DOPE FIEND SLASHES WRIST IN JAIL HERE

A. F. WYATT, BLUEFIELD, W. VA., MAN WITHOUT BOND IN TWO CHARGES

A. F. Wyatt, Bluefield, W. Va., who has been in jail here for the past week on charges of shoplifting and shortchanging merchants at Walnut Cove, yesterday made an attempt to end his life by cutting his wrist with a razor blade. Deputy and Jailor Burke Smith says Wyatt is the worst victim of dope he has seen in his fifteen years experience at the jail.

The prisoners in the jail called for help upon discovering that the man was attempting suicide. Dr. R. H. Moorefield was summoned to the jail where he bandaged the wound and gave morphine which relieved the patient.

Sugar For Canning To Be Issued

For convenience of citizens of Stokes county, to save gas and tires, applications will be received at following times and places for canning sugar. One member of family unit should bring all Sugar Ration Books for entire family and should be able to answer definitely how many quarts of fruits or other canned products requiring sugar were canned in 1941 and how many remain on hand now. Canning sugar can be used for no other purpose and any excess must be returned and accounted for. A close checkup on this will be enforced.

Those who have already secured their certificate for canning sugar need not appear at these meetings:

- Pinnacle school—June 24, 8 a. m. to noon.
- Reynolds school—June 24, 1 p. m. to 5 p. m.
- Francisco school—June 25, 8 a. m. to noon.

STOKES ASKED TO GO OVER TOP WITH USO

(Contributed—
Stokes county's USO quota is $700. The quota hits every one of us. Who is there who hasn't a son, a husband, a brother, a grandson or a nephew in the armed forces? We are asked to contribute $700 to maintain clubs for the soldier's wholesome recreation. These clubs are supervised by men and women of character and stability. The boys can entertain their mothers, sisters and friends in the USO clubs. The boy "far from home" gets a taste of real home life in the USO Clubs. If you have not been asked to contribute, see your chairman. All of us have said since the start of this war, "what can I do to help?"

Most of us have said, "I want to help." How can we help? Give to the USO. Let each of us bear his proportional part. We need your contributions. Give today, so that we can rejoice with those counties who have already gone "over the top."

GIVE GERMANY A JUST PEACE

The German People being particeps criminis in the most appalling crime of the world's history, will not escape the responsibility which is theirs.

The German people must be given a just peace. That means that their nation, its people and its entire resources, must pay the bill.

The German people may expect that they will lose this war. This is inevitable. And they may be prepared to abide the consequences of their partnership in the tragedy that their leaders, with their acquiescence and their support, have unleashed upon the world.

In the World War No. 1 the allies were appeased and beguiled. The armies of retribution hesitated upon the German threshold, and did not go in.

The allies will not be appeased or beguiled again. They will go in.

The allies know that as long as the proud and arrogant Prussian spirit survives there will be no peace in the world.

Unchain the tiger and he will spring again.

The "superior race" of Huns must be shown that while it is superior in ambition and blood-thirstiness, it is not superior in righteousness, brains, courage or power.

The tiger will be chained and its fangs will be pulled out so it may not spring again upon the unsuspecting, and so that peace and freedom and justice may live upon the earth.

The Nazi leaders, Hitler with his co-assassins will meet the retribution that is the portion of murderers of defenseless women and children.

The German nation will be stripped of its armaments, and the German people together with the Italian, Japanese, Rumanian, Bulgarian and Hungarian peoples must be taxed with the cost of this war for generations to come while allied armies stand at their doors to collect.

The German nation as far as its power to create new horrors in the world is concerned, must be utterly and irretrievably smashed.

The above is in answer to the suggestions already being made in some capitals that the German people are not responsible for Hitler's crimes and should not therefore be punished.

The German people ARE responsible for Hitler's crimes and are a party to them. They knew of Hitler's plans as stated in his addresses, his public utterances, his books and his pamphlets. They were fully cognizant and gave their implied as well as express consent. They have backed as well as express consent. They have backed.

They must reap the consequences of their guilt.

The democracies of the world will stand for no other settlement.

The blood and treasure of America and her allies will not be given except for a world peace founded on JUSTICE.

DEDICATORIAL DAY AT M. E. CHURCH IS SUCCESS

W. S. O. C. S. Finishes Another Great Chapter.

(By MRS. DALLAS KIRBY)

Another chapter of the activities of the Woman's Society of Christian Service has been finished and Danbury's Methodist Church is proud of its new pulpit and communion furnishings. Added to the church through the efforts of this society under the leadership of Mrs. Dallas C. Kirby president and Mrs. S. P. Christian and Mrs. W. C. McClesless of the finance committee and the generous aid and cooperation of friends of this church.

On Sunday, June 14th, at 2:30 o'clock, a most impressive and appropriate service was held to honor those whom the pulpit and communion furniture were donated as a memorial.

The day was perfect, one of those clear cool, sunny, June days, for the interested friends that filled the auditorium.

As you entered the vestibule a beautiful program, printed and donated by the J. W. Clay Printing Co., of Winston-Salem was handed you by the Junior Ushers, Bobby Kirby and Jimmy Leake. Also fans were presented by Harold Love gift of Taylor's Warehouse of Winston-Salem.

The visitors were directed to their seats by the Senior Ushers, E. S. Stokes and Joe Martin.

At the appointed hour, with Mrs. J. W. Hall at the piano, softly playing "Traumri" as the prelude, a vespere choir which is composed of all the teen age girls and young matrons of the village was ushered to their places and "O Worship the King" was beautifully rendered followed with a prayer by Rev. J. L. Love, the pastor.

A very appropriate Bible selection was read responsively by the audience, directed by Rev. L. B. Hayes, district Superintendent of Greensboro District.

Judge J. D. Humphreys, one of the favorite sons of Stokes county, an able lawyer, a good friend and a loyal citizen, said Dallas Kirby as he presented the center pulpit chair, the gift of the family and the Stokes Bar Association to the church in his memory. This chair bears a beautiful bronze marker with the inscription "Judge J. D. Humphreys."

Ann Humphreys Marshall, granddaughter, pulled the white satin ribbon which was used as a symbol on all the chairs as a gesture of presentation. At the same time, Barbara Smith, who last fall was acclaimed winner in a popularity contest and was given a beautiful silver cup as mascot of the Woman's Society, dressed as a little Grecian maiden in a long white dress placed a white (Continued on local page)

J. W. FAGG SHOT BY SON-IN-LAW

FAGG GOES TO HOSPITAL, NOT SERIOUSLY HURT—HIS ASSAILANT, DEE BROWN, SURRENDERS AND GOES TO JAIL—OVERPLUS SUGAR FOUND IN BROWN'S QUARTERS.

DeWitt Brown came to Danbury early Sunday morning and surrendered, confessing to the shooting of his father-in-law, John Wm. Fagg, at Fagg's home near Walnut Cove, Saturday night. Sheriff John Taylor locked him up.

Fagg got a scalp wound from Brown's pistol. He was carried to a Winston-Salem hospital, where it was found he was not seriously hurt. The bullet which had glanced his head was not found.

The affair happened long about midnight Saturday. Brown, who with his wife, Fagg's daughter, lived in the same house with Fagg, returned late from Dan River Park.

Driving in the yard, he turned his car and drove up the road a piece. Chickens had been stolen recently in the neighborhood, and Fagg, not recognizing the car of Brown, and suspecting chicken theft, went out in the yard and shot his gun straight up a time or two.

Brown shortly returned. Within the house an altercation occurred between the men, the shooting following.

It is reported officers found 200 pounds of sugar in Brown's room.

Fagg has returned from the hospital and Brown is out on bond.
