BOYS OFF FOR FORT BRAGG

THIRTEEN STOKES COUNTY DRAFTES ENTER TRAINING — TAKE GREYHOUND BUS AT WALNUT COVE, ACCOMPANIED BY BEST WISHES AND GOODBYES OF FRIENDS — MORE TO GO SOON, SAYS ELLINGTON.

Thirteen Stokes county boys left Danbury at 8:30 o'clock a. m. Wednesday for Fort Bragg to enter training and become a part of the vast army of at least two million men that America is preparing in its gigantic defense program.

Accompanied by Clerk A. J. Ellington, of the local draft board, and a few other citizens the boys were whisked away in automobiles to Walnut Cove where they entered a Greyhound bus.

The list of boys who left Wednesday is as follows:

Ralph Alesandera Kapp, King.
Noel Clifton Dodson, Sandy Ridge.

Robert Gray Smith, Tobacco-ville.

Robert William Morton, Pine Hall.

Trossy William Flynt, German-ton.

Glenn Robert Tilley, Francisco.

Raymond Franklin Neal, Wal-nut Cove.

Hobart Lyonel Joyce, Sandy Ridge.

David Lee Reid, Walnut Cove.

Dallas Anderson Cromer, Dan-bury.

Woodrow Love Southern, Ger-manton.

John Henry McHone, Lawso-nville.

Clarence Amos, Sandy Ridge.

At Walnut Cove they were met by Paul Fulton and Dr. Helsa-beck, who representing the Amer-ican Legion, presented each boy with two packs of Camel cig-arettes and good wishes for their trip. The boys greatly appreci-ated the courtesies shown them. They went by Winston-Salem where they were expected to change cars for special buses awaiting to convey them to Fort Bragg.

The required enlistment under this call was 14 men, but owing to the critical illness of the wife of Georgia Millard Joyce of San-dy Ridge, he was excused tempo-rarily, leaving the number en-training at 13.

A. J. Ellington, clerk of the draft board, says another con-tingent of boys will be sent soon pending instructions from the war department at Washing-ton.

Mullican Mentioned For Commissioner

N. S. Mullican of Meadows township, Stokes county, is mentioned for highway commissioner of this district to succeed Hoey-appointed Hackett. As Stokes has never enjoyed a fair deal in the highway system, having been at all times a red-headed step-child standing out in the cold, Mullican's appointment would doubtless assure this county of at least a recognition among the counties that have fared sumptuously. Governor Hoey, who at all times was concerned primarily about his political fences, and forgot those who had contributed to him their "best" for those whom he considered the most "potential," now gives way to a greater Governor—a man far-seeing, broad-sided and all-considerate, from whose policies the State should profit. Let us hope that Governor Broughton will recognize Stokes in his appointments for positions of usefulness for this neglected section of the State.

Death of Mrs. Ada Craddock

Mrs. Ada Alice Craddock, aged 62, wife of Harbour Craddock, died Saturday night at the home, Stuart, Va., Route 3.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at the home. Burial was in the family graveyard near-by.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. George McHone, Lawsonville, 1; Mrs. Hardy Atkins of Stuart, Va., Route 3; and Mrs. Ellis Bowman of Lawsonville, Route 1; and five sons, George and Roy Craddock of Stuart, Va., Route 1; and Sam, Oscar and Robert Craddock of Lawsonville Route, 1.

Kenneth Handy Dies

Kenneth Wayne Handy, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Handy, Lawsonville, Route 1, died Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, at the home, after a brief illness.

Surviving are the parents and grandparents.

The funeral was held at Oak Ridge Baptist Church Monday. Rev. J. A. Joyce and Rev. T. G. Williams conducted the services. Burial was in the church grave-yard.

Fine Set-Back Players

The Reporter receives a tele- phone message from the CCC camp stating that R. F. Ormand and Capt. Frank Walker have es- tablished themselves as the champion set-back players, hav- ing defeated all opposition. It is charged by the losers that Or- mand used mental telepathy, which enabled him and his part- ner to be consecutively victorious. It is stated that the two cham- pions will seek wider fields for their skill, not being interested any more in the CCC and park service playing.

ISRAEL A. HAUSER DIES AT KING

FLUE IS RAGING—THE STORK PUTS IN A BIG WEEK—KING DEFEATS WALNUT COVE AT BASKETBALL—OTHER NEWS

King.—Where the mountains begin,—Jan. 23.—Israel A. Hauser aged 80, died at his home four miles south of town Friday morn- ing. The deceased is survived by three sons, Robe and Bascom Hauser of Winston-Salem and Arthur Hauser of Tobacoville. Four daughters also survive. They are: Mrs. Ernest Sprinkle, Mrs. Arthur Kirby and Mrs. Ern- est Owen of Tobacoville and Mrs. Silas Lane of Pinnacle. One brother and two sisters are left to mourn their loss, Las Hauser of Pinnacle; Mrs. Bob Davis of East Bend and Mrs. Nannie Cromer of Winston-Salem. There are 33 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren surviving.

The funeral service, which was conducted at Mount Pleasant Church Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, was preceded by a brief service at the home. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. R. S. Helsabeck, who has been undergoing treatment at the Twin-City Hospital, Winston-Salem, has returned to her home on Dan River street.

Harvey Pulliam, who holds a position at Portsmouth, Va., has moved his family there.

While it has not reached an epidemic stage, there are a num- ber of cases of influenza in this section.

Robert G. Smith and Ralph Kapp are the first draftees to be called for service from King. They left Wednesday for camp.

Oscar Boles of Radford, Va., formerly of King, was a week-end visitor here.

Rev. David Weinland is confined to his home on west Main street by illness.

Mrs. Claudia Tuttle, who has been undergoing treatment in a Winston-Salem hospital, is suffi- ciently improved to be removed to her home in Rural Hall.

Edwin Caudle of Winston-Salem was among the visitors here Saturday.

Herbert Marshall, who holds a position at the new powder plant at Radford, Va., spent the week- end with his family here.

Mrs. Lula Pulliam is conva-lescing from a capital operation in a Winston-Salem hospital.

The stork put in a very busy week again, being re- corded. They are: Mr. and Mrs. John A. Grubbs, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. Arlis Burge, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. Warden Moore, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. Landis Newsum, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hunter, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Moser, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. James Hill, a son and to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, a son.

J. A. NEWSUM LEADING FARMER

MR. NEWSUM HAS MOST MODERN DAIRY BARN IN COUNTY — DEHORNING DEMONSTRATION WITH J. L. MITCHELL — OTHER NEWS FROM COUNTY AGENT'S OFFICE.

Farmers having trench silos are highly pleased with feeding results. Cows fed silage are healthy, slick, smooth-haired and give a good quantity of milk in the summer time. Farmers having three or more cows are advised to see a trench silo be- fore all silage has been fed. Ask the farmer how he keeps his cows looking so good on half feed—sil- age is the answer.

F. R. Farnham, dairy special- ist of State College, was in Stokes county four days last week. Meetings were held and farms visited over the county.

Mr. Farnham advised farmers to protect their cows from the cold rains, winds and bad winter weather by keeping them in well bedded lounging sheds. He also advised to feed a balance feed, good hay, silage and give plenty of water to the milk cows. This will keep them healthy and in good milk production. Water is the cheapest feed given a milk cow but is the most important since milk is 87 per cent. water. Some farmers water cows only on the land. We congratulate Mr.

J. A. Newsom, who lives west of Walnut Cove, now has the most modern dairy barn in Stokes county. He has a concrete milking section to his new barn, hay fork and a lounging shed for his cows. A manure spreader is used to get the barn yard fertilizers once per day which is not enough. Newsom on his forward step. J. S. Dalton, Pine Hall, has the largest herd of milk cows. Mr. Dal- ton has a trench silo.

A dehorning demonstration was given on the farm of J. L. Mit- chell, Walnut Cove. Mr. Mitchell has some fine Guernsey cows.

J. R. Forrest, of the Francisco community is feeding his milk cow silage. "Silage allows me to cut feed cost," he stated.

BANG'S DISEASE ERADICATION PROGRAM STARTED IN STOKES

We are about to begin testing for the eradication and control of Bang's Disease in Stokes county. The work is in charge of Dr. L. Krawitz, veterinarian. Farmers are urged to cooperate with Dr. Krawitz.

Bang's disease may be un-noticed among cattle except for the fact that cows fail to carry full-term calves, neither do they readily breed. Such cattle are non-profitable and good dairymen will do well to rid themselves of aborting or sterile cows.

Fresh cows, infected with the disease, pass the bacilli out of the body through the milk. These bacilli when the diseased milk is

Marjorie Pepper Asks You to Enlist In the March Of Dimes

The 1941 infantile paralysis campaign, which began on Jan. 13, will close Jan. 30, next Thursday. I have been appointed commu- nity chairman here by Mrs. Thomas Preston, who is chairman of the county.

I have placed dime boxes at the following places: The court house, Mrs. Sisk's store, the post-office, Booth's Cafe, Danbury Motor Co., J. R. Leake's store, and the Quality Service Station.

Coin cards have been placed in the classrooms at Danbury school and some have been mailed to in- dividuals in and around the com- munity. Those who have received these coin cards are urged to re- turn them to the community chairman before Jan 30. Those who did not receive cards and would like to contribute to this fund, which is to help sufferers from infantile paralysis, may send their contribution to me and I will forward all funds re- ceived to Mrs. Preston, county chairman.

MARJORIE PEPPER,
Community chairman.

Stokes Road To Be Resurfaced And Regraded

Among the nine road projects announced by the State highway system to be let to bidding Jan. 30 is 3.5 miles between German- ton and S. 311.

Undulant fever is a disease in man known as Undulant Fever.

The symptoms of Undulant fever are very much like "flu or cold" but the disease is not so easily cured. High fever, weak- ness and nausea are prominent symptoms, and in such cases milk from diseased cows is in- crminated as the source of ill- ness.

COUNTY AGENT.

NEWS OF THE WORLD WAR NO. 1

THE 67 MEN ORDERED TO LEAVE FOR TRAINING CAMP TODAY NOTIFIED NOT TO LEAVE TILL FRIDAY, SEPT. 21—ONE HUNDRED MORE MEN SUMMONED — THIS STATEMENT COPIED FROM REPORTER'S OLD FILES OF 1917 — OTHER ITEMS OF TWENTY-SEVEN YEARS AGO

The following paragraphs are reprinted from the Danbury Re- porter's files of September 19, 1917:

After the sixty-seven drafted men who were scheduled to leave today (Wednesday) for Camp Jackson had been notified to ap- pear here yesterday, a telegram was received by the local Exem- ption Board from the Adjutant General changing the time of their departure for camp to Fri- day, Sept. 21st. The men were immediately notified of the change, but a good many of them who did not get the second notice in time reported here yes- terday.

The Local Board has the full forty per cent. of men ready and they have been notified to report at Danbury by four o'clock p. m. tomorrow (Thursday.) They will be kept here and cared for until Friday morning, when they will be sent to the railway station at Walnut Cove where they will en- train for Camp Jackson at Colum- bia, S. C. Only white men will be sent in this forty per cent.

The third call for men who reg- istered in Stokes was made yes- terday by the county Exemption Board when one hundred more men were ordered to appear be- fore the Board in Danbury for physical examination on Septem- ber 25th, 26th and 27th of next week. Thirty-four men were or- dered to appear on next Tuesd- ay, 25th; thirty-three on Wednesday, 26th, and thirty-three on Thurs- day, 27th.

The county Exemption Board has already certified more than our quota of 168 men to the Dis- trict Board as eligible for mili- tary service, but on account of the fact that a number of the men have been, and others will be, re- leased by the District Board, it is necessary to that the county Board secure a few more men in order to be ready to supply our full quota of 168 men when they are called for. The local Board feels that fully enough men will be secured from the call which was made yesterday.

Following are the names of the persons who failed to pass the physical examination when called to Danbury on Aug. 22, 23 and 24 for examination and who have been discharged by the Exem- ption Board on that account:

W. Luke Amos, Sandy Ridge.
Alvis Beasley, Peter's Creek, Va., Route 1.

Coy Ernest Bennett, King.
