

THE DANBURY REPORTER.

Volume 66

Established 1872.

Danbury, N. C., Thursday, January 13, 1938

Number 3,331

SANDY RIDGE SUNDAY SCHOOL

ORGANIZED SUNDAY AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH — ANNOUNCEMENT OF A WEDDING — THE LITERARY CLUBS MEET — PERSONALS AND NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Sandy Ridge, Jan. 12.—For a number of years there has been no Sunday School at the Presbyterian church here. On Sunday afternoon a group of interested people met and organized a Sunday School. Mrs. C. R. Darr made a very inspiring and helpful talk on the purpose of Sunday School. It was decided to meet each Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The following officers were elected: Superintendent, R. H. Watkins; Assistant, J. B. Robertson; Secretary and Treasurer, Ruby Robertson; Assistant, Bessie Hennis; Adult teacher, C. R. Darr; Assistant, E. M. Macon; teacher for young people, Mrs. C. R. Darr; Assistant, Mrs. Jake Ziglar; Junior class, Mrs. Joe Ziglar; Assistant, Mrs. Noel Amos; Primary class, Mrs. R. H. Watkins; Assistant, Miss Edith Hennis.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lawrence announce the marriage of their daughter Ruth, to Mr. Melvin Layman on December 29th, at Stuart, Va., Rev. Brooks was the officiating minister. The ring ceremony was used. Mr. and Mrs. Layman will make their home temporarily with the bride's parents here.

The Pasteur Literary Club met Thursday morning with a very interesting program being given. The debate created much interest at this time. The program was as follows: Devotional, DeWitt Vernon; Song, Club; Debate, Resolved that electric lights are better than other types of light. Affirmative—Walter Joyce, R. C. Eaton, Dewey Corn. Negative—Cameron Dodson, Wilbert Wood, Mrs. Darr. Current events, Maynard Joyce.

The "Helen Kellar" Literary Club met in regular weekly session Thursday morning with the following program being given: Song, Club; Devotional, Louise Jessup; Roll Call, each member asking a riddle, a prize was given to the member answering the most riddles. Lou Ella Amos being the winner. Current events, several girls. Mandolin solo, Evelyn Joyce.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo E. Carroll and son Dwight Earl, of High Point visited Mr. Carroll's sister, Mrs. Rosa Hutcherson, here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Cassidy of Reidsville recently visited Mrs. Cassidy's sister, Mrs. J. W. Ferguson.

Moir Hawkins was a business visitor in Madison Monday.

Miss Norma Boyles and S. R. Gibson were in Walnut Cove Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Dodson and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Oakley Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Joyce and family and Mrs. Goffrey Smith were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Poore Sunday.

W. R. Spencer was a business visitor in Winston-Salem Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Martin and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Amos Sunday.

Rev. J. A. Joyce was a business visitor in King Wednesday.

Harl Handy has returned to his home in Winston-Salem after having spent a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Handy, here.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Joyce were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dodson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Cromer visited Mrs. Rosa Hutcherson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Darr and daughter Joan, were dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Joyce Friday evening.

Mrs. Grant Ayers spent the week-end at Boone visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rhodes and baby of Leaksville visited Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Rhodes Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Joyce and daughter Ruth, were shopping in Madison Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilary Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Moir Hawkins and children, Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Hawkins and daughter Flora Jane, and Hampton Knight were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Vernon and Mrs. W. O. Wood visited Wallace Vernon in the Veterans' hospital in Roanoke, Va., Sunday.

Mrs. Ralph Mitchell, daughter of Mrs. Charlie Eaton is in the Duke hospital at Durham for treatment.

Mrs. R. L. Ziglar's brother Winfield Agnew, of Floyd, Va., spent the week-end with her here.

John Nance was in Martinsville, Va., Saturday on business.

Clyde Amos of Leaksville visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Amos, here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Bill Nance and family, Mrs. Jess Nance and daughter spent Saturday in Leaksville.

James Joyce of Winston-Salem visited W. C. Joyce here Monday.

Little Estelle Ferguson, who has been ill with the chicken pox, is improving.

Friends of Mrs. J. C. Handy will be glad to learn that she is much better after having been sick.

Miss Artie Belle Nance entertained a number of her friends Friday night with an old time square dance. Every one seemed to have enjoyed themselves very much.

Earl L. Collins, an electrician from Martinsville, Va., is back with his uncle J. B. Robertson after being away from his work for several days.

Otis Amos visited in Preston, Va., Saturday night.

Joe Ziglar and Jack Turner were in Martinsville, Va., Saturday on business.

TYPHOID FEVER ATTACKS FAMILY

WILLIAM FLINCHUM, HIS WIFE AND SON REPORTED ILL WITH DISEASE — REED FLINCHUM TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.

It is reported that William Flinchum, his wife, and a son Reed Flinchum are ill with typhoid fever. The son Reed was taken to a Winston-Salem hospital Sunday, and is said to be seriously sick. He had been under the care of a physician for a week or more, and it was given out last week that his trouble was pneumonia, later Bright's disease.

The William Flinchum family lives close to the river a half mile north of Piedmont Springs. One report is that their water supply is infected with drainage from the CCC camp, two miles distant.

Production Credit Association Stockholders To Meet January 29

Stockholders of the Winston-Salem Production Credit Association will hold their annual meeting in the court house at Winston-Salem on Saturday morning, January 29th at 10:00 o'clock, according to an announcement by E. S. Welborn, president of the association, who says that it is desired that every member of the association shall be present.

At this meeting, complete and detailed reports will be made by the officers of the association on its operations for the past year, directors will be elected and other highly important business transacted.

Mr. Welborn in announcing the date of the annual meeting said that it was hoped to make the attendance at this year's meeting the largest of any of the meetings yet held. He said that these annual meetings afforded the stockholders an opportunity to learn every detail of the operations of their association and that it was their duty to attend.

The Winston-Salem Production Credit Association serves Alleghany, Ashe, Caldwell, Davidson, Forsyth, Stokes, Surry, Watauga, Wilkes, and Yadkin counties and in 1937 made loans totalling $117,000.00.

Nick Stevens of Lawsonville was in town on business Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reid Stovall and little daughter Louise, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilkins.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nance were in Greensboro Monday.

Mrs. George Kalfam, Mrs. G. W. Hawkins and Miss Abbie Hawkins visited Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hawkins Wednesday.

A mad dog visited many homes here last Tuesday night and bit several dogs. Some of the dogs bitten are being treated in Martinsville, Va., in order to prevent other dogs from going mad.

GOOD WOMAN DIES AT PINEY GROVE

PASSING OF MRS. FANNIE ELIZABETH FLINCHUM WITH STROKE OF PARALYSIS—SHE WAS THE WIFE OF ROBERT FLINCHUM — THE FUNERAL SATURDAY.

Mrs. Fannie Elizabeth Flinchum, aged 49, died Thursday night of last week at her home at Piney Grove, after suffering a stroke of paralysis early Thursday morning, about nine o'clock. She lived eleven hours after the attack, passing away 20 minutes before 9 at night.

Mrs. Flinchum sat on the side of the bed and talked a little after she was stricken, but soon lay down and became unconscious, not speaking any more. She had suffered with high blood pressure for two years.

Funeral was conducted on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Elders J. A. Fagg, W. J. Brown and Ed Priddy of the Primitive Baptist church, followed by interment at the family burial plot near the home. A large crowd was in attendance at the rites.

Mrs. Flinchum, who was the wife of Robert Flinchum, was a good woman and was beloved by a large circle of friends. She was a daughter of the late Jasper Biby. She is survived by her husband and one son, Powell, 28 years of age, and by the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Viney Mabe and Mrs. Josie Lawson of Lawsonville; Mrs. Daisy Lawson of Kernersville; Mrs. Annie Nance of Greensboro; Anderson Biby of Walkertown. Also by half brothers and half sisters as follows: Mrs. Nannie Tuggle of Guilford county; Misses Elizabeth and Peggy, and Messrs. David and William Biby of Kernersville.

Death of Rev. C. W. Robinson

Rev. C. W. Robinson, 89, who for 43 years served as pastor of the North Wilkesboro Presbyterian church, died at his home at North Wilkesboro Tuesday morning.

He had been in ill health for two years but on several occasions during the last year he preached from the pulpit of the Presbyterian church at North Wilkesboro.

Mr. Robinson was pastor of the Danbury Presbyterian church some 25 years ago.

Reed Flinchum Is Ill In Hospital

Reed Flinchum of Piedmont Springs was carried to a Winston-Salem hospital last week. His condition is reported serious.

C. A. Mickey In Hospital

C. A. Mickey of Gap is at the Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, for an operation for prostate gland trouble.

Tobacco Course To Be Given At State

The four-day tobacco short course to be held at State College, January 25-28, will offer North Carolina farmers an opportunity for extensive studies of tobacco production and marketing.

Leading authorities on the weed crop will discuss the best cultural practices, new methods of insect and disease control, how to market leaf to best advantage and explain the tobacco outlook for this year.

Laboratory work in grading tobacco will be given Wednesday and Thursday afternoons.

A high-light of the first day's program Tuesday morning will be a talk by J. B. Hutson, assistant AAA administrator and director of the east central region, on prospective control legislation.

W. G. Finn, assistant regional director, will go into the leaf outlook, and E. Y. Floyd, extension tobacco specialist and state AAA director, will discuss the 1938 agricultural conservation program in the afternoon Tuesday.

Plant pathologist, agronomists, entomologists, marketing specialists, and their experiment station and extension workers are also on the program to present various aspects of the tobacco growers' problems and point out the best known methods of solving them.

Dr. M. Paul, State College director of agricultural short courses, has announced that there will be no tuition fee for the tobacco short course. A $1 fee at a moderate price both on registration fee will be charged. Rooms and meals will be available at the campus and in homes close by, he added.

Three Tobacco Tags At Lawsonville With New Show

Three Tobacco Tags, who up to a short time ago were broadcasting from W. P. T. F. in Raleigh, but are now at Richmond, will be at Lawsonville High School on Saturday night of this week, Jan. 15th. From all reports their show at the present time is far superior to anything they have run. Along with good music and singing will be a new show entitled "Married Bliss." A large crowd is expected and everybody is urged to come early and get a good seat. A small admission charge will be made at the door. A feature of the show will be Bob Hartsell, solo singer and guitarist.

Z. R. Moran Is Critically Ill

Z. R. Moran of Meadows is reported critically ill at his home near Meadows. He was hurt in a mule runaway several months ago, since when he has been confined to his bed. Complications have recently set in which render his condition serious. He is 72 years of age.

BROWN DATES IMPORTANT MEETS

SERIES OF MEETINGS TO EXPLAIN NEW FARM PROGRAM ARRANGED — ALSO MEETING AT KING HIGH SCHOOL FOR FARMERS — URGENT INVITATION TO ATTEND.

In order to better acquaint Stokes county farmers with the details of the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program, a series of meetings have been, and are being held throughout the county. Several changes have been made in the 1938 Agricultural Conservation Program and it is our desire to give producers the necessary and important details of this in order that they may plan their farming operations for 1938 to take advantage of this program.

The following is a list of places, date and hour of meetings to be held in Danbury, Meadows, and Beavor Island townships:

Monday night, January 17 — Germantown School 7:30.

Wednesday night, January 19 — Meadows School 7:30.

Thursday night, January 20, — Dilgard School 7:30.

Friday night, January 21 — Young's School 7:30.

Producers will notice that all meetings have been scheduled at night. Please take note of the place and date of the meeting and attend if you possibly can.

For the purpose of giving tobacco growers up-to-the minute information on the tobacco problems, such as cultural practices, fertilizer recommendations, disease control, plant beds, etc., we are holding a meeting at the King High School on Tuesday night, January 18, at 7:30 o'clock.

We are very fortunate in having with us at this meeting, Dr. Luther Shaw, Extension Plant Pathologist from N. C. State College and Mr. L. T. Weeks, Extension Tobacco Specialist, also from the college. These men will give an illustrated lecture using a projecting lantern and slides in connection with the above mentioned tobacco problems. Recently, new practical methods have been developed for the control of blue mold on tobacco plant beds. Dr. Shaw is an authority on this problem, having conducted considerable research work on blue mold.

We hope to have with us also at this meeting Mr. F. R. Farnham, Extension Dairy Specialist from State College who will discuss the possibilities of milk markets and the dairy industry in Stokes county. New developments have taken place along this line recently.

All farmers in either of these subjects are urged to attend this meeting, as I am sure it will be of great benefit to you.

J. F. BROWN,
County Agent.

Four thousand farmers attended the first Surry county Tobacco Festival at Mt. Airy on Tuesday afternoon before Christmas.