Donkey Baseball Tuesday Night July 19th

(Contributed.)

As the time draws near for the annual classical "Donkey Baseball" game to be played at Riverside Park in Danbury on the night of the 19th, the Associated Press has delegated yours truly as its special reporter to interview the various subjects who, last year, and who will again this year massage the humble beast. Doc Moorefield lows that if Elizabeth will let him have the night off he will do his best to entertain "May West." Of course Doc many years ago practiced medicine on mules, (that is he rode on a mule to see his patients.) It is rumored that Doc is not the kind of a man that "May" would like to see. This is about all that we can say about Doc in the newspaper.

If Walter Petree can be persuaded to get out of his Packard long enough, and if he can get off from going to Walnut Cove, Greensboro, and Lawsonville (boy, is he a Roaming Romeo,) and if his back is not troubling him too much he will be taking care of the keystone sack on "Poppye." Walter is taking his last fling at romance with that Packard.

"He is the dad blamedest, 'goldingest buckaroo that ever rode across these hills of Stokes county." That is the comment that has been made, truly, times too frequent to enumerate, about our historic old character and bad man No. 1 of Stokes county, Jessie James. Jessie will be mounted and unmounted on his namesake Jessie James.

Last year William Marshall spent thirty minutes between this good old earth and heaven. He came back to earth last year but the chances are that he will get to heaven this time.

Cleve Lawson says, "If they can be rid I can ride them." That is what Burk Smith said last year until they put him on "Dillinger." "Dillinger didn't throw Burke down, and he didn't throw him a pop-up, he threw Burke in a line drive.

Sheriff Taylor says, quote, "I rode them last year and I will do it again." Unquote, unquote, we hope. The Sheriff always gets his man and can ride anything.

Lon Sisk is not what he used to be but he says that he can and will handle any of them.

Dr. DeHart, as you will remember from last year's game, spent thirty minutes trying to steal third base. He was finally put out in center field. Dr. says give him one good teeth and he will get home this time.

Ralph Scott says that all prospects for the game are mighty bright at the present time.

Mac Caudle will hold down the hot corner if his comments are not too strong and if "Wimpy" does not unseat him.

Pine Hall has looked its community over thoroughly and has picked as its representative the reliable and dependable Tom Preston. Now it is not denied that Tom is reliable and dependable; but we just don't believe that he has had much experience with donkeys. Time will tell.

NOTICE OF SALE OF LAND

WHEREAS, on the 22nd day of May, 1934, Ed Bennett and Kate Bennett executed and delivered unto W. O. McGibony, Trustee for Land Bank Commissioner, a certain deed of trust which is recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Stokes county, North Carolina, in Book 88 at Page 161; and

WHEREAS, default has been made in the payment of the indebtedness thereby secured as therein provided, and the trustee has been requested by the owner and holder thereof to exercise the power of sale therein contained;

NOW, THEREFORE, under and by virtue of the authority conferred by the said deed of trust the undersigned Trustee will on the 11th day of August, 1939, at the court house door of Stokes county, North Carolina, at twelve o'clock noon offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash, the following real estate:

All that certain tract of land containing eighty-five and ninety-one one hundredths acres, more or less, in Meadows and Sauratown Townships of Stokes county, North Carolina, located on the Meadows - Stewart School House Road about three (3) miles west from the Meadows School and being bounded on the north by the lands of Dr. J. W. Neal, on the east by the lands of Lula Mounce and Franklin James, on the south by the lands of Banner Joyce and Ena James and on the west by the lands of Dr. J. W. Neal. This property is more fully described by metes and bounds in the deed of trust above mentioned, to which reference is made.

This the 10th day of July, 1939.

W. O. M'GIBONY,
Trustee.

R. J. SCOTT, Agent and Atty for Trustee.

Powell Robertson knows that he can ride a donkey better than Matt Simmons did last year.

The Walnut Cove delegation will be further bolstered by such outstanding players as Dr. Helsabock, Bill Bailey, Jim Rumley, etc.

Dennis Alley, a star hurler of the Walnut Cove Softball League, will be on the mound for one of the nines. The officials have not yet determined who will be pitcher for the winning team.

Incidentally, while we are in the midst of writing all of this, who should walk in but that great arbitrator of last year's game, who has agreed to serve again this year as umpire, it is none other than James B. Joyce. Except for the occasional comment that the donkeys knew more about the game than the umpire everyone seemed well satisfied with Mr. Joyce's work last year. Jim called out seven donkeys at first base and they would not get out.
