LILIES AND GOLD FISH.

Mr. Duke's Flowers Thrive but the Fishes Die.

Mr. B. L. Duke has one of the finest lily ponds in North Carolina if not in the State. The pond is a beautiful one and is filled with lilies. How ridiculous blossoms, there, I have a car of the Nile. The flowers are large and are of a beautiful orange color early in the morning but they soon faded to almost white when exposed to the sun.

The plants are of such vigorous growth that a huge bouquet can be gathered every morning. Mr. Duke has other varieties of lilies in the pond but the lotus is so luxuriant that the others have little show.

The pond has been filled with gold fish for several years, the pretty creatures living in peace and apparent harmony with the bull frogs and meecasin snakes. Recently the fish have been dying and so many have perished that Mr. Duke fears they have been poisoned. The water is not very deep, however, and the hot weather may have made the water too warm for the fish and thus killed them.

The pond will be drained off this fall and made deeper and some of the lotus lily plants will be taken out. Mr. Duke hopes that making the pond deeper will increase the water supply and the place is naturally boggy and has a few small springs.

JURORS FOR NEXT COURT.

The next term of the Superior Court for Durham County will begin on Monday, September, 5. The following list of Jurors have been drawn:

J. T. Whitfield, Charles P. Williams, J. E. Owen, W. M. Blalock, J. H. Maynor, Van B. Sparrow, B. W. Hobgood, James F. Carroll, L. D. Horner, W. P. R. Almond, D. F. Vickers, J. F. Terry, W. F. Raymond, S. J. Cole, John W. Cole, F. M. Barbee, J. D. Pridden, Moses P. Cole, Charles McGary, A. W. Holloway, H. N. Snow, John F. Freeman, J. T. Ferrell, W. H. Mayton, M. C. Herndon, J. F. Pinnix, J. M. Shepherd, M. G. Lashley, colored; A. S. Blackwood, John W. Pope, E. H. Emery, H. B. Chamberlain, W. L. Rigbee, H. B. Mangum, colored; J. G. Horner.

Picture of Worth Bagley.

Royall & Borden, the furniture dealers, have issued from their Raleigh house a fine half-tone portrait of Ensign Worth Bagley, the hero of Cardenas. The picture is printed on heavy board and makes a souvenir worth preserving. By sending a one-cent stamp to Royall & Borden, Raleigh, N. C., any one can obtain a copy of the picture.

Pay Stations That Don't Pay.

The Bell Telephone concern has put in what they call "pay stations" in Theo. Brown's cigar store and in Miss Yearby's boarding house. The price for using one of these phones is 5 cents but nobody uses them. The Cut Worm management will have to offer a premium instead of asking a fee.

Good Church Music.

Miss Elizabeth Cameron Taylor sang a soprano solo at the First Baptist Church last night, accompanied by a male quartette consisting of W. J. and J. A. Ramsay, T. E. Chee and R. H. Barbee. It was one of the finest musical efforts heard in a Durham church recently.

DURHAM'S DAILY DOINGS.

Dots and Dashes Depicting Life's Details Day by Day.

The annual election of officers for the Choral Society, will take place tonight.

The Cut Worm telephone will not be retained in the office of the Seaboard Air Line.

If all the candidates would subscribe for The Daily Record, how the circulation would grow.

The Bell Telephone Company is not collecting from its subscribers to any great extent. Few of those who have the phone have been asked to pay.

It is a noticeable fact that folks do not talk about the war much now. Durham people have something else to interest their minds, The Daily Record, for instance.

A synopsis of the new national bankruptcy law will be found on the editorial page today. It will be interesting to merchants and those who are engaged in business.

Subscribers are coming into the office of The Daily Record so fast that there is some confusion. If you fail to receive your paper make a complaint, either personally, by mail or through Interstate phone 222.

The suggestion has been made that Durham should have a public market where farmers and truck growers could stay with their wagons and where customers could always find them. It would be more satisfactory all around than the present system of peddling.

The Largest Advertisement.

The largest advertisement ever printed in a Durham newspaper was circulated yesterday with the Morning Herald. It occupied the entire side of a sheet of paper as large as one copy of The Daily Record and told of the bargains offered this week by A. E. Lewith. The same advertisement will appear this week in The Durham Recorder.

Mayor's Court.

Four cases claimed the mayor's attention this morning. Aaron Webb, colored, drunk and down, judgment suspended on payment of costs.

Joe Parker, colored, disturbing the peace; judgment suspended on payment of costs.

Two whites, drunk and down; fined $5.00.

Latest War News.

Spain will accept the terms laid down by the United States and her answer to that effect is expected tomorrow. Roosevelt's Rough Riders sailed yesterday from Santiago for the United States. It is not expected that there will be any more fighting.

George Lyon at Home.

George Lyon returned from camp at Jacksonville, Fla., this morning on the 10:43 train. He is home on a ten day's furlough, but says that he expects to be recalled to join his regiment before the ten days is out. He is looking in the best of health and has a deep tan. Camp life seems to agree with him.

Weather Predictions.
Fair tonight and Tuesday.

JOHN HOLDS COURSE.

The Chinese Laundryman Has Plenty of Company.

John Chinaman, whose real name is Tim Lee and who would be mad if he knew he had been called John Chinaman, whose place of business is at Five Points is not a lonesome man. When he's in the humor to talk and when he has the time to discourse he always has plenty of listeners.

Tim undertook to kill himself some weeks ago or else he accidentally took too much dope. No one knows the facts in the case except Tim and he says nothing about it. He has apparently changed his mind about wanting to die if he ever wanted to and now he washes when he has work to do and visits when he is idle.

Nearly every evening a crowd of boys go to Tim Lee's place and talk to him. They do not understand a great deal of what he says and he does not understand many of their remarks but it is interesting to both sides and all parties concerned enjoy it. The boys sit with mouths and eyes wide open listening attentively as if afraid of losing a single word.

El Capitan in the Choir.

Tom Williams' dog, El Capitan, went to church last night and secured a place in the choir loft of the First Baptist Church. When the organist played the prelude a chord was struck which did not please the musical ear of the dog and he set up a prolonged howl which the heaviest bass the organ could produce would not drown. The removal of the dog stopped the noise but Mr. Williams was still laughing about it this morning.

Five Cents Per Week.

Subscribers who have paid in advance for The Daily Record at the rate of ten cents a week will be credited with an extension of time to make the rate 5 cents. Those who have paid 30 cents will receive the paper for six weeks.

Annual Quaker Meeting.

The next yearly meeting of the Friends' Society, or Quakers, will be held at High Point commencing next Wednesday, August 10. There will be several Quaker ministers from all over the United States present. This is one of the largest Quaker meetings held in this country.

Baptist Sunday School Chautauqua.

On account of this occasion, the Seaboard Air Line will sell tickets to Shelby, N. C., and return, at rate of one fare for the round trip. Tickets on sale August 22d to 24th (and from points within a radius of 100 miles from Shelby,) August 27th and 28th, good to return until September 5th.

For rates and schedule see streamers, or call on ticket agents.

T. J. Anderson, Gen'l Passenger Agent, Portsmouth, Va.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Pencil Pushers Present Points Pertaining to People.

Miss Cora Wood went to Hillsboro this morning.

Dr. John C. Kilgo returned this afternoon from Mourou.

Hackney Bros., will discontinue the Bell telephone service.

Mrs. J. H. Harward left this morning for Chase City, Va.

T. J. Lamb went out in the country near Chapel Hill today.

Mrs. C. H. Norton, who has been ill for some time, is improving.

Rev. J. N. Cole went to Virginia this morning on his annual vacation.

Arthur Christian is able to be out after a severe attack of typhoid fever.

Miss Kempie Carlton has resumed her old position as organist for the First Baptist Church.

Dr. E. A. Yates, presiding elder, went to Oxford yesterday to fill Rev. Mr. Tuttle's pulpit.

W. A. Garrison has served his connection with the Grand Union Tea Company and will join the army.

J. W. Poole, Jr., and wife who have been visiting in Wake county near Raleigh returned this morning.

Robert Thrower, shipping clerk for the American Tobacco Company, spent Sunday with friends in Oxford.

Gilmore Ward Bryant, the conductor of the Durham Conservatory of Music, is spending the hot weather at Bethel, Vt.

Miss Octave Holloway and Miss Lula Knott who have been visiting in the city for some time left for their home in Oxford this morning.

Mrs. P. W. Vaughan and children, Rev. W. C. Tyree and wife, and Miss Maggie Currin, of Oxford, left this morning for the White Sulphur Springs, near Mt. Airy.

L. Parrish, Cyrus Gattis and L. W. Highsmith are soliciting subscriptions to The Daily Record to day. Stop either of them and tell him you want The Record and watch a smile flit over his face.

Tom Howerton has returned from Baltimore where he attended lectures on embalming and the preservation of dead bodies. His stay in Baltimore was pleasant and has made him a much more valuable member of the firm of R. T. Howerton & Son.

A. J. Weatherspoon has resigned his position with the Southern Railway and has bought an interest in the Jourdan Transfer Company. Mr. Nesson, former baggage agent, takes the place of delivery clerk, vacated by Mr. Weatherspoon, and Vernon Smith, day telegraph operator, becomes baggage agent.

Preachers Exchange Pulpits.

Rev. Dr. J. H. McCracken filled Dr. J. N. Cole's pulpit at Trinity Church last night while Mr. Cole took the place of Rev. Mr. Oglesby at the Main Street M. E. Church.

A Useful Novelty.

A very useful and, by far, the most novel thing of its kind is the Laundry List, gotten out by the Seaboard Air Line. The upper portion is an artistic gem, beautifully executed, having attached a number of blanks, one for each week, containing a list of all the articles of the wash, and padded in the form of a calendar. These may be procured, by enclosing five cents in stamps to cover postage, from any of the representatives of the Seaboard Air Line, or from T. J. Anderson, General Passenger Agent, Portsmouth, Va.

Daily Record Phone 222.

Two, utterly two, two. That is The Daily Record's phone number.
