Miss Downing, Welfare Superintendent, Offers Valuable Service to The People

The Stokes County Department of Public Welfare is not only an agency that supervises the Public Assistance and relief funds, but it makes every effort to be of service to the county and to each individual, meaning the people who are wholly self-supporting as well as those who are in relief groups.

The local department conscientiously tries to find jobs for the unemployed and placements for the homeless. Recently a number of substantial citizens have applied to the department for aid in finding people qualified to do housework, practical nursing and farm work. The majority of these jobs include some pay along with room and board.

Miss Ella Downing, Superintendent, says she feels confident that applicants who are qualified by average health, practicality and a fair knowledge of the job can be placed satisfactorily.

Applicants should make their requests for placements at the Welfare Department in Danbury between the hours of 8:30 A. M., and 4:00 P. M., Mondays through Fridays.

Danbury To Play Hanes Knitters July 4th.

M'ANALLY REUNION NEXT SUNDAY

TO BE HELD AT MOORE'S SPRINGS, JULY 2 — DON'T FORGET TO COME AND BRING A LUNCH.

1419 Geranium Street N. W. Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Editor:

I think its time someone started a little propaganda, otherwise the event next to my heart will come off with only the writer present, namely, the McAnally reunion. It was decided last year to hold the next reunion at Moore's Springs the first Sunday in July. Due to the rain last year, it was impossible to reach the old homeplace on Dan river, much to our disappointment. We sincerely hope for a large crowd. It's lots of fun seeing each other, everyone whispering behind everyone's back, "doesn't she look old!" After all we can't stay young—but why want to?

There's always the crop of new babies for us to see, and new in-laws to look us over.

My Grandmother McAnally was Ruth Payne from Sandy Ridge. Her mother was Nancy Carter, also from that vicinity. We would be glad for any of this side of the family to join us on this occasion. Also want some of the Carter family. Write me, I very anxious to get some family history.

Incidentally, Mr. Pepper, I have now seventy - five typed pages of genealogical data and history of the McAnally family. Two hundred years of which was spent in Stokes county. And if I ever win the Irish sweepstake, and Mr. Taylor will sell the old house now ready to tumble down, I'm coming right back there. When I have the time, I will condense this data for publication in your paper if you like. Two hundred years is a long time for one family to be identified with one county, and most of that time one homesite.

Anyway, don't forget the McAnally reunion at Moore's Springs July 2nd, and don't forget a picnic lunch.

See you soon,
MRS. J. L. M'CORMICK.
(Annie McAnally.)

Stokes Farmers Receive Checks

Payments totaling $96,219.89 under the Agricultural Conservation Program have been received and are being distributed to co-operating farmers throughout the county, according to an announcement by J. F. Brown, County Agent.

Approximately 3,500 checks for 1,538 farms have been received, which, according to Mr. Brown, represents about 75 per cent of the applications to be paid. Checks are being received in the county office almost every day and notices are being mailed to producers immediately.

Take the Reporter. $1.00 a year.

RAY STEWART AND LEE PHILLIPS

MAKE BIG LIQUOR HAUL NEAR KING—EDWARDS REUNION NEXT SUNDAY—JIM RUMLEY TO BUILD NEW HOME—FUNERAL FOR MRS. PRESTON FERGUSON.

King, June 29.—"At the foothills of the wonderful Sauratown Mountains."

Deputy Sheriff R. W. Stewart and Patrolman Lee Phillips captured 31 gallons of liquor, two automobiles and four men Friday west of King on the Lakes-to-Florida highway. The four men who gave their names as Elmer King of Westfield, V. C. Tucker, James H. Brissenden and Gyn Brown of Winston-Salem, were placed in Danbury jail to await a hearing.

The Edwards reunion will be held Sunday, July 2nd, at the home of S. T. Edwards, at King Route 2. This is the old homeplace of A. T. Edwards. All relatives and friends are requested to attend with well-filled baskets.
