AT MT. VIEW COMMUNITY HOUSE

CLUB DECIDES TO HAVE OYSIER STEW — COUNTY AGENT BROWN COMMENDS THE CLUB FOR ITS GOOD WORK.

Fifty-four Stokes County Service Club boys and girls gathered at the Mt. View Community House Friday night, November 10, at 7:50 o'clock for their regular monthly meeting. The president, Trubert Shelton, presided. During the business session, the club decided to have an oyster stew in the near future, the date to be announced later. The treasurer reported a balance of $58.65 in the treasury. This was the net returns from the box party and the program held at the King school featuring the Rangers.

Mr. Brown, the county agent, commended the club on making such a good start on their project for the year.

The club had as their speaker Mr. Brumfield, County Agent at Large, who made a very inspiring talk on "Be A Builder."

During the recreational period Miss Rose Ellwood Bryan, Home Agent at Large, led the group in several games, stunts, and folk dances.

A program committee composed of Joy Terry, Howard Wolff and Nina Baker was appointed to have charge of the December meeting.

The club will meet the second Friday night in December.

F. W. Class Entertains

A chicken stew was given by the boy's senior class of Quaker Gap Sunday School in honor of the senior girls at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newell Carroll. This feast was given to the girls for their active work and highest average over the boy's class during a race period of three months. Due to the weather the guests were invited into the living room where they talked, sang and enjoyed themselves by a big fire while the boys cooked the chickens. But the most enjoyable time came when the boys said the chicken was done and invited the girls in to eat. In honor of the girls, the boys served the girls first and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves very much.

Those present were as follows: Misses Mary Ruth and Arbelia Carroll, La, Estell, Rachel and Cleo Johnson, Mrs. Homer Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Newell Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hall, and Messrs. Homer Carroll, Bradford Nance, Paul Lewis and Balmsom Hall. Visitors were Edith Jones, Lottie Ivey, New Hampshire, former member of the girl's class, and J. T. Carroll.

Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Ross of Ross' Store were in town Wednesday.

ALL QUIET ON DICKTOWN FRONT

BUT ONLY AFTER REGISTERERS SPENT A NIGHT OR TWO IN THE RED HOUSE ON THE HILL — COUNTY DEPUTIES AND STATE PATROLMAN BRING IN BIG BUNCH.

All is now quiet on the Dicktown Front, but this was made possible by Deputy Sheriffs Carl Ray, Burke Smith and State Patrolman Bristol Dellinger, who brought to the lock-up eight of the roisters for drinking, fighting and generally raising hell—al-luh-jah.

Dicktown is a community, predominantly cullud, that lies a league east of Walnut Cove. And if all reports are true that's mean lickin in them thar hills. Yes, sah, white folks, so mean it will make a maddog sober, and two drinks will induce you to hit your mother-in-law.

There were eight cullud persons in the melee, so it is said.

One of the highlights of the interesting occasion was the fight between Sam Henry Hairston and Sing Welch, in which Sing lost an ear. Old Sam Henry is paralyzed, but this disablement does not affect his mouth. He bit off Sing's left lobe which Sing used for hearing a distant car coming. There was fighting going on, evidently, when Sing lost that ear, yes sah.

About that time Carl, Burk and Bristol arrived and took the whole crowd to jail.

Nobody was hurt seriously and the boys paid or were bonded out.

Walnut Cove School Honor Roll For First Quarter

The Walnut Cove school has worked out a new way for distributing honors in scholarship each month. A student who makes A on each subject has his name placed on the Golden Honor Roll. If a student makes an average of B on all subjects, his name is placed on the Silver Honor Roll. By this method, the school hopes to encourage better scholarship.

The following are on the Golden Honor Roll:

GRADE TWO

Mary Elizabeth Marshall, Woodrow Neal, Lucille Lansford, Irene Mabe.

GRADE FOUR

Aurelin Fulton, Ruth Knight, Mildred Dunlap.

GRADE FIVE

Ben Johnson, Betty Jo Fallon, Betty Faye Martin, Virginia Perdue, Margaret Redman, Peggy Wheeler.

GRADE SIX

Rachel Wall, Billy Neal, Polly Coleman, Dorothy Mitchell, Gene Redman, Louise Tuttle.

GRADE NINE

Harry McPherson, Jack Tuttle, Rose Boyles Frances Jane Johnson, Clare Lewis.

King Parent-Teacher Association

The King Parent-Teachers Association met Nov. 6 in regular session, with President Carroll presiding. Special music was rendered by the King Band. Miss Vera Jones, chairman of the program committee, introduced Mr. A. P. Patterson, scout executive of the Cherokee Council, Reidsville, who spoke on "Scouting". Mr. Patterson enumerated the steps necessary in organizing a scout troop. The association decided to sponsor a troop for one year.

While the business meeting was in session, the association agreed to take care of some immediate needs of the school by purchasing a victrola for the music department, shades for the commercial room, and a velour curtain for the stage.

Motions were carried to sponsor a city-wide clean up day in King, November 10th, and a box and pie supper in the near future.

Quaker Gap S. S. Classes Meet

The senior boy's and girl's Sunday School classes of Quaker Gap Baptist Church held their regular monthly class meeting with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ferguson Saturday night, Nov. 11, with twenty members present.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Estelle Johnson, and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Homer Ferguson led the devotionals. During the business session a report was given of the visits made to the sick since their previous meeting. The two classes voted to send a Thanksgiving basket to Mrs. Paul Lewis and Mr. Norman Baker, members of the two classes both of whom are ill in the Sanatorium at Black Mountain.

After the offering was taken the following program was given:

Song—class; poem—Mrs. Johnnie Newsom. Questions on the lesson quarter—Bradford Nance. Individual memory verses—the two classes. Song, "Living For Jesus".

The meeting was turned over to the hostess. Contests were given with Misses Estelle and Rachel Johnson, Bradford Nance, and Tom Hall winning prizes.

The hostess served a tempting plate made up of chicken salad, sandwiches, cake, pickles and lemonade, carrying out the Thanksgiving motif. The meeting adjourned to meet with Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Hall, Winston-Salem for their December meeting.

Those present were: Misses Mary Ruth and Arbelia Carroll, Estelle, Rachel and Cleo Johnson, Mabel Hurtgrove, Mrs. Paul Kiser, Mr. and Mrs. Newell Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Newsom, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hall, Bradford Nance,

BETTIE CALHOUN IS NOW AGED 91

ONE OF STOKES COUNTY'S OLDEST CITIZENS CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY—OTHER NEWS OF KING.

King, Nov. 16.—Funeral service for Cornelius Southern, who was killed in a motorcycle wreck in Winston-Salem, was held at the first Baptist Church here Sunday afternoon at 2:30 and interment followed in the church cemetery.

The deceased is survived by the widow, who was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee Newsom and several children. His father and mother and several brothers and sisters also survive.

Pierceson Kiser has moved into his new home on Dan River street which was recently completed.

The big horse show which was put on here Armistice day was a big success. Thousands of people were in attendance. People from the sunny slopes of Maine to the beautiful tail end of Florida were here. The attractions were good and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves. A number of concession people were also here to furnish amusement for those who were not interested in horses.

Dr. Floyd J. Strupe attended the North Carolina Chiropractic convention at the Vance Hotel, Statesville Saturday and Sunday.

Charles Dalton has returned to his home in Charlotte after paying a visit to relatives at the old Dalton homestead three miles west of town.

Theodore Newsom has returned from the government hospital at Columbia, S. C., where he has been under treatment. His condition is much improved.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hauser was laid to rest in the Moravian Cemetery on Main street Wednesday.

The following patients underwent tonsil removal operations here last week: Carl Flynn of Rural Hall and Miss Lillie Brown of Vadenecum Springs.

Jesse Lawson of High Point is spending a few days here the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Charles R. Carroll on west Main street.

Mrs. Bettie Calhoun celebrated her 94th birthday at the home of her grandson, Rober Hooker, just south of King Sunday. A number of relatives were present to enjoy the occasion.

The following births were recorded here last week: to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Morefield, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stone, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Young, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dodson, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hayden, a son and to Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Kiser, a daughter.

Homer Ferguson, and the hostess, Mrs. Homer Ferguson.
