Let the farmers give strict attention to the handling and classing their tobacco. There is no labor that pays the producer half so well as that bestowed in preparing his tobacco for market. Handle carefully, class it well, and by all means have it in good, safe vas reported on the Illinois order. This crop, while not as good as we rathroad at South Lawn, 50 anticipated, will be in good demand, and it will wear no other than those stamped wii! pay to handle it with great care.
