DURHAM, N. C.

THURSDAY, JUNE 30, 1892.

THE GLOBE FOR 1892

Will call things by their real names and name them properly.

It guarantees to advertisers more than double the combined circulation of all other papers.

It will continue to tell the truth and jerk the mask off of pious and pretending frauds.

It will not waver in its fight for the development and prosperity of the New South, and it asks the patronage of all honest men.

IT FLIES.

People who have made promises to The Globe to pay what they owed, must remember that time flies. It is a way that time has.

All must come and whack something.

WAIT for the opening of the time lock of eternity. 'Twill soon be here.

GREENSBORO will have the big Fourth of July celebration, and all should go there who can.

TRINITY college is on the way to a grand opening—and then the old town is sure to hum—loud along the line.

Now that the reservoir is full of water those who will think about it and investigate the matter will see that it should be kept full of water.

WE ARE glad to state that BRODIE DUKE and COLONEL BOONE, of North Durham will organize a new party. This will make six parties in the field.

THE prohibition convention is now on at Cincinnati and St. John, it appears will again be placed in the field for president. Wait for the Omaha convention, and the real fun will commence.

THE question of the hour is: Will Mr. LINDSAY stand on the St. Louis platform, the Ocala platform or the Omaha platform? Or, will he get a new platform? This is important.

THE Baled Hay crop is larger this year than ever before. Dr. JOHNSON brought us a tree this morning containing sixteen large and perfect bales, weighing sixty-two pounds per bale.

CLEVELAND has been invited to make a speech at Wilmington—on the sea. He should be cautious. North Carolina voted against him, and Mr. HILL made a speech at Charlotte. North Carolina does not seem to be satisfied yet.

THE real fun will commence soon after TOM SETTLE is nominated for congress. Mr. LINDSAY has gone to Omaha, where rolls the vast dark Missouri down, and when he returns he will have a new platform. Mr. WILLIAMS is at his post of duty in Washington and declares that he will remain in the field if he receives but nine votes.

THE GLOBE does not care about the congressman, but it believes that there should be enough good men—those who have some respect for their political promises, to see to it that WILLIAMS gets there again. Had WILLIAMS turned around and defied the alliance all would have been different.

Such politics will never win. It may have temporary strength, but a party which will deceive and betray one of its members will, upon opportunity betray all its leaders.

A SMART ALECK.

A colored professor who was denied entertainment at a Cincinnati hotel now threatens to sue the management. The fact that he comes from Greensboro adds nothing to the case, as we think a North Carolinian who goes to a prohibition convention should take care not to go where he was unwelcome.

Under the law a negro can stop at public hotels, but under another law no gentleman will attempt to stop where he is not wanted.

And it is in this particular where negroes make themselves ridiculous. If they are the equal of a white man, that is all right, yet a white man very often draws the line between those of his own race. It is a white man's privilege to say whether he wants to associate with a colored man, as it is in these times a negro's right to choose his company.

Apart from the legal aspect of the case, the negro simply made an ass of himself by trying to crowd in where he was not welcome and where he was not wanted.

THE pension appropriation bill was taken up and passed in still shorter measure, although not until some very important facts as to the rate at which the pension business is growing and as to its probable cost within a few years (put at $200,000,000 a year) had been stated by SENATORS STEWART, GORMAN and COCKRELL.

THE above is the report from Washington and it is indeed an astounding proposition. Just how much longer people will submit to the plundering of the national treasury we do not know, but that the frightful robbery should be stopped, all honest-minded men must admit.

TO see the list growing larger year by year, and to know that the politicians make the business plausible and profitable, should suggest to those who are taxed to pay the bills, that it is time to call a halt.

THE fellows who to-day get on the pension rolls are men who have wrecked their systems in other ways than by exposure 30 years ago.

AND the reason we admire CLEVELAND and have admired him is because he believes that robbery is unlawful, and he placed his veto on the dependent beggar pension bill.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., June 26.—Over twenty people were poisoned by eating ice cream that was served at the Angelica cottage this afternoon. All the town physicians were summoned and were kept busy for some time. Boarders at several other small cottages were poisoned also a number of victims were rendered unconscious. The board of health will investigate.

THE "blood of martyrs seed of the church theory" it will, too, go to serve as a horrible warning to people who want the earth for 75 cents and who expect to get wholesome food and respectable apartments at the numberless cheap boarding houses which propose to furnish all that the market affords and all that it does not afford thrown in for less money than the cost of production, to say nothing of consumption.

THE place at which the poisoning in question took place might have been a cheap house and it might not have been. In either case the crime was equally monstrous. The fellow who will run the risk of killing a man rather than lose a dollar's worth of stale cream is a dangerous character and should be dealt with as such.

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 26.—Dr. A. B. ROSE, aged 70 years, one of the most prominent business men of this city, committed suicide this morning by blowing out his brains.

BLEW OUT HIS BRAINS.

That's the way the dispatch reads. And the world is better to-day than it was before the fellow blew out his brains. Phrases are cheap. The fellow had no brains, worth speaking of, or they would never have allowed him such freedom of action with his fingers and arms.

THE truth is that the people who blow out their brains blow out nothing. One day it is some poor fool disappointed in love, and he blows out his brains. The next day it is some other fellow—and if he has brains they are diseased—and why not blow them out?

MANY fellows who might have amounted to something have been taught that sentimental twaddle was all they needed—beyond the grave, and the gun or the poison route has been accepted.

Let all the fools continue to kill themselves and then it will be different. We wise fellows will then be in clover! Speed the day.

AND already some four or five alleged cures for drunkenness are coming to the front. THE GLOBE knows nothing about the new comers in this state. It does know that many imitation frauds throughout the country are killing men by the wholesale. The Keeley is the only one which stands the test of time.

AT RANDOM.

They say that Death is Nature's debt—Man pays her what he owes; Yet if he pays the debt in full No receipt he ever shows.

So this suggests to me like me That Nature does things brown—She boasts a man away there And then "She turns him down."

THE above was not written by any of the presidential candidates who were recently turned down at Chicago.

WE have it upon good authority that COLONEL ALBRIGHT will make a republican street parade this evening. We understand in this connection that SQUIRE ANGLER will stop him on the grounds that our streets are stationary and are not intended to parade. This may or may not be the case.

THE management would like to remark that it went out the other day to pick blackberries. The result was one pint of blackberries and two gallons of Red Bugs. According to the management will not receive Red Bugs on subscription.

COLONEL MOSELEY, of the Durham Supply company, informs us that he will use JOE BALDWIN for fireworks display on the Fourth of July. The colonel is determined to have a grand celebration.

IT might not be out of place to state that CAPTAIN SAM ASHE is revising his book, "BUNYAN'S Pilgrims Progress." He wants to emphasize the fact that most any pilgrim is liable to have bunions, and will suggest that those who can should ride. This will be more like business.

COLONEL POSTLEY'S Pup, which he calls by several names, has been trained perfectly. COLONEL POSTLEY puts a small piece of meat before the Pup, and the Pup eats the meat.

Literary Note.

THE July number of Romance is peculiarly suited to the season. An old-time Fourth of July story by Helen Lee Sargent is one of its features, and tales by Miss Mitford, F. W. Robinson, Edmond About, Alphonse Daudet, Henri Paget, and Ernest D'Herilly figure among its contents. There are also striking original sketches by Lieutenant J. H. Scott, Annie W. Sanborn and A. G. Canfield. Romance is distinguished for its excellent humorous stories, and several appear most appropriately in this hot-weather number. A half-dozen graceful love-stories vie with them in amusement and interest. Two ghost-stories, several thrilling narratives of adventure, the exquisite pathos of "The Siege of Berlin," and the delicate drollery of "The Wizard of Plaisance," combine to make the whole issue one of extraordinary merit and attractiveness. The magazine is issued by Romance Publishing Company, Clinton Hall, Astor Place, New York. The price is 25 cents a number; subscriptions, $2.50 a year.

A Fine Chance to Get a Home at Low and Reasonable Prices.

THE Trinity Land company who, it will be remembered, bought the T. B. Lyon land near Trinity college only a few weeks ago, have already had the property laid off and platted into nice streets and lots, and are now ready to sell the lots to any person desiring to build. It is the intention of the company to build up a nice community out there. Lots will be sold reasonable, as it is not the purpose of this company to try to make a fortune out of it. For prices, etc., apply to J. B. Warren, general manager, or C. A. Jordan, secretary and treasurer.

ONE WORD!

I come to you with a small affair that you may need. In England, the Continent and many foreign countries, myself and wares are well known. Many American families on their return from abroad bring my articles with them, for they know them pretty well, but you may not be one of these.

Confidence between man and man is slow of growth, and when found, its rarity makes it valuable. I ask your confidence and make a reference to this Journal to indorse that confidence. I do not think it will be misplaced.
