DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA MARCH 1884

HISTORY OF NORTH CAROLI- of its birth, and VIBGINIA DARE, and therefore can take no more at not collected, and the most of them Ream's Warehouse, has lately associa and the talk is of the subjects we NA. from The North Curolina Educational glish descent to break the silence of was one hundred and forty-two -the of the Treasurer. Journal. BY J. F. HEITMAN.

INTRODUCTORY PERIOD. Chapter III.

The colony conprised eighty-nine dollars. stons beginning of the English set dren, when White sailed for England. ton, willed his estate, subject to a life High School of the Eastern Associa- was made by himself o $250 a front up t. decide the question.

plete knowledge of the country; as it at the threatened invasion of England of young ministers. It consisted of file of the Biblicri Recorder for those sell at that price. of its inhabitants with a greater de- less conspicuous than others in pre- ever realized from this bequest.

bace, to the use of which that people in pursuit of prizes, until at last they guardian definitely limiting the subtile a thing as influence, we would ed publication, gave us for a while I meengainst Mormons who are mabace, to the use of which that people in pursuit of prizes, until at last they guardian definitely limiting the probably find that the crusade for the benefit of his interesting society king converts to an alarning extent, and endowment gave the cause of educa. May a bright era of prosperity dawn. When it was proposed to the Queen aginary virtues, but considered the blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gift of the gods after which they both returned to blant as a gracious gi for the solace of human kind, and the England, and the distres-ed colonists to go to a store unless accompanied schools mentioned above than any Dike, is snother addition to the Dur- Queen said, "gentlemen you who are nost acceptable offering which man received no relief. could present to heaven. The colo- When the Invincible Armada was will be remembered that this was be- of that endowment was lost in the ternists took with them a specimen of r pelled and prace was restored to fore the days of "moral suasion, su- rible convulsions of our Civil War, the new commodity to Fngland, and England, Raleigh who had already gar-plums and candy." aught their countrymen how to use incurred a frustless expense of forty November 27, 1837. John B. forts remain till this day. t, which Raleigh and some young thousadd pounds, found himself una- White. A. M., was appointed Profesnen of fashion fondly adopted. ble to continue his attempts to estab- sor of Mathematics and Natural Phi-A few days after Drake departed lish a colony in the New World; but losophy, at a salary of eight hundred rom Roanoke, with the colonists on though his fortune did, not permit dollars and board; Daniel F. Richmoard, a small vessel sent by Raleigh, him to renew his exertions, he used ardson, A. M., Professor of Ancient with a supply of stores for the colo- the privileges of his patent to form a Languages, at a salary of seven hun- poses to make such a display at the the Revolution. iv, arrived at Roanoke, but on find- company of merchants and adventu dred dollars and board.

ng it deserted by their countrymen, rers to whom he granted large con November 29, 1838, Stephen Morse tive steps are being taken, much en- Wake, a ar the Orange line-close British run at Camden, or how the returned to England. About two cessions, and who it was hoped would was appointed Principal of the Pre- thusiasm shown, and a considerable to Sandy Level Church. When he British made him run at Guilford, veeks later, Sir Richard Grenville continue the enterprise of establish- paratory Department, at a salary of degree of county pride manifested, was sixteen as I have heart him but how the dogs make the sheep rom whose infant wail was the first of En present." The number on the rolls remain to the present day in the safe ted with him Mr. Julius Warren, of have mand, to wit t r ligion and Prospect Hill, Caswell coun y, a gen | colities. Every man without regard From 1848 to 1858 a large number | tleman of extensive means, and fine to order or conditon, sets himself up glish descent to break the silence of was one number over reached till the brown for the gloomy forests of the New World, hargest number ever reached till the session of 1879-*80. In house bistorical character as session of 1879-*80. North Carolina is known in the wri- During 1836 J.T. Graves was em- State. We may mention Oxford Fe- 200 tons "behind their order, and or, Class-leader, or a retailer of the tings of men. / 1 ployed at a salary of six hundred male College, the Metropolitan Fe- working hard every day. male College, the Metropolitan Fe-male Seminary in Raleigh, the Cho-As an evidence of the increased no end to the debate on Feligion or The only good effect this inauspi- men, seventeen vomen and two chul- In 1836 Mr. John Blount, of Eden-Beurah High School at Madison, the co dealer informed us that an offer debate will end, and arms be taken tlements in the new world produced When he arrived there he found the interest on the part of his wife, to the High Schools at foot, for 30 feet of hand on Main The long bloody argument between was that of affording a more com- whole nation in a commotion of alarm Institute, to be used in the education Taylorsville and Franklinton. The Street, and the owner declined to Roman Catholics and Protestants has ceased, and the Protestants are m enabled Hariot, a man of science and by Philip II of Spain, and collecting real estate and slaves, and was estima- increase in the number of schools Mr. Hackney, now sole elliter and contest and rivalry is no longer be years shows year by year a surprising We had, pleasan, greetings from cutting under each other, and the observation, to describe its soil, cli all its force to resist the attack of the ted at from ten to eleven thousand among the Baptists, and that they propriet r of the "RECORDER," hav. tween Roman Catholies and Protect mate, productions, and the manner Invincible Armada Baleigh was no dollars. Comparatively little was were schools of high order, having a ing tately purchase i he i forest of ants, but between Protestant and large number of pupils and giving Mr. Mackay, who retires from j nr. Protestant. Exthey go on to differ gree of a severacy that had heretoffre paring for the d tence of his native. The Board of Trustees enacted a getic teachers. How much of this instrance having several data estant, the Roman Catholies will dome employment to many able and ener nation, to devote his a section to the and divide, I really think as a Press been done by any visitant of Amount of the oniversal ex-duct duct of the uppli s, and do psech uppli s, and d

England. Lane and his as ocidife to contract with usen for the remeford had acquired a relish for the Indir Ts his suffering colony at Roan ke. Bu avorite enjoyment of smoking to they desiring a gainful voyage, run avorite enjoyment of smoking to they desiring a gainful voyage, run by some member of the Faculty." It other one thing. Of this we may be ham press. X. sure, that, notwithstanding nearly all the beneficial influences of those ef-

L. R. MILLS, TORCH LIGHT BLAZES.

coming State Exposition as will be My Father was Thomas Ross, he tect the sheep? I do not wish to tell intellig nt and well informed, meet this ignorant man in debate, con-OAK GROVE TOWNSHIP. vince the people and silence him." We have able as well as numerous Durham County, March 10th, 84. preachers, let them meet the Mormons Mr. Editor. - You asked me so masa the late Judge Black did Col. Bob ny questions when I was in town yesterday, that I am at a loss how to an- A PROTESTANT NOW AND FOREVER.

No. 2.

I was pleased to read the account you published of the Leather's fami CEDAR FORK FORK FOWNSHIP, Mar. 26 Our neighboring town of Hender- iv, and it called to mind what I have Joe. Turner :- In the name of Pan. son, always so full of public spirit, pro- heard my Eather say, of the war of the God of all the shepherd , what are you and the public men doing to pro-surpassed by no other county. Ac- came from Granville, and settled in you how my Gran I Father made the

URHAM, NorthCarolina.

Y FRIENDS AND PATRONS

irn to you my many thanks for your patronage during my shore exa the Warehouse business while I was of the firm of Lea & Lockhart. so since I have been by myself. I flatter myself that my past your Commission Merchant for the sale of your tobacco entrust multile ' me to a liberal share of your patronage in the past. close application to my business that you will continue to at least a portion of you; crop. I advocate the principle that the sts of the planter, and warehousemen are the same what effects the in t and welfare of one effects the other. Therefore if there was nothing a bat Alf interest, that alone would induce me to get the top of the marke T vour tobacco. The quality of tobacco this year is very inferior as you well know, but th tices paid has been uniformly higher than I have ever known them on thi

Many of the patrons of the Durham market are carrying their tobacco ther markets without consulting their best interest, which would be to bring here

The advantages and facilities for handling your crop is better than it ha ver been. Capital is pouring in from every quarter. The trade of our manufactures has largely increased, and while Durham has sold more tobacco this year up to this time than has ever been sold any previous year, ou manufactures will be forced to be your tobacco on other markets, and pay "Xpenses of getting it here.

insult your best interest and "self preservation" which the first law of a carry your tobacco to soarket where there is a local emand for > king Tobacco Factory in the United States is located stare strining to be second if not first on the list. n that I make just here, as I do not say it s been reports circulating designed to effect our in purpose, that our market is financially weaker than acilities that are not surpassed any where in North the business done liere, the two can control over one New World. That life and proverty a have two manufactures of smoking tobacco, the Black abacco Company, who manufactures from 6 to 8 tobaco annually whose estimated worth is from two dollars, another W. Duke Sons & Co., from 500,000 to a rato say nothing of other large factories in successful operation. me to a market that consumes as much tobacco as any two the state make, besides large orders are held here from arers from other states for all grades.

ragon and drive to the Banner Warehouse where you will get and high prices, and when you see big advertise ents about rices tell them Lockhart did not open his her until the 16th when the year 1884 closes he will be at two head of the list averages if not he will be near enough to brush the dust off in front of him.

ekharts warehouse and he will show you that he does his blow A hotel proprietor once said to a patron of his house who elvertise that puffs was better on the table than they were . The money in your pockets is better than so much blowing Load your wagon and never stop until you get under Lock in circulat the Banner Warehouse. hart's shed ppeared with three ships laden with ing a colony in Virginia, (March 7, eight hundred dollars. And on the which is always commendable. Sev- say, Fred Geer of Orange was and bleed in this Township upplies, but after searching in vain 1589). However, more than a year 19ht of December following George ready been held, appropriate resolu- My Father went as a substitute for last year; now he has three. Thurs or the colony which he had planted, had clapsed before White was again W. Thompson, of Wake, was made tions passed, and the county commis- Geer; Geer giving him a horse and day night, March the 20.b. R. J. and without being able to learn what dispatched to the relief of the Roan- Tutor in the same department, at a sioners at their next meeting will no one hundred dollars. Father left the Shipp lost fourteen, Crawfood Green and befallen it, he left fifteen men to oke colony, but when he arrived there salary of six hundred dollars. It doubt levy an appropriation to meet money with his Father to take up and five. Box Marcom lost thirty two. old possession of the Island, and re- he found the Island deserted. It had seems probable that he remained till the expenses of the exhibit.

YOUR FRIEND, J. S. LOCKHART.

turned to England. more wisdom in his next attempt by the place to which they had gone, year 1839. letermining to send out an agri- and if in distress to distinguish it by a cultural colony; and to this, to send cross. White found, cut on the bars of a tree, the name Concour & porter emigrants with wives and families. who should make their homes in the The ship im nediate'y r turn dia might be secure, he granted a chart r England, and the fat of the description of incorporation for the settlement, colonists was never known, and si though Raleh, at his own expensiand establish a municipal government 'or "the city of Raleigh," which was to be built wherever they determined of their existence could ever be disto settle. He appointed John White governor, who, with eleven assistants. was to administer the affairs of the colony. A fleet of three ships was fitted out, and laden with the emi- amalgamated with the Hatteras Ingrants and an ample provision of the dians, who afterwards claimed that implements of husbandry, they sailed, several of their ancestors were white 26 April, 1587, for America.

of Roanoke, but the tenements of the ing among these Indians and no oth former colonists were deserted, hu- ers.

and the fort was in ruins. No human form a colony in Virginia. He asbeing was to be found. The fifteen signed to Thomas Smith and others. men, left by Grenville, to hold pos- the privilage of trading to and colo session of the Island, had been mur- nizing Virginia, reserving one-fifth of instructed the new colony to form cover; and directed their location to their settlement on the Bay of the the Chesapeake Bay as being a safe Chesapeake, but Fernando, the na- and commodious harbor, rather than profitable traffic in the West Indies,

OUR COLLEGE. coast, and White was compelled to remain on Roanoke Island. Lane From the Wake Forest Studeut! had built his fort on the northern ex-The records of the first meaning of foundation of the "City of Raleigh" was lad, vestiges of which are to be Some of the Indians were jealous of the English, and showed their hos-IN ITS FULL SCOPE tility by murdering one of White's dith, A. M., Professor of Mathemat

J. C. Tarier, President, Maj. J. S. James Ross of Kentucky, were in about, give the command-with fixed dred of Alcomed them by esi leut, S. T. Morgan, Kilpatrick's command, and often at bayonets forward marching, and then trong, A. M., Professor o 2. We recommend that our ful 2. We recommend that our for sub-de invested in Confederate bouds, Secretare and Treasury, Eugene More, my house when the Federal army or the innocent useful sheep, will drive na Ligent Languages; Charles Merri-Island of Croatan, and a mutu bearing 8 per cent., and that we pro- head, A. H. Stokes, M. A. Angter, cupied this section of the country. friendship was established and con- am, Tutor of Husbandry. The salary and Sheriff J. R. Blackwell, Capital I did not find out until the war was cal bound from the State. That alay cured them as soon as possible.' of Flder Wait was one thousand dol-In accordance with the foregoing stock limited to $500,000, Cotton seed over that I had been fighting South is forty years in the future. tinued. By the command of Walter lars, board of himself and family, and oil mill to be a tached. A large tan- ern, as well as Northern men. Capes, Raleigh; Manteo, the faithful Indian resolution, Elder J. S. Purefov, Treasurer, invested the following nerv is soon to be established and ex Piters, Strayhorn's Halls, Leathers, house ren.t The salaries of the othchief, received christian baptism, and A rich joke-The one I played on tensive flour mills to be built. The Geers, were names he called as on his Brown. A foolish and witless piec-a er Professors were eight hundred dolfunds in Confederate bonds: was invested with the rank of feudal $35.600 00 Blackwell Durham Tobacco Compa- side in the fight. His neighbors were of tolly-The one that Brown played State Bonds baron, as the "Lord of Roanoke." lars each. The Tutor of Husbandry 7.006 00 ny has contracted for a storage leaf more for peace than war. on me. An obstinate cuss-The man Premium on the same was to receive two hundred dollars. 2.600 00 tobacco house within 70 feet of their I regret I paid so little attention to who will not yield to me. Proper and On carefully viewing their situa-Merritt bequest Elder Meredith did not occupy his Blount estate, Confederate present manufactory 100 feet front, the old man's stories of the war. tion, the colonists difcovered that self-respecting firmness-My refusal 8.710.13 165 feet deep, 5 stories high, W. Put me cown for a copy of your to yield to him. A well'trained child chair, but sent in his resignation Juthey were destitute of many things money Duke Sons & Co., purpose building book, which will be in my opinion +The one that belongs to me. An they deemed absolutely necessary to 1y, 1835. Minus fund, Confederate 500 00 soon a new brick factory on the site of better than a monument to those who ill-manuered brat-The one that bemoney Elder John Armstrong graduated th ir sub-istence in such an uncomtheir present one, 200 feet front, 70 fought for longs to my neighbor. A crank -The man whose views do not coincide with Interest Blount, Mims and the Independence of the fortable situation, and they all joined from Columbian College. He was a feet deep, four stories high, with a country. Merritt tunds, Confederate in soliciting White to return to Eng | man of fine personal appearance, and 364 50 large annex. At the last meeting of Respectfully Yours. money land to solicit the supply on which very considerable ability. He travthe town council it was decided, and a RICHARD S. ROSS. Interest, from endowment, 1.386 91 committee appointed te select the site ... depended the existence of the colony. elled as agent for the College during Confederate mondy to build a mark thouse of appropriate . EDITOR OF TH : THUTH :- I had From a sense of duty and honor the year 1834. He discharged the $56,167 54 dimensions for the growing town. - do abts of the success of y ur pape A telegram from Ogden, Utsh, re-White was loth to leave the people he duties of his chair very acceptably Elder Purefoy was opposed to in- Capt. J. S. Lockhart is now having until yeste day, when I heard three p rts that the case of W. T. Stokes, a vesting in Confederate bonds, So his tobacco watchouse enlarged to working min say this would take it, not rious cowboy, who in November had been appointed to care for and from January, 1835, to July, 1837, thoroughly convinced was he that it double its present capacity. When and they read it with more pleasure last "so of and killed a violinist after govern, but he at length yielded to when he was given leave of absence was bad policy to do so that in spite completed will probably contain more than they had e er read a piper be- a dance for amusement," was to have their importunity, and resolved to re- for two years to travel in Europe. At of positive instructions he held: turn with the ships. However, be- the expiration of his leave of absence State bonds, known as fore his departure, his daughter, El- he sent in his resignation. Cape Fear and Deep River canor Dare, the wife of one st the as- March 10, 1836, the Board of Trus Navigation bonds sistants, gave birth to a female child, the first off-pring of English parents born on the soil of the United States The child was named from the place The child was named from the place sistants, gave birth to a female child, tees passed the following : "Resolved

Owen was elected Professor of Aneight hundred dollars.

members. and, it is said at five different times people and could "talk in a book." In July they arrived as the Island This may account for grey eyes be same salary.

man bones lay scattered in the field. Thus ended Raleigh's efforts to sand dollars.

val officer, who was eager to renew a the dangerous coast about Cape Hat-

....

the Board of Trustees, held May 3, 1834, show : That Rev. Samuel Wait A. M., was elected President and Pro fessor of Moral Philosophy and Gen eral Literature; Rev Thomas Mere and Natural Philosophy; Rev.

to induce immigration and capital to will find upon the pension roll.

Dr. Samuel Wait resigned No . our State, to bring our counties to- My Father's eldest brother was portance to this lownship than the ber 26, 1844. Elder William Hoop gether, so that one may know what the Frank Ross, who moved to Georgia. Tariff, the Exposition, or any quee sent to search for them, yet no vestige er, L. L. D., was elected President of other is doing, and make an inter- George his youngest brother moved tion now tefore the public. Publich the College, October 17, 1845. He change of views a mutual benefit. Suc- to Kentucky. My Mother was La- this, tell us what to do, and obligat resigned June, 1848. Then there cess seems now assured. Many build- cretia Stanly, a daughter of Richa d y ur trend, of their existence could ever be dis-covered. It has been conjectured that, through the friendship of Man-teo, they emigrated to Croatan, and teo, they emigrated to Croatan, teo, they emigrated to Croatan, and teo, they emigrated to Croatan, and teo, they emigrated to Croatan, and teo, they emigrated to Croatan, teo, they teo, they teo, they teo, they emigrated to Croatan, teo, they teo, they emigrated to Croatan, teo, they they teo, they t November 10, 1849. elder W. T. ings at their own expense, which could Preachers I heard my Father talk of Their music of their Walters was appointed Tutor of be done at a small cost, and their ex- were William Farthing and James Bilnd Tom's now. I know no remedy, Mathematics, with a salary of three htbits shows much more satisfactory. Ferreli. Eno and Log Meeting House unless your and your neighbors will hundred dollars. June, 1850. B. W. We hope Granville will move, with were the two churches he mostly talk adopt the Corn. Jun Rob ris p diey Justice was appointed Tutor with the out delay, in the matter, and that our ed of His brother Frank, was also of keeping no dog. In Orange, they commissioners will discuss the subject a Preacher. Father used to tell organize to get the no fence law, by In 1850 Elder W. H. Merritt, of at their next meeting-March 8rd. about the Tories stealing the mill a dozon fencing together. If forty

In 1850 Elder W. H. Merritt, of at their near meaning of meeting in Orange County, willed the College six hundred and sixteen acree of land, which was sold for two thou. We had the pleasure of meeting in gentleman, Col. R. A. Shotwell, editor of our newsiest and most spicy State Lipscomb, the Mayor of Durham. killed lifteen years before yours were.

October 12, 1852, J. B. White re- paper, "The Farmer & Mechanic."- I think it was soon after the sur- If you put the dog and sheep against signed the pressdency of the College, His hospitable greeting, kind expressored of Wallis that the horses were each other in politics, the dog will bot not his chair of Mathematics. J. sions, and a pleasant conversation stol n. The horses were recaptured beat, and the sheep will be left out of dered by the Indians. Raleigh had the gold and silver they might dis- J. Brantley was elected President. mad us sad to think, that one so hand- up the river, and a cave direovered the pale of protection. I must say He declined to serve, and in Decem- some in appearance, so urbane in man where the Tori s ad their plander. you have called on the wrong man, ber, 1852, Elder T. W. Tobey was ner, and so talented in mind, should He often told us of barring out the one who could not protect his sheep, or successfully defend his correspond with him being instructed, poor lone bach lor. We offer our iday Easter Monday. How the teach sonal liberty or property. It is of in case he declined, to tender the po- kind sympathy. er fought and resisted the boys, until misfortune to have lived in in case he declined, to tender the po-sition to elder T. G. Jones. Both de-The accustomed energy of the busy ho slipped under the beach and legged times. Sheep, justice, wild in, good perilou clined At the same time Prof. J. town of Durham seems to increase the old man, and the boys bound him government and truth, have been on more and more. A cotton manufac- fast with hickory withs, and how the the retreat for twenty years, holly B. White resigned. In May, 1862, the exercises of the turing company has been organized old teacher when the holiday was over pursued by dogs, folly, falseh ad and College were suspended. The pas- with a paid up capital of $150,000. whipped him until his hand wa error. sage of the Confederate Conscription Copaatnership consists of Maj. J. S. black from the blows of a heavy fer Gen. Green retreated with a superior.

Bill made all the students except five Carr, and Odell & Brother, who have ule. successfully conducted the manufac I never found out until the war was British lion from South, through North liable to military duty. On the first day of the following ture of cotton goods in Randolph closing who we were fighting. I was Carolina, across the river Dan into November the Board of Trustees re- county and at Concord. One of the astonished to find three of my uncle's Virginia. He recroised the river, put Odeils will make Durham his home Grandson's in a Yankee camp, tread- on courage, showed fight, and the line resolved that :

1 The relation between the Faculty and give his personal supervision to the ing on the soil my Fa her and their began to growl and retreat. business. A coparnership company Grand Father had cleared, cultivated, You and the sheep must no? and Board of Trustees is suspended. and that it would be inexpedient and intend soon to commence the manu- and fought seven years to make free. and stand for a fight, you must crow improper to pay any salary at this fecture of woolen goods, consisting of Yes, it's a fact, John, William, and the river; r cross, reenforce, face he found the Island deserted. It had seems probable that he remained till the expenses of the exhibit. Raleigh is awaiting, with intense acres) which he did, and up in which them lost forties Lost year Red Green turned to England. However, the ill success of the col-ony under Lane did not deter Raleigh rom further effort, but he displayed land, they should leave the name of son resigned during the latter part of line, success seems more certain. We teered and served anot er term or missing. Three hundred dollers had the pleasure of a short interview tower as the old people use to call it. would not pay for the sharp killed by June, 1841, Prof Morse resigned with the President-Mr. W. S. Prim- He was at the stege of Savannah, the dogs in the last few days. Not a and June 13, 1843, William Hays rose, whom we found very civil and He was in South Carolina when Wal- dog has been killed. What's the remcommunicative. The object of the Ex- lis surrendered at York Town. He edy, is there none, most this destruccieft Languages, with a salar of position he stated in brief to be, for was there to keep down the tories, tion of sheep go on from year to year ? the purpose of exhibiting our agricul- there was more in that S ate than in I fear you have dogs more than sheep. At the June meeting in 1844, nise, tees were filled by the election of new

by legislation. That's of more my own. A very intelligent prom -The man who agrees with everything .- [New York Life.

or force before Cornwallis and the floor room than any war-house is the fore. My opinion was a pape hall been decided by the judge on Friday State, 15,000 feet, with most favorable to be religious or political or both to night. A gang of cowhoys, however, lights for showing tobaceo, and a dout succeed in North Carolina, or in any went into court "with three or four $28,000 00 ble set of new scales, and all mode n other State; because the Am rican revolvers apiece," determined "to 500 00 advantages known to the trab. - mind takes in, and comprehends nothe free Stokes at any cost." The sher-