SENATOR CHOICE UP TO STOKES

STATE BOARD OF ELECTIONS GIVES THIS COUNTY RIGHT OF SELECTION OF REPRESENTATIVE FROM STOKES-SURRY IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY—YOUR TICKET WILL VOTE FOR MARSHALL, HAUSER OR KIRBY—THE LAW IS CITED—SURRY WILL NOT VOTE, BUT WILL TAKE STOKES DECISION.

The State Senator from the 23rd district of North Carolina, which comprises Stokes and Surry counties, will be selected solely by the voters of Stokes county.

This decision comes from the State Board of Elections in a letter to Robert A. Freeman, chairman of the Surry county Board of Elections, in which the State Board rules that by reason of the agreement between the executive committees of the two counties of Surry and Stokes, it will be the time for Stokes county to furnish the nominee for the Senate, and for that reason the candidates will not be voted for in the primary in Surry county, and their names should not appear on your county primary ballot.

This decision of the State Board of Elections also applies to Republican candidates for the Senate from Stokes and Surry.

So when you vote for Stokes-Surry senator your ticket will read:

DEMOCRAT:

William F. Marshall, O. H. Hauser, Dallas C. Kirby.

Luther J. Fowler, Republican candidate for Senate, will not run in the primary.

In rendering its decision the State Board of Elections cites the following law:

"Section 26 (a)—that in all State Senatorial Districts composed of more than one county, in which it has been the custom to concede the right to nominate the Senator to one county of the district, by a plan of rotation or otherwise, and in which such plan was followed in the primary election of 1936, the same shall remain in full force and effect until terminated as herein provided."

The law provides that this agreement shall be terminated by the executive committees of the several counties of the district.

Jewel Priddy, 44, Dies

Leaksville.—Jewel Grant Priddy, 44, died at 6 o'clock Sunday afternoon, April 21, at his home on the Stoneville road, following an illness of several months.

The funeral service will be conducted this afternoon (Tuesday) at Clear Springs Baptist Church in Stokes county and interment will be made in the church cemetery, where his wife was buried seven months ago.

The service will be conducted by Elders J. M. Fagg of Winston-Salem, J. W. Brown of Rural

BIG INDUSTRY FOR WALNUT COVE

WORK BEGINS ON MILK RECEIVING STATION—MARKET FOR STOKES AND EIGHT OTHER COUNTIES IN THE SALE OF MILK

Walnut Cove, April 24.—Work was begun this week on the construction of a milk receiving station. In addition to serving as a milk market for Stokes county milk producers it will also offer a market to farmers living in eight other nearby counties.

A brick building 36x60 feet is being erected and when completed will have equipment installed capable of receiving, cooling and storing 3,000 gallons of milk daily.

The business men here realizing the need of milk marketing facilities in this area began the movement several weeks ago in cooperation with County Farm Agent J. F. Brown and L. F. Brumfield, county agent at large, together with county farm agents, agricultural teachers and other farm leaders in this and nearby counties.

The building will be leased, equipped and operated by Coble Dairies of Lexington who will purchase its entire output of milk.

The present milk route in Stokes county, which is taking milk from approximately 100 farmers to the Coble Dairies, Lexington, will divert its volumes to the plant here.

Plans are underway for the organization of seven to eight additional milk routes which will serve approximately seven hundred farmers in Stokes, Rockingham, Surry, Yadkin, Forsyth, Guilford and Caswell counties, also Henry and Patrick counties in Virginia.

According to County Farm Agent J. F. Brown, this plant will offer farmers in this area an unlimited market for what is commonly called "barnyard" or "shadetree" milk. It will be purchased in small or large quantities to be picked up daily by route trucks and can be produced under average farm conditions. The only requirements are that the milk reach the receiving plant sweet and clean.

The milk will be weighed and tested for percentage butterfat in a well-equipped laboratory here. Cooling and storing tanks, receiving and weighing equipment, conveyers and milk can washers will be erected along with other equipment of the plant.

Hall, Watt Tuttle of Danbury and G. W. Wood of Leaksville. He is survived by the following children: Mrs. Nina Smith of Walnut Cove; Mrs. Olie Mehalco, Leaksville; Mrs. Annie Laurie Nelson, Winston-Salem; Frances, Betty Jean, Odell and John Priddy of the home.

(An Editorial.) CLEAR THE TRACK

Governor Hoey's Stop-Roosevelt move may be compared with a Jersey bull's collision with a Twentieth Century limited running on a fast schedule, behind time but "coming around the mountain."

The Governor is quite entitled to his preferences. The people concede him this privilege but will not go with him, however, in his choice for our next President. The corporations, our big bankers, the super-privileged, may, but the COMMON MAN will stall.

The citizens of North Carolina greatly admire Secretary Hull. They do not love him the less, but Roosevelt the more.

Our Raleigh chief executive was presented with an opportunity to accept gracefully and with his accustomed tact, the brilliant courtesy of a complimentary vote in the national convention of Democrats.

But the people of North Carolina who are 90 per cent. for Roosevelt for a third term, and who have so signally honored our Governor, were not quite prepared for his gratuitous disparagement of our choice for the next President of the United States.

The people of North Carolina esteem Roosevelt as the greatest President since Jefferson. They do not relish a slap at him even from one whom so many of them went down the line to elect in 1936.

Governor Hoey enjoys outstanding influence among the Democrats of the State, but they do not yet concede that his prestige and power and personality, nor his position as titular head of the party in the State, are equal to the feat of stopping Roosevelt. The nation itself, if we read the signs of the times aright, is deficient in qualities for such an epochal undertaking.

Essaying this accomplishment some of the "big shots" have tried, we might mention Garner and others whose balloons exploded in air, then settled quietly to the forgetting earth.

Senator Lee of Oklahoma a day or two ago, while delivering a speech to the Young Democrats, said:

"Make no mistake. The people want Roosevelt. I believe he will serve again, but it is up to you to make the next move. It is not a question of does Roosevelt want another term, but do we want a third term. Every preferential primary has said ROOSEVELT."

What are "terms of office" measured by worth, value, service, accomplishment?

What great company fires its executive because he has succeeded?

What is the fiction of the "unwritten law" of "terms of service" when a man is at the helm who has the judgment, the poise, the wisdom and the courage to guide the ship of state as the world reels in the terrors and agony of war?

John H. Folger has made no mistake in accepting the captaincy of the bold boat that rides the onrushing tide of Roosevelt.

Nor have the citizens of the State erred in selecting Folger for leader of the Third Term draft. He is a man of the people, sincere and unalterable in his devotion to the common weal, and a man of spotless integrity, keen vision and unclouded judgment.

The voice of the people is the voice of God. Individuals often err, but the PEOPLE are usually RIGHT.

The verdict of the people of Stokes is 97 per cent. ROOSEVELT. Other straw votes in the counties of the State will echo the same verdict where the COMMON MAN may speak his sentiment.

And so, how shall you stop Roosevelt?

BAILEY CALLS COUNTY CONVENT'N

DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN SETS SATURDAY, MAY 1 TO ELECT DELEGATES TO STATE CONVENTION—PRECINCT MEETINGS WILL BE HELD ON SAURDAY, 17th.

B. P. Bailey, chairman of the Stokes county Democratic executive committee, is this week issuing a call for Democrats of the county to meet at the court house in Danbury on Saturday, May 11, at 2 o'clock P. M., to select delegates to the State Democratic Convention which meets in Raleigh on Friday, May 17.

Chairman Bailey also calls precinct meetings in the county for Saturday, May 4, for "the purpose of organizing."

Death of Miss Patty Hill In Hospital

Miss Patty Hill, 68, passed away at 1:45 o'clock Monday night at a Winston-Salem hospital.

Miss Hill was the daughter of the late Caleb and Sallie Rierston Hill and sister of the late Mrs. N. O. Petree. Miss Hill had lived in the Petree home for the past 25 years.

She is survived by an aunt, Mrs. Ada Gentry, of Huntington, W. Va., and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from Danbury M. E. Church at 3 o'clock. Elder J. Watt Tuttle was in charge with Rev. T. H. Houck assisting. Burial was in the family cemetery at Danbury.

Miss Pattie was a splendid Christian character, and will be missed by her many friends at Danbury and other sections of the county.

She was taken ill 2 weeks ago, and was carried to a Winston-Salem hospital last week. Physicians found her condition serious. An operation was performed Monday night. She died under the operation. W. G. Petree and daughter, Miss Hazel were with her in the hospital until her death.

Mrs. Wm. Flinchum III

Mrs. William Flinchum, of the Piedmont Springs section, on Danbury Route 1, is seriously ill, and has been taken to a Winston-Salem hospital.

'FRISCO IS ON A HEALTHY BOOM

NEW RESIDENCES GOING UP—ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER COMING IN—A NEW STORE, AND A PRESBYTERIAN MANSE.

There is no finer section and no finer citizenship than Big Creek township, Stokes county, and it is interesting to note the new life and the new expansion at Francisco, the capital of Big Creek.

J. H. Ward and Fred Christian from Francisco stopped over a short while Monday. They were on a business trip to Winston-Salem.

"Francisco is on a boom," the Reporter was told by Mr. Ward, a citizen of that section.

New residences are being built by Clyde Collins and Graham Francis.

The Duke Power Co. is coming in with electric light and power. A new store by Paul Fulton and Claud Priddy has opened, and it is a popular stopping and trade center of the community.

Then the new Presbyterian manse to be occupied by Rev. L. F. Cowan and family, is to be early built. Mr. Cowan is pastor of the Dan River, Danbury, Sandy Ridge and other Presbyterian churches of the county. Mr. Cowan will be stationed at Francisco, which is in the community of his work. The center of the Presbyterian work is at Danbury, but as no lot could be procured at the county seat, the selection was made for Francisco.

The improved school at Francisco forms a nucleus around which it is certain that a town will be built.

Broughton's Manager In Town

Lawrence MacRae, manager in Stokes for Broughton for Governor, was in town today. Mr. Macrae is now actively engaged in promoting the interests of his friend, Mr. Broughton.

TEACHERS MEETING

A meeting of the teachers and principals of all the schools in the county will be held at the Danbury school building Saturday at 10:00 o'clock.

Mrs. N. E. Pepper went to Winston-Salem today.

Can you stop the rush of the wind through the forest?

Can you dam the flood that comes down the valley bearing all before it?

Can you still the voice of countless thousands who have been snatched from hopelessness, want and despair, to find encouragement and opportunity in the face of universal gloom?

Why can't you stop this man—this man of destiny?

Because he is the champion of the rights of the COMMON MAN.

And God must surely love the COMMON MAN, else he should not have made so many of them (us)
