

The Newspaper That The Home Folks Read

THE DANBURY REPORTER

Established 1872

Volume 66

Danbury, N. C., Thursday, Sept. 22, 1938

Number 3,340

STOKES GOES TO TOWN

$5,000,000 Crop of Golden Weed Now Ready To Move
To Market.

FARMERS BUYING POWER INCREASED

WHAT DO WE NEED ?

Thousands of Suits of Clothing and Overcoats

20,000,000 Pairs of Shoes

25 Dresses and Gowns

20,000 Sweaters

Carloads of Shirts, Overalls, Under-Clothing, Hosiery, Hats, Caps, and Mens'
Women's and Children's Furnishings.

Furniture, Stoves, Radios. Automobiles, Insurance, House Building and Repair
Material. Farm Machinery.

See the Messages of the Business Men of the Old Belt Tobacco
District to Stokes Farmers.