this morning.

Mrs. J. S. Carr and Miss Lida left on season train for Raleigh.

Rev. R. H. Lambeth, of Greenville, on last night in the city.

Mrs. W. F. Cole arrived on last evening train from a visit to Cary.

Mrs. T. B. Farthing went over to Dutch Creek today, to visit her mother.

Mrs. B. L. Duke and Miss Annie Roney turned from New York today.

Read D. T. Swindell's reward in this issue. He talks business to you.

George Lougee, who has been up the road on business, returned today.

Miss Lida Carr while out riding last evening lost a valuable hair comb.

Mr. J. H. Moffitt has accepted a position with D. T. Swindell as cashier.

Do not fail to read the announcement of the W. A. Slater Co. in this issue.

President Winston stopped over last evening en route from Raleigh to Chapel Hill.

The town lock up is being put in shape for winter, the windows have been glazed and the cells painted.

Mr. H. A. Foushee left on the early train this morning to attend the U. S. court at Greensboro.

Mrs. Ada Smith has just returned from the north, where she bought a beautiful line of goods. See ad elsewhere.

Rev. C. M. Billings left this evening for Burlington, where he will spend tonight, and leave tomorrow morning for his home in Mt. Cross, Va.

Col. Pat Lunsford issued a marriage license to Clarence Cole and Miss Kelly, of North Durham. Also to Ed Croom and Miss Emma Horton today.

Carrie Taylor the damsel from the eastern section of the city who was charged with selling whiskey without a license, was carried to Greensboro this morning for trial.

Wright Medlin has finally gotten the "D. T." He had a fit this morning and had to be confined in the lock up until he can be turned over to the county authorities.

Rev. J. L. White came down from Asheville today, and will assist Rev. Mr.
Ivry in the protracted meeting being held at the First Baptist church. He reaches tonight.

Jerry Markham, colored, leaves this evening for Asheville, where he goes to get married. Jerry will not have much to say in regard to his trip. He is one of Mr. B. N. Duke's servants.

Mr. A. Horton, accompanied by his two daughters, left on the mail last evening to attend a wedding in the city. Wednesday night. They are the guests of Mr.
C. E. Upchurch on Main street.

Mr. John Purnell yesterday evening received a message stating that if he wanted to see his sister alive for him to sneak out, that she was very low with the fever. She lives near Raleigh.

One of the new phones was put in the city yesterday and connected with the central office over Heatt & Farthing's store. A great many used it last night and pronounced it a success.

Chief Police Williams reports that the town treasury was swelled to the amount of $300.40 for the month of September.
The boys will have their fun, and they will of course pay the bill for it, if it is a little less.

There were twenty five deaf and dumb children on the west-bound train yesterday on their way to Morganton. In a short time all the deaf and dumb will be at that place, leaving the blind at the institute at Raleigh.

Mrs. Lucretia Farthing, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. T. S. Christian, on Mangum street, fell over a bird cage this morning in her yard, breaking the large one of her left wrist. A physician was summoned immediately who bandaged the wrist. She is 76 years old.

S. Jourdan tells Globe readers in this issue that he has opened up a first class very business on Morris street, in the old street car stables, where he will be found ready to wait on any of his many friends. Mr. Jourdan is well known in Durham, and we wish him success in his new business.

There will be a musical recitation given by Miss Annie DeG. Peay, assisted by Misses Blanche Morgan, Lillie Parrish and Mr. W. K. Yates, October 4, at Stokes hall. This will be for the benefit of Trinity church, and should be well patronized by all. The admission will be only one fourth of an American cart wheel.

Last evening at the home of Miss Minnie Arp on Vickers Avenue, a delightful party was given. There was quite a number of young people present and all enjoyed themselves hugely.

Mrs. Ada Smith, in today's issue talks to the people in her ad. Read it and see what she has to say. Her store is on Main street, in the First National Bank building, opposite Ellis, Stone & Co.

The Globe today goes into 1,500 homes in Durham. There will not be a family in the city anywhere who will not have a copy of it. The price of THE GLOBE has been reduced to 35 cents a month. Anyone who is not a subscriber and wants the paper will only have to drop us a postal and we will call and see them.

THE W. A. SLATER COMPANY.

They Elect New Officers and Start Out for Business.

There is nothing that gives THE GLOBE more pleasure than to chronicle the success of Durham's business enterprises.

It is our pleasure to announce today the completion of an organization that means a great deal for the people of Durham. We refer to The W. A. Slater company, whose announcement appears in our columns. Ever on the alert for the advancement of the interests of their customers, Messrs Slater and Sneed by one bold stroke forged a long step forward in progressive merchandising. The alliances they have just formed with northern houses enables them to offer unusual inducements in their special lines. They have associated with them in the management of their business here Mr. T. J.
Petzer, of Concord, N. C., an "old-timer" in the clothing business. Mr. Slater has been elected president of the company, Mr. Petzer, secretary and treasurer, and Mr. Sneed, general manager.

We bespeak for them the continued confidence of the public.

"Jane."

Has had the most remarkable and successful career of any comedy-farce entertainment in recent years. That seems rather a broad statement to make, but the plain facts will substantiate it. Four years ago "Jane" was imported to the Madison Square theatre in New York, from London where it had already completed a highly prosperous year. At the very hottest time of an unusually hot summer, "Jane" made her bow to the New York public and convulsed an audience that sat in melted collars and found themselves finding compensation in the novelty and brightness of the new piece.

After four months in New York, "Jane" went on the road, making a tour to the Pacific coast and then back to New York for another long engagement. The comedy has enjoyed four extended New York engagements and it hasn't worn itself out yet. "Jane" will be given here tonight with a carefully selected cast at Stokes hall.

That Joyful Feeling

With the exhilarating sense of renewed health and strength and internal cleanliness, which follows the use of Syrup of Figs, is unknown to the few who have not progressed beyond the old time medicines and the cheap substitutes sometimes offered but never accepted by the well informed.

For the sporting man!

Berry & Co will rent you guns as cheap as you want them, either by the day or week. Go and see them, as his is headquarters for such articles.

W. M. Yearby, druggist, recommends Johnson's Oriental Soap for all skin and scalp diseases, eye and sturgeon and the complexion. W. M. Yearby.

The death of the young lady in Chicago while in the operation chair being made beautiful, should be a warning to some people.

Announcement!

To THE PUBLIC:—
Today marks an epoch in the history of this store. The firm of A. Frank passes out of existence and in its stead rises the W. A. Slater Co.

Our desire has been to give the people of Durham and vicinity a men's outfitting establishment complete in all its details; an establishment formed on broad and liberal principles and it is a pleasure for us to announce that in the reorganization of this business, among other improvements, we have entirely eliminated the middle man and stand before you today manufacturers.
Connected, financially and otherwise, with one of the largest and most successful clothing manufactories in this country, we offer to the public the opportunity to purchase direct from the manufacturer, thereby saving to themselves the middle man's profit.

A word as to our policy—This store will be run in the interest of the buying public, and every principle and action will be to the looking forward to the building up of a grand and enduring business. With this end in view, we invite your co-operation and confidence.

REMEMBER THAT I AM AGENT FOR THE

PARAGON OIL CAN

Which I loan to customers Free of Charge who buy oil in five gallon lots. I have just received three hundred of these cans and want to put them out among the oil consumers of this city in the next thirty days. If you want one apply early. There are over two hundred and fifty of them now in use in the city and are pronounced to be the best thing in the way of an oil can ever invented.

It would be useless for me to try to tell you all the advantages of looking me up before you make your purchases when in need of goods, either wholesale or retail. All I can say, if you want to save money it will pay you to come around to the Racket Grocery, on the corner of Mangum and Parrish streets, and see for your-

MADE LIFE A BURDEN.

Miss G. F. CRAWFORD, of Limestone, Me., writes: "For years I suffered monthly from periodic pains which at times were so acute as to render life a burden. I began using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I used seven bottles in as many months and derived so much benefit from it and the home-treatment recommended in his Treatise on Diseases of Women, that I wish every woman suffering in the same way, may be induced to give your medicine and treatment a fair trial."

"Favorite Prescription" is a powerful, invigorating tonic and a soothing and strengthening nerve, purely vegetable, perfectly harmless. It regulates and promotes all the proper functions of womanhood, improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and vigor. For every "female complaint" it is the only remedy so sure that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't cure, you have your money back.

To the Voters of Durham County.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Durham County, N. C., and I pledge to all if elected to perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability, free and impartially.
Yours truly,
W. J. CHRISTIAN.

DIVIDEND:

On Friday, October 5, 1894, we will pay to the creditors of W. T. Blackwell a dividend of 10 per cent on the presentation of their claims at our office.
W. S. HALLIBURTON,
Trustees of W. T. Blackwell.
