THIS WEEK IN DEFENSE

President Roosevelt sent a special message to Congress saying "we stand, as we did in the closing months of 1915, at the beginning of an upward swing of the whole price structure," and asked authority of set ceilings for prices and rents, to purchase commodities when necessary to assure price stability, and to deal more extensively with excesses in installment credit.

He said the "facts today are frighteningly similar" to the situation in the last war when the wholesale price index increased 140 percent between October, 1915, and June, 1920. In the past 60 days whole sale prices have risen more than five times as fast as during the preceding period since the outbreak of the war in Europe, he said.

"The whole production machinery falters under inflation," he said, and "the unskilled worker, the white collar worker, the farmer, the small business man and the small investor all find that their dollar buys ever less and less."

The Bureau of Labor Statistics announced its index of prices as of July 26, stood at 85.3 percent of the 1926 average, 15 percent above a year ago. Price Administrator Henderson said the crisis in the Far East necessitates a price ceiling on raw silk and may make necessary a ceiling on tin prices. He asked dealers and consumers not to pay prices for high grade waste paper above those prevailing July 26, "pending an investigation of the price structure."

Economic Defense

President Roosevelt created an Economic Defense Board consisting of Vice President Wallace, Chairman seven Cabinet members, and such additional members as Mr. Wallace may select. The President said the new Board will formulate the nation's international economic policy, coordinate the economic activities of defense agencies and plan for post-war reconstruction.

Foreign Affairs

The President ordered the freezing of all Japanese credits in the United States and extended the order to Chinese assets to protect China against Japanese use of assets controlled from occupied China. The President also placed the Army and Navy of the Philippine Commonwealth within the command of the armed forces of the United States, and named Gen. Douglas MacArthur former Chief of Staff, commanding general.

The State Department protested the dropping of bombs by Japanese planes near the U. S. Gunboat "Tutuila," and announced the incident closed after the Japanese Government promised full investigation and reparation. Acting Secretary Welles denounced Germany for its note to the Mexican Government with regard to the blacklist recently issued by President Roosevelt and for the Nazi Government's reported threats of reprisal.

Aid to Russia

Lend-Lease Administrator Hopkins arrived in Moscow to discuss expediting of needed war materials to the Soviet Union and the Russian Military Mission conferred with President Roosevelt and the State Department. Acting Secretary Welles said Lend-Lease aid has not been discussed because the Russian Government can purchase needed materials with cash.

Tax Anticipation Notes

The Treasury placed on sale at Federal Reserve Banks tax anticipation notes intended to help taxpayers set aside sufficient money to meet increased tax bills of the coming year. The notes are redeemable in cash or as payment for income taxes and bear interest up to 1.92 percent. Secretary Morgenthau, in a letter to all banking institutions, said "It is important that the taxpayers of the nation become aware of the unprecedented taxes they will have to pay next year's income, and they should be engaged to set aside funds now with which to meet those later payments."

Army

The war Department created five air support commands in order to coordinate the activities of aviation units and ground forces. The Department announced the Signal Corps has developed electrical sentries that warn of invadi aircraft "long before they are actually sighted," but said the Army needs 500 men from the radio engineering field to learn to operate the secret devices.

War Secretary Stimson sent 1,000 airplanes and 10,000 air Corps officers and enlisted men will take part in maneuvers stressing coordination of ground and air strength in the Beauregard, La., area from Sept. 1-30, in the simulated warfare between 50,000 men of the second and Third Armies, and in the First Army maneuvers to be held in the Carolinas, Nov. 3-30.

Oil

Defense Petroleum Coordinator Ickes recommended 100,000 gasoline filling stations in the following States be closed from 7 P. M. to 7 A. M. every night beginning Sunday, August 3: Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, District of Columbia, and "all marketing areas in or east of the Appalachian mountains in the States of New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and West Virginia." He appealed for a voluntary one-third cut in consumption and said he hoped closing the stations in Eastern States nightly "plus the voluntary curtailment will be enough to put us across."

Priorities

Director of Priorities Stettinius issued an order freezing all stocks of raw silk because of "unsettled conditions in the Far East." Mr. Stettinius announced a new plan to grant blanket preference ratings to projects which must be completed promptly. He issued a limited preference rating to 40 manufactures of mining machinery and to 75 producers of cranes and hoists needed by

Agriculture

OPM Director Knudsen told Agriculture Secretary Wickard farm production. The Office of Price Administration revised its allocation program to increase storage space for farmers for the current grain harvest by increasing the quantities of steel and zinc for grain bin construction.

OPM announced plans to increase the scrapping of worn out-out automobiles by 1,000,000 tons a year, and said one car provides enough scrap for a light cannon, and 20 cars, enough for a tank. OPM asked zinc producers June production during August to set aside 27 percent of their for an emergency pool, and said the supply of fabricated alloy steel for aircraft manufacture will be tripled before the end of next year.
