We have just been informed that we will be unable to furnish either Austrian Winter Peas, Vetch, or Italian Rye Grass, as conservation materials this year and producers who have not put in their full Soil Building practices to earn their maximum payment this year they may place their orders before September 15 for Limestone and Superphosphate to make the remainder of their units and some few will be able to obtain Winter Legume Seed from local dealers if their orders are placed immediately.

Marketing Cards will be ready for the producers about September 1 and the County Committee intends to bring these cards into Communities for delivery and at the same time take orders for Limestone and Phosphate from farmers who have not earned their maximum payment for 1941, also it is hoped that each farmer will begin making plans for the coming crop year with Soil Building Practices so that the committee can assist them in executing their Farm Plans for 1942 and thereby holding down the expense of another trip.

The farmers who have not made all their units for 1941 are again reminded that September 15 is the last date on which we will be able to accept orders for limestone and Superphosphate and they are urged to place their orders immediately.

Tobacco Highest Since World War

Leaf Averaging Thirty Cents In Border Belt—Stokes Farmers Expect Big Prices For Light Crop

Stokes tobacco growers, now finishing curing a good but light crop, are expecting big prices when markets open Sept. 16.

Sales on the Carolinas Border Belt tobacco markets continued yesterday with prices around 30 cents a pound—highest since World War days.

Markets reporting less than a 30-cent average said a large quantity of inferior quality tobacco was on hand, and this poor tobacco might cause the general average to drop although prices would hold firm.

Reports from Border markets: Fairmont, N. C.: 1,069,954 pounds for an official average of 30.78.

Whiteville, N. C.: 1,206,424 pounds for an official average of 32.11.

Lumberton, N. C.: 831,904 pounds for an official average of 30.41.

Fairbluff, N. C.: 206,420 pounds for an official average of 32.22.

Tabor City N. C.: 219,553 pounds for an official average of 30.66.

Lake City, S. C.: 799,594 pounds for an average of 28.48. Sales at Lake City were the heaviest of the season, with 2,000,000 pounds on the floors. Total sales for the season have been 3,257,556 pounds for an average of 25.38.
