CLOSING OUT SALE OF

MATTINGS

Commencing at 12½ cent goods worth 18 cents.

In conclusion we invite everybody to attend this special sale, which is for Monday only. The main attraction, of course is the White Goods. We can truly say that we will never again be able to offer the same opportunity.

ICE WATER AND PALM FANS FURNISHED TO ALL.

Don't forget Monday. Don't forget Ellis' Special White Goods Sales. Don't forget that you will buy goods for 15 cents that are worth from 25 to 40 cents. Don't forget that we will open at 5 o'clock sharp. Finally don't forget to be present. Lastly don't forget the store known as Ellis' Emporium is opposite Hotel Claiborn, street leading to Depot.

Respectfully,

Adjustment of Salaries—New Post-offices—John Sherman's Disappointment—Morton, Bliss & Co. vs. North Carolina.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 29.—At the postoffice department this morning I found Mr. Scott busy making out the list of postoffices whose salaries will be increased or decreased in proportion to the annual amount of business. Finding the agent of the Associated Press was just ahead of me, I telegraphed your paper the three most important changes in the list, thus putting you twelve hours ahead of any other paper in the State. The entire list is as follows:

On account of increase in local business, the postmasters at the following places in North Carolina, receive additional salaries: Durham, $200; Concord, $200; Asheville, $200; Elizabeth City, $100; Fayetteville, $100; Greensboro, $100; Henderson, $100; Hickory, $100; Kinston, $100; Oxford, $100; Salisbury, $100; Washington, $100; Wilson, $100; Winston, $100. Shelby loses $100 on account of decrease in business. Wilmington and Raleigh remained unchanged, though the first named city shows a considerable increase in business, though not enough to justify an increase in salary.

Two new postoffices have been created in North Carolina, one at Belwood, Cleveland county, with Jos. E. Ivey as postmaster; the other at Gipsey, Henderson county, with J. Saule Fanning as postmaster. To-day a postoffice named Bandana was created in Montgomery county, Ga., the first compliment of the kind the "Old Roman" has received.

John Sherman's bitter disappointment at the outcome of the Chicago convention begins to show on his usually impassive face. He and his friends credit his failure to receive the nomination to the heavy purchase of southern delegates by General Alger.

Hon. Sam Phillips represents as attorney Morton, Bliss & Co. in a $9,000,000 law suit now before the Supreme Court vs. North Carolina. It is known as the tax bond case and I sent a full account of the case to THE PLANT a few weeks ago. The Morton in the banking firm named above is the Vice-Presidential candidate, Levi P. Morton. Let North Carolinians, of every political creed, remember this when they get ready to vote for Mr. Morton.

Capt. Wm. Bixby, U.S.A. engineer corps, has been ordered to temporary duty at Forts Caswell and Macon, N. C.

To-day by 2:30 the House had completed consideration of the free list and proceeded with the second section of the Mills tariff bill.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Miller has two bear cubs for pets. He secured them during a recent visit to West Virginia. They are named Romeo and Juliet, and wear collars bearing their names.

Thos. W. Strange, Esq., is in the city to-day on his return from Columbus, Ohio. He says Judge Thurman looks five years younger than when he last saw him. Mr. Strange leaves for North Carolina to-morrow morning.

Harrison O. K. On Every Question.

The Chicago News in explaining why General Harrison got so many votes, gets off the following:

We have it from Colonel John C. New that the Hon. Benjamin F. Harrison has always been in favor of woman's suffrage.

According to Colonel John C. New the Hon. Benjamin Harrison believes that the surplus in the National Treasury should be reduced. It is stated on the authority of Colonel John C. New that the Hon. Benjamin Harrison is strongly in favor of the abolition of polygamy.

Colonel John C. New tells us that the Hon. Benjamin Harrison longs to see the North and South re-united in the bonds of fraternal love.

It is reported by Colonel John C. New that the Hon. Benjamin Harrison is the friend of the prohibitionist.

Colonel John C. New tells us that the Hon. Benjamin J. Harrison is a strong advocate of civil service reform.

Colonel John C. New says that if Harrison is elected all our Western waterways will be improved at once.

Colonel John C. New told Colonel John Finerty yesterday that not a day passed that the Hon. Benjamin Harrison didn't get down on his knees and pray for the independence of Ireland.

To our valued townsman, Mr. Augustus Himmelgarten, Colonel John C. New said yesterday afternoon that the Hon. Benjamin Harrison had always been an advocate of German in the public schools.

In conversation with a reporter last evening Colonel John C. New remarked that the Hon. Benjamin Harrison favored a bi-metallic standard.

William Jackson, the well-known whitewasher, says that Colonel John C. New told him last night that the Hon. Benjamin Harrison was the black man's friend.

In the headquarters of the California delegation last evening Colonel John C. New said that the last time he saw the Hon. Benjamin Harrison he asked him if he had any suggestion to make as to the framing of the national platform. "Only one," replied Harrison. "Chinese immigration must be stopped at all hazards."

TOBACCO DEPARTMENT.

Alex. Walker, Editor.

DURHAM, N. C., June 30, 1888.

We have to report that receipts have continued good through the week and sales satisfactory and prices well sustained.

BREAKS

to-day rather light. Three counties represented.

CASWELL COUNTY.

Mr. H. C. Connelly, two loads of medium to good tobacco.

CHATHAM COUNTY.

Mr. E. G. Barnett, a good load of fillers and cutters.

DURHAM COUNTY.

Messrs. J. Y. Mangum, L. Mangum and Maynard Goss made satisfactory sales.

THE BUYERS

have passed through the week in good spirits, having done a very satisfactory week's work.

FARMERS

seem rather gloomy over the crop prospects, and still complain of dry weather except in a few places, where they have had local showers.

Sales of smoking tobacco and cigars has been very heavy during the past week.

OTHER MATTERS.

We noticed very little, if any, change in the tone of markets, the local rains as yet have not produced any material change in prices.

Richmond, Va.

Reports from the West this morning say they have had good rains generally and prospects for the growing crop much improved, both in the dark and burley sections. The situation is not so strong for holders. The trading on 'Change this morning amounted to nothing in bright tobacco. Breaks of sun cured were heavy and prices obtained were very satisfactory.

It seems to be the general opinion of our trade, that we will have a quiet market for some little time following the improved crop prospects. It is true the crop is not made yet and there are a great many contingencies that may yet arise to prevent a large or a good crop, but just now we can't reasonably look for a great improvement in our condition, unless it be from the removal of the tax.

And the butter spreads easy.

What the Press Says of Us.

Webster's Weekly.

THE DAILY TOBACCO PLANT heads them all.

Chatham Record.

Another proof of Durham's growing prosperity is THE DAILY TOBACCO PLANT.

Pittsboro Home.

THE DAILY TOBACCO PLANT is a beauty—clean, bright, fresh and full of the latest news.

Fisherman & Farmer.

One of our brightest and most valuable exchanges, THE DURHAM TOBACCO PLANT, now comes to us as a daily.

Henderson Gold Leaf.

The daily edition of the Durham TOBACCO PLANT has been received. So far as the subject matter contained and the typographical excellence of the weekly was concerned there was little room for improvement, and the daily shows no falling off in any respect. The colored lithographed heading of the copy before us is a new departure and makes the DAILY TOBACCO PLANT at once a journalistic pink of perfection.

Goldboro Argus.

THE DURHAM DAILY PLANT, is a thing of beauty—the handsomest newspaper we have ever seen, in all its appointments, and when you begin to peruse its well filled columns you find that its material beauty is but enhanced by the rare productions of gifted intellects, the strokes of genius and the flashes of wit that await you there. With its peculiarly fortuitous surroundings and unusual ability the PLANT is destined to achieve great things for Durham. It has the best wishes of the Argus always.
