PRIVATE AUTO TIRE SEZURE IS INDICATED

ROOSEVELT SAYS WORSENING OF CONDITION MAY MAKE STEP NECESSARY.

Washington, July 7.—With the flat statement that the national welfare must come first, President Roosevelt said today he may have to requisition every automobile tire in the United States if world conditions grow worse.

He conceded at a press conference that the gasoline rationing-rubber shortage problems are inextricably intermingled and that efforts to solve either separately had made little headway. But he said he was attempting to solve both in an effort to save the nation as a whole and he was firm in his statement that neither problem would be permitted to hamper the war effort—not even if tire requisition becomes necessary.

He believed the people are ready to make any sacrifice necessary.

It is still too early for a decision on the necessity of nationwide gasoline rationing as a rubber conservation measure, he said, although the current rubber salvage drive has reached a point where the government is beginning to find out where it stands.

Mr. Roosevelt's comment came when reporters asked whether plans are being considered to restrict use of automobiles to business purposes through gasoline rationing on a nation wide scale.

He said he could give no definite answer and asked newsmen to suppose that the war goes worse or the United Nations and that there is a greater demand upon this country's already-depleted stocks of rubber and gasoline transportation facilities.

If circumstances worsened he said he might have to take over every automobile tire in the country.

He said he was still clinging to the hope that a method will be found to separate the tire and gasoline problems. But the combined problem is so complex at present, he said, that he has found no one person who understands it completely.

CCC ENROLLMENTS IN STATE STOPPED

CORPS IS BROUGHT TO ITS OFFICIAL CLOSE WITH NO FUNDS TO OPERATE ON, SAYS STATEMENT.

All enrollments of applicants to the civilian conservation corps are to be stopped immediately. James J. McEntee, corps director, has wired Mrs. W. T. Bost of Raleigh, State welfare commissioner, thus bringing to an official close a nine-year-old service which during the period had supervised selection and certification of 60,000 North Carolina youths between 17 and 24 to the organization.

T. L. Grier, the state welfare department's selection supervisor for the past six years, said the project had meant a cash return of $14,355,000 to the families of the youths since operations began in April, 1933.

The average number of North Carolina youths serving in the CCC each of the nine years was set by Grier at approximately 7,000. In the last two years since July 1, 1940, a total of 12,890 youths were selected by the 100 county welfare departments acting as local selecting agents for each community, he said, but the last 12 months of the period showed a considerable decrease in the number of applications received in proportion to employment opportunities developing in the defense program.

Although the President had recommended continuance of the corps on a strictly limited basis as an aid to the war program, a committee of the national house of representatives struck out the CCC operation budget from the appropriations bill for the present fiscal period. A senate attempt to give small operating funds to the corps was attempted but was abandoned Monday when the senate agreed to abide by the house version of the appropriation act. The sum of $8,000,000 was permitted to allow liquidation of the corps as projects in which it is now engaged are completed.

Fork, N. C. Man Gives Timely Advice On Tobacco Priming

Fork, N. C.

Dear Mr. Editor:

Tobacco should be harvested when fullest of oil in order for it to cure easily and be rich and superior in quality. Oil does not evaporate in the process of curing like the sap does and remains to give wealth to the weed. Oil and sap (water) do not mix, but come and go at intervals, during the life of the plant. When the sap rises it runs the oil out (oil being lighter) through the pores of the leaf to the surface where it forms a "gum" well-known to all tobacco growers. Tobacco harvested when full of sap will cure badly and be light and inferior in quality.

My father, who lived to a ripe old age, grew tobacco for about 70 years. He found that there are better times than others for harvesting tobacco in order for it to cure up nicely and be good in quality. I shall be pleased to answer any letters from tobacco growing friends, provided postage is sent for reply.

Yours truly,
W. H. DAVIS

The War Front

The "Flying Tigers" of the American Volunteer group were placed under the Army Air Corps command in China and opened their operations with heavy raids on three key Japanese bases at Hankow, Nanchang and Canton. Six Japanese planes were destroyed without loss.

A Navy communique reported Army bombers scored hits on an enemy cruiser and sank a transport in the Aleutian Islands. In addition, Navy submarines sank three destroyers. The situation in the Islands "has not changed materially," however, in the past two weeks, the Navy report said. The Office of Indian Affairs announced all of the Aleutian Islands west of Dutch Harbor, as well as the Pribilof Islands, have been classified as part of a total evacuation zone. The Office said nearly 1,000 civilians have been removed from these areas by the Navy and transferred to the American mainland.

The first communique from U. S. headquarters of the European theater reported six U. S. Douglas light bombers manned by U. S. pilots successfully attacked targets by daylight in German-occupied territory in a joint operation with RAF bombers. Two American planes were reported missing. The Navy said U. S. bombers carried out a second attack on Japanese-held Wake Island. The Navy also announced the U. S. Aircraft Carrier Wasp carried aerial reinforcements to the British Island of Malta in the Mediterranean. Gen. MacArthur's Australian headquarters reported repeated air raids on Japanese-held territory in that area. The sinking of 17 more United Nations vessels by enemy submarine action was announced.

Gen. Campbell said the so-called "new German 88-MM. Gun" is "about as secret as a Daisey water pistol. It has been known
