NOTICE
In The Superior Court ORDER

Stokes County, North Carolina.
W. H. Davis and wife, Margaret Davis Vs.
The Federal Land Bank of Columbia

It appearing to the satisfaction of the court from the affidavit of W. H. Davis, one of the plaintiffs in the above entitled action, that Jos. Dickson Kelly is a necessary party to said action, and that, if the said Jos. Dickson Kelly is deceased, his heirs, devisees or other persons claiming by or through him are necessary parties, and that all other persons claiming an interest in said action be made parties, and that, after due diligence, the plaintiffs in said action cannot ascertain the names of any such heirs, devisees or parties in interest; that the said Jos. Dickson Kelly or other such parties, cannot, after due diligence, be found in the State of North Carolina; and that it further appearing to the satisfaction of the court from the affidavit of the said W. H. Davis and from the complaint filed in said action that a cause of action exists in favor of the plaintiffs against the said Jos. Dickson Kelly, his heirs, devisees or other persons claiming an interest by or through him; the said action being to quiet the title of the plaintiffs and to be declared the owners in fee in the mineral rights and incidents thereto in a certain tract of land on Old Field Creek, near the town of Walnut Cove in Stokes county, North Carolina, containing 122 1-2 acres, more or less, the said claim of ownership of the plaintiffs being based upon peaceable, undisputed, open notorious and continuous adverse possession of the said mineral rights and incidents thereto, adverse to all other persons for more than thirty years prior to the bringing of the action; the plaintiffs claiming all the mineral rights and incidents thereto, as set out in a certain deed executed by J. E. Marshall, guardian to W. B. Willis recorded in Book of Deeds No. 33, page 74, in Register of Deeds' office of Stokes county, North Carolina, and deed executed by J. E. Marshall as an individual to W. B. Willis, recorded in Book of Deeds No. 33, page 86 in Register of Deeds' office of Stokes county, North Carolina and all subsequent grantees to said mineral rights and incidents; and further, said action being to establish the plaintiffs' rights and title to such incidents as the buildings and other necessary properties in and upon the premises necessary for prospecting, operating and developing the said mineral rights in said lands as set out in the aforesaid deeds, and to segregate and partition the properties and rights of the plaintiffs in and to said property.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ordered that summons be served on the said Jos. Dickson Kelly or his heirs, devisees or other persons claiming by or through him and all other persons who claim or have an interest in the subject matter of said action by notice published once a week for four successive weeks in the Danbury Reporter, a newspaper published in Stokes county, North Carolina, setting forth the title of the action, the purpose of same, and requiring the said Jos. Dickson Kelly, his heirs, devisees or other persons claiming under, by or through him and all other persons who claim or have an interest in the subject matter of said action, to appear at the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court, of Stokes county, in the court house in Danbury, North Carolina, within twenty days after the 1st day of September, 1940, and answer or demur to the complaints.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in said newspaper concurrently with the said notice and as a part of said publication.

This 31st day of July, 1940.
J. WATT TUTTLE, Clerk Superior Court.

NOTICE SERVING SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION

In The Superior Court North Carolina, Stokes County.
W. H. Davis and wife, Margaret Davis Vs.

The Federal Land Bank of Columbia.

The defendant, Joseph Dickson Kelly, his heirs or others claiming by or through him, and all persons claiming an interest in the subject matter of the above entitled action will take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced and is now pending in the Superior Court of Stokes county, North Carolina, the plaintiffs alleging and claiming ownership in fee to the mineral rights and all incidents thereto for prospecting, developing and operating the said mineral rights in and to a certain tract of land on Old Field Creek, near the town of Walnut Cove in Stokes county, North Carolina, containing 122 1-2 acres, more or less, described in deeds to W. B. Willis recorded in Book of Deeds No. 33, page 74 and 86, respectively, and in deed to Joseph Dickson Kelly, recorded in Book of Deeds office of Stokes county, North Carolina, the said claim of ownership of plaintiffs being by virtue of their undisputed, open and notorious possession of the mineral rights and incidents thereto in said lands under known and visible lines and boundaries, adverse to all other persons for more than thirty years prior to the bringing of this action and to quiet their title, and to aggregate and partition from the surface rights in said lands such incidents to plaintiffs' mineral rights as buildings and other properties in and upon said lands as are necessary appurtenances to said mineral rights; and the said defendants will further take notice that they are required to appear at the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Stokes County in the court house in Danbury, North Carolina, within twenty days after the 1st day of September, 1940, and file a written answer or demur to the complaints in said action or the plaintiffs will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaints.

This 31st day of July, 1940.
J. WATT TUTTLE, Clerk Superior Court.
