooks

YOU will be missing the dessert of the month if you let the peach season come to an end before serving fresh peach chiffon pie with crisp corn flake crust.

Here is a dessert to which all jaded appetites respond—and cooks, experienced or not, revel in its success because it is so simple to prepare. Your refrigerator does most of the work. Crisp rolled corn flakes mixed with melted butter and sugar pressed into a pie plate form the crust. The uncooked filling—fresh peaches crushed with sugar and lemon juice, a bit of gelatin, whipped egg whites and cream—is a magic sponge of incomparable flavor. Try it today. The triple tested recipe follows:

Crumb Pie Shell
1/2 cup butter 1/2 cup sugar
1 cup fine corn flake crumbs
Melt butter in pie pan. Add sugar and crumbs; mix thoroughly Press mixture evenly and firmly around sides and bottom of pan. Chill.

Yield: One 8, 9 or 10 inch shell.
* Roll or grind 4 cups corn flakes to yield 1 cup fine crumbs.

Peach Chiffon Pie
1 1/2 cups fresh peaches 1/2 cup boiling water
3/4 cup sugar 1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 tablespoon gelatin 1/2 cup heavy cream
1/4 cup cold water 2 egg whites
1/2 teaspoon salt

Peel peaches, slice, add sugar and crush fruit. Permit these ingredients to stand for 30 minutes. Soak gelatin in cold water, dissolve in boiling water. Add lemon juice to fruit mixture and fold in dissolved gelatin. Chill mixture until it is about to set. Whip cream until stiff, fold into fruit mixture. Whip egg whites with salt until stiff and fold into chilled corn flake crumb pie shell. Chill until firm enough to cut. Serve with whipped cream, if desired.
Yield: 8-inch pie.
