MAKE IT DECENT!

Plenty of Men Favor the Sewerage Idea Just Now.

Say It Is Child's Play to Start on a Cheap Plan.

A COUPLE WHO ARE NOT IN IT NOW

The Majority of Durham's Tax-Payers and Those Who Are Progressive Favor a Decent System.

The talk on the sewerage question goes right along, and we hope the commissioners will wait just a little while before they use the money they have borrowed from Mr. I. M. Reams of course three thousand dollars is not much-especially if you borrow it-and pledge the credit of a municipality for it.

But at the same time, we would like to have the commissioners listen to the citizens who are paying some taxes in the town, and see what the general result is. Yesterday we had a talk and printed an interview with Mr. A. H. Stokes. Mr. Stokes owns property in the city of Durham, and he talks business. He wants to vote bonds and go at things just in the same style as though we are expected to be here next year.

Brodie Duke says to our reporter that a first-class system of sewerage is demanded. He wants a competent surveyor to be employed and make a map of the town and a route. "There is no use," says Brodie, who is himself a hummer, 'to take too many bites at a cherry."

He says they should go at it in a business way and at once. He will favor street improvement at the same time. Like business men who do not pinch dimes, he knows that the proposed scheme been too much money already spent in patching and scratching and digging. We should not commence with less than $150,000, and $250,000 would be better

There are plenty of interviews, but we want people to read what we think. The men who have the money are the men who will pay the bills. Some of the men Mrs. W. F. Ellis and Mrs. W. W. Shaw who have the money, philanthropists like to say or do anything. Rigsbee has Misses Hallie and Mollie Parham, of fought school bonds. A man who is other people to keep at least not higher than his level, while it may be safely asserted that a man who would vote against school bonds would also vote reason for cultivating the intellect, of course cannot imagine why he should keep himself clean.

We expect to show the commissioners that, if they have any regard for the teaching music in Vance Seminary at tax-payers in Durham, they have made a Henderson, will arrive here to morrow, mistake. Apart from that, we propose to show that young men, not so well to do, perhaps, as those who have made money by selling water and calling it whiskey, are also in favor of voting
