ANSWER TO THE ANTI-LYNCHERS

The anti-lynch bill is up in congress, passed by the House. It will encounter rougher sailing in the Senate where Southern senators are waiting for it with a filibuster which will take it to ride.

There is no excuse for an anti-lynching law. It is a needless slap and a studied humiliation for the South by northern or western politicians bidding for the negro vote in Chicago, Philadelphia, Harlem, etc.

The Southern people and the negro are living together amicably, each helping the other. Only three lynchings in a year, while New York alone had 240 murders. Gangsterism, other appalling lawlessness thrives in the populous districts, where anti-lynching legislation was born.

Let these crime-infested communities that would reform the South, first sweep before their own doors.

R. M. LOFTIS COMMITTS SUICIDE

BROTHER OF STOKES SUPERINTENDENT OF COUNTY HOME TAKES OWN LIFE—RESIDED IN WINSTON-SALEM.

(Winston Journal.)

Robert M. Loftis, employee of a local bottling plant, was found dead in the basement of his home, 2300 Greenway avenue, late yesterday afternoon by a servant who entered the basement to replenish the fire in the heating unit of the home. Officers declared the death suicide.

The dead man lay flat on his back with a bullet wound in his chest which penetrated the heart. A .22-calibre rifle lay about three feet away, near his feet. His clothing was all intact, even to his cap which remained in position as the man crumpled to the floor.

The servant, Bertha Rone, 109 Spencer avenue, said all of the family was out for a part of the afternoon. Mr. Loftis, she said, told her he was going to take his gun out for a little tramp. She did not see him again, she said, until sometime later when she started to descend the basement stairs to replenish the fire. It was then she saw his lifeless body and called neighbors to the scene.

Dr. W. N. Dalton was called and surveyed the premises before the body was moved. Later police officers checked the circumstances. All were agreed it was a case of suicide.
