A two story modern poultry house has been completed by C. B. Hall of Quaker Gap community. He has about 2,000 high bred Barred Rocks and New Hampshire Reds in the modern henry. It is ventilated from both sides. A feed room on first floor and storage celler for eggs.

There is also another two story poultry house on the Hall chicken farm. The entire flock is culled, tested for disease, fed a balanced ration and cared for in the most up-to-date way. Other farmers having modern two story poultry houses are R. S. Redding, L. C. Slate, Joe Johnson, B. P. Bailey and R. S. Robertson.

W. C. White, Walnut Cove, has opened his silo and started feeding silage to his cows. He states the cows are doing fine on the canned corn. They have already improved in milk production. For milk cows, silage can't be beat!

A fine hay mixture may be had by mixing together 1 1-2 bushels of oats, 1 bushel barley, and 1 peck of wheat, 15 pounds winter peas and 15 pounds vetch. For best results, sow this mixture soon as possible.

Milk prices are still going up and so are feed prices. Silage is a good milk producing feed. It will aid in cutting feed cost. If you have some corn which is still practically green, store it as silage and feed it to your cows. A trench or box silo can be built for a few dollars and may be made in a couple of days.

T. F. Calloway, King, has purchased from Cox's Dairy, a fine registered Gurnsey bull calf.

During the past week and this week, 4-H club members in the county have been busy fitting their pigs and calves for the 4-H Pig and Calf show. The animals will be exhibited at Hylton's Trading Stable in Walnut Cove from 10 a. m. until evening on Saturday, October 4. Poland China gilts and Gurnsey and Jersey heifers will be shown. Of course, not all of the animals in the county will be shown but some excellent animals will be exhibited. If you have a heifer we hope that you will boost livestock in Stokes county by bringing out your animals and let your neighbors see what you have. It is a good way to advertise—"A lighted candle cannot send forth its rays if put under a bushel."

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wall and Mrs. R. R. Kink accompanied Clifford King to Christiansburg, Va. Sunday.

THIS WEEK IN DEFENSE

Navy, Ships

Fourteen new ships were launched in "Liberty Fleet Day" ceremonies held at shipyards on Saturday, September 27, at Baltimore, Md., Los Angeles, Calif., Richmond, Calif., Portland, Ore., Quincy, Mass., Chester, Pa., Kearny, N. J., Pascagoula, Miss., Seattle, Wash., and Wilmington, Del. The Navy announced launching of the battleship MASSACHUSETTS, three minesweepers—SUMMIT, GUIDE and IDEAL, and the submarine chaser PC515.

Aid to Britain, Russia

The Navy Department announced 15 British and Free French warships currently in United States ports, and said 12 others already have left U. S. ports where they had put in for repairs or supplies. The War Department said 59 officers and enlisted men of the British armored corps are studying American methods at the Army Armored Force School at Fort Knox, Ky. Treasury Secretary Morgenthau announced the Soviet Government has already repaid in gold "a little more than half" of the $10,000,000 advanced by the U. S. Treasury to Russia in August.

Production

Assistant Attorney General Arnold, speaking at Yosemite, Calif., said "there is not an organized basic industry in the U. S. which has not been restricting production...to avoid what they fear may be ruinous overproduction after the war...they have concealed shortages by optimistic predictions about supplies."

Mr. Arnold also said "a few strategically located labor unions" were costing the American consumer one billion dollars a year through labor restrictions on production by strikes and boycotts for illegitimate purposes, price-fixing, restricting labor-saving devices, elimination of small competitors and owner operators and "tying up huge industries in the struggle to determine which of two unions shall dominate the field."

Small Business

Director Odium of the OPM Contract Distribution Division announced between 100 and 200 offices to help small shops and businessmen get defense work will be opened soon. Already scheduled are offices in Hartford, Conn., Providence, R. I., Youngstown, Dayton and Columbus, O., Indianapolis, Ind., Rochester and Albany, N. Y., Portland, Me., Springfield, Ill., Springfield, Mass., Trenton, N. J., Wichita, Kan., and at Harrisburgh, Wilkes-Barre and Allentown, Pa., will be enlarged and the present 39 offices of the abolished Defense Contract Serv-

MARTINSVILLE

Martinsville, Va.—Martinsville's tobacco market yesterday handled 97,584 pounds, bringing $30,544 for an average price of $31.29 per hundred pounds. With an abundance of common leaf handled, individual piles continued firm on all top grade, starting at $40.

STONEVILLE

Stoneville.—The Stoneville tobacco market sold around 65,000 pounds yesterday for an average of about $33.50 per hundred. Some tobacco brought as high as $62 and many farmers received $41 and $42 per hundred for their entire loads.

MADISON

Madison.—Two Madison warehouses sold 91,262 pounds of tobacco yesterday for an average price of $34.67 per hundred pounds while the other disposed of 50,000 pounds for an average of $33.47. Approximately one-third of the tobacco sold was of inferior grades. Wrapper brought from $50 to $69 per hundred lbs.

REIDSVILLE

Reidsville.—The Reidsville tobacco market sold 197,600 pounds yesterday for an average price of $31.88 per hundred pounds. All grades are selling higher than last week. Reidsville sales Monday averaged $32.71, the highest official average of the season.

Mrs. W. E. Joyce had as weekend guests W. E. Joyce, Jr. who is now stationed at New River, N. C., and Mrs. Bess Haynes, of Athens, Georgia.

Ice will continue to operate he said.

Mr. Odium asked 56 major defense contractors to appoint "farming out" directors to cooperate in spreading defense work among smaller firms. He also announced defense contracts with aluminum war companies forced to abandon civilian production by shortages and priorities. Contracts such as these to avoid community hardship can be negotiated up 15 percent above minimum prices, performance bonds can be waived and bid splits allowed to enable pools of small firms to obtain contracts for "bits and pieces."

Army Preparedness Status

Assistant War Secretary McCloy, speaking in Jackson, Mich., said the U. S. has an army and an air force" in the sense that one is in process of production...some of its elements are prepared to meet any foe...yet that army is just becoming an army..."

He said the army has its full amount of the fundamental weapons—rifles, bayonets, machine guns, artillery, grenades—but does not have its full equipment of light and medium tanks, anti-tank and anti-aircraft weapons. He said there is sufficient equipment.
