IN THE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY, MAY 25, 1940 FOR STATE SENATOR 23rd Senatorial District (Stokes and Surry)

WILLIAM F. MARSHALL

This being, by a time honored custom, Stokes County's time to furnish the candidate for the State Senate—to represent the good counties of Stokes and Surry, it is a pleasure to present to the Democratic voters in the primary, May 25, 1940, the candidacy of William F. Marshall, who so ably and fairly represented his home county in the lower house of the General Assembly of 1939.

He is a life-long Democrat, a public-spirited, wide-awake, progressive citizen, devoted to the interest of his community; its religious, educational and civic interest; has a broad vision of the needs of the State and especially of his native and neighboring county; has had a diversity of Agricultural, commercial and governmental experience and enjoys the full confidence of the voters of both parties who know him best.

When nominated and elected he will, without question, represent this district and the State in such a manner as to merit the continued confidence and esteem of the people of the two counties.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET HELD

KATHERINE SISK, DANBURY GIRL, TOAST MISTRESS AT WALNUT COVE AFFAIR—CARSON, SPEAKER OF THE EVENING—THE PROGRAM.

The Junior class of Walnut Cove high school, sponsored by Miss Claire Eastman, gave its Junior-Senior banquet in the Junior Hall Friday evening at 6:45 p. m.

As the guests entered the portals of the Junior Hall, they found themselves in a miniature setting of Holland.

Through the blend of red, yellow, and blue decorations, one could see the blue and yellow windmills which were placed on small pedestals on either side of the hall. Through the mass of pines, ivy and jonquils, the setting was complete.

After an introduction by Miss Katherine Sisk, the toast mistress, Mr. Carson, the guest speaker for the evening, also superintendent of Stokes county schools, rendered an excellent talk entitled, "Friends."

The other guests besides Mr. Carson were Mr. and Mrs. Green, Mr. and Mrs. John Neal of Meadows; Mrs. Howard Johnson, and the high school faculty.

The program was as follows:

Tandy Bennett Dies Suddenly In Greensboro

Tandy Bennett, 66, died suddenly Tuesday at 3 o'clock in Greensboro at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. G. Cooper, where he had gone Monday for a visit.

He was born February 16, 1874, in Stokes county, the son of Tandy and Jane Bennett. He had lived in Winston-Salem for 15 years, five years in Rural Hall and the earlier part of his life in Stokes county. He was in the contracting business until his health failed. He was a member of the Primitive Baptist Church.

He was married to Miss Elizabeth Moran. She died 25 years ago.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. E. G. Cooper of Greensboro; Mrs. Earl Flinchum of Roanoke, Va.; and Mrs. J. Frank Southern of Winston-Salem; three sons, R. J., of Winston-Salem; J. R., of Spencer, Va.; and F. H. Bennett of Burlington; nine grandchildren; one brother, Lee Bennett of King, Route 1; and one sister, Mrs. Ellen Tuttle, King, Route 1.

Pilot View Farm Going In For Milk

R. T. Calloway, progressive young farmer, proprietor of Pilot View Farm, Tobaccolville, Route 1, was here today. Mr. Calloway is intensely interested in the milk and dairy business, which he considers the salvation of tobacco growers in this day of price crisis. He is building a silo 25 feet long and seven feet deep under his barn driveway, that will accommodate seven cows. He already owns four cows and will purchase three more. Recently Mr. Calloway made his daughter, Miss Edna Rogene, a present of a fine cow, and Miss Rogene, like many of the splendid and attractive young 4-H club girls in the county, will capitalize on this lucrative and pleasant dairy and milk business.

G. C. Alumni Banquet

Mrs. Nellie M. Taylor attended a meeting and banquet of the Guilford College Alumni held at the Cavale Cafeteria in Winston-Salem. Dr. Clyde A. Milner, president of Guilford College, was principal speaker.
