Who's To Participate in Elkin Fat Stock And Wool Show & Sale

Elkin. — (Special — Approximately $1,400 will be used for premiums on beef cattle, hogs, wool, and other necessary expenses of the Elkin Fat Stock and Wool Show and Sale which is to staged here October 14-15 under the sponsorship of the North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service and the North Carolina Bankers Association, in cooperation with the Elkin Kiwanis Club, the Elkin Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the Elkin Merchants Association.

Premium lists for the event were prepared by L. I. Case, in charge of Animal Husbandry Extension, and E. V. Vestal, Animal Husbandry Extension Specialist, both of the North Carolina Extension Service in Raleigh. The premium lists, contained in an attractive catalog, is being distributed among farmers, 4-H Club members, F. F. A. Member, and Agricultural students in the 12 counties embraced in the show area.

The show is being arranged by the Elkin Agricultural Council made up of representatives from local civic clubs, as follows: J. O. Bivins, E. W. MacDaniels, Merchants Association; T. F. Cooley, R. W. Harris, Garland Johnson, Kiwanis Club, and C. H. Farrell and John Kennedy, Junior Chamber of Commerce. Also cooperating are the 12 county agents: George Hobson, Alexander county, Taylorsville; J. B. Snipes, Wilkes county, Wilkesboro; R. A. McLaughlin, Yadkin county, Yadkinville; Neill Smith, Surry county, Dobson; Roy Crouse, Ashe county, Jefferson; Harry Hamilton, Watauga county, Boone; F. R. Smithwick, Iredell county, Statesville; Max Culp, Caldwell county, Lenoir; R. W. Pou, Forsyth county, Winston-Salem; R. E. Black, Alleghany county, Sparta; E. S. Stokes, Stokes county, Danbury; and D. C. Rankin, Davie county, Mocksville.

Officials for the show and sale are well known throughout North Carolina. Dr. J. E. Foster, Agricultural Extension Service, Raleigh, is auctioneer for the event, W. A. Neaves, vice-president, Chatham Manufacturing Co., Elkin, is to serve as show and sales manager and R. E. Black, Alleghany county agent, as co-manager, R. A. McLaughlin, Yadkin county agent, is sales supervisor. Cattle, swine and wool supervisors are J. B. Snipes, Wilkes county agent; Neill Smith, Surry county agent, and Earl M. Hodel, Chatham Manufacturing Co., Elkin, respectively. In addition to the Fat Stock Show, there will be a registered Guernsey heifer sale at the Liberty Warehouse in Elkin on October 12. R. A. McLaughlin, Yadkin county agent, will direct the sale, and has already obtained definite consignments from several of the best Guernsey farms in the State.

The purpose of this show and the sales are to further stimulate interest in the growing of more and better livestock and to place this section of North Carolina in position to meet the rapidly increasing and critical demand for a more adequate supply of beef, pork, mutton, and milk.

ONLY "C" HOLDERS ELIGIBLE FOR NEW TIRES

Press dispatches indicate that only holders of "C" gasoline ration books will be eligible for new tires. Holders of "A" and "B" books may only secure Grade 3 tires, which are in the main rebuilt or recapped tires. Less than ten percent of the cars in Stokes are entitled to "C" ration.

Hundreds of tire applications are now on file with the board and indications are now that October and November quotas will be low.

Car owners are urged to care for their tires by driving slow, driving less miles and keeping all tires properly inflated and recapped or repaired when needed.

"A" GAS BOOKS TO BE RENEWED

Beginning sometime early in October, dates to be later announced, all passenger car owners will be required to make application for the new "A" gasoline ration. The following papers will have to be produced before the ration can be issued:

1. Front cover of old "A" book,
  2. Registration card for the car.
  3. Tire registration record.
- Registration of tires must be shown to be up to date. Car owners should immediately get all these records together so that the new books may be issued rapidly on the dates, which will soon be announced.

SUGAR FOR BEE FEEDING IS NOW AVAILABLE

Applicants for sugar to feed bees this year must file with the ration board. The application is turned over to the Farm Board, which in turn must make investigation as to the actual need of the applicant. Some applications have been made for "bee sugar" when the applicant actually had no bees. Each case will be investigated by the Ration Board, the Farm Board and the War Board.

Pre-Pearl Harbor Dads To Be Reclassified Regardless of Families

(From Local Draft Board No. 1.)

Recent directives from National Headquarters require the classification of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers without regard to their eligibility for a III-A classification. Such registrants who are essential farmers or who are employed in war production or in support of the war effort are in no danger of reclassification. Such registrants whose induction would result in "extreme hardship and privation" to a wife, parent, or child, may be deferred for dependency in class III-D. All other registrants now classified in III-A on account of their family status should not be surprised if they receive notice that they have been reclassified in class I-A.

"The fact that a pre-Pearl Harbor father finds himself in class I-A does not necessarily mean that he will be inducted immediately. Registrants are divided into four groups and all available men from each group will be inducted before men are selected from the next group. These groups are as follows:

1. Men with no dependents.
2. Men with collateral dependents, provided such status was acquired prior to Dec. 8, 1941.
3. Men who have wives with whom they maintain bona fide family relationships in their homes, provided such relationship was acquired prior to December 8, 1941.
4. Men who have children with whom they maintain bona fide family relationship in their homes, provided such relationship was acquired prior to December 8, 1941. (A child born on or before September 14, 1942, should be considered as having been conceived prior to December 8, 1941, and a child born on or after September 15, 1942, should be considered as having been conceived on or after December 8, 1941, and a child born on or after September 15, 1942, should be considered as having been conceived on or after December 8, 1941, unless there is affirmative evidence of a medical character which clearly establishes that birth was delayed.)

"Group 4 is divided into two sub-groups. The first sub-group will be exhausted before any men are called from the second sub-group. These sub-groups are as follows:

- A. Registrants classified in I-A because they left agriculture occupation or because they are engaged in a non-deferrable activity.
- B. Other registrants who are reclassified from III-A to I-A as a result of the current directive. "This means that pre-Pearl Harbor fathers who continue to engage in non-deferrable activities will find themselves subject to induction prior to registrants who are engaged in other employ-

Eighth Grade Student Wins in W. C. High's Popularity Contest

(By High School Reporter.)

On the morning of September 27, 1943, in the new high school auditorium, the senior class announced the winner of their sponsored popularity contest—Miss Willie Lou Harris, in Miss Lillian Dwyer's eighth grade room. Willie Lou is an outstanding student and the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Harris of Walnut Cove.

Lois Loftis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Loftis, who is in Mrs. Hilton's eighth grade home room, gets honorable mention since she was Willie Lou's runner-up in the contest.

The prize for the winner was $1.00 in defense stamps. The money made will go toward buying a curtain and cyclorama for the new high school's stage.

The senior class wishes to express its appreciation for everyone's cooperation.

Tobacco Sells At Fine Prices

Farmers are much pleased at prices they are receiving for their tobacco, which is even higher than last year. The crop is moving to market steadily now.

Court Coming

Monday, Oct. 11, Stokes Superior court begins: Criminal ment. The list of non-deferrable activities contains 118 separate occupations and is on file in every local board office in the State. It is available for inspection by every registrant. It is considered that fair warning has been given to fathers who have dependent children to remove themselves from non-deferrable activities or face the prospect of early induction.
