NEVER FORGET IT.

Keep it before the people that the Democratic party has in the last four years done more to bury and completely hide all the animosities engendered by the war, than any influence yet exerted in our nation.

This great party, during Cleveland's administration, has always moved and acted so as to win the confidence of all.

The Northern statesmen before the election of Cleveland were always sure to bring forth cheers and applause whenever they descanted on the certain disaster that would follow the election of a Democratic President and the return of the "rebel brigadeers" to power.

The Southern statesmen of the Radical persuasion were sure to arouse enthusiasm and solid enmity to all Democratic doctrine, when before the colored cahorts they enlarged upon the horrors of a second slavery that was certain to be when Cleveland became President.

Cleveland has been President four years and no disaster has over- ish coin has been handed us by J. whelmed Northern institutions, no negro's liberty has been invaded.

The wisdom of Cleveland and Cleveland's advisers, the conservatism of the Democratic party are responsible for this.

and courage that have stood up year after year in defense of our great blessings, and have, through darkness and poverty, been true to the great principles of Democracy that guarantee to every man full and unmolested liberty, have wrought this deliverance from ignorant dread of enslavement. The Democratic principles of equality before the law of fraternity; the Democratic desire to do the greatest good to the greatest number are triumphing and the world is learning that America can be true to her traditions, true to her founders, true to her posterity. A broader, freer and deeper love of and is growing and strengthening and a regular daisy in all respects. under Democratic rule.

The frigid New Englander, the open-hearted Western man, the imerner are now members of one family, are all in the house of their fathers, and are all now willing to live and labor for the good of the whole a right to all the blessings that American ideas have secured, all feel that column, one year, 60.00 under God this great country is destined to carry these blessings to every quarter of the globe, to work out the civilization and christianization Chadbourn, vice-president, offered

Is there any trouble in answering

"If wages are increased by protection, why do those protected manufacturers indorse protection and spend large sums of money to uphold it?" This is not quite so easy, but any protectionist ought to be ready to give the answer. If wages are inhigher wages than if he were unprotected, why does this same protectionist spend money to induce Congress to continue the system that continues to take money out of his pocket? It is a stunner.

Nobody can understand it.

this is a mere dodge on the part of the protectionists, unless these high protectionists are made out of a finer quality of dust than the ordinary run of men.

If there is any human nature in a by some of the same influences that was arrested near Mt. Moriah last control other men.

How would other men act; how do other men act?

Most men hire labor where they ean hire it cheapest.

Most men pay only such wages as of our town. the labor market demands, and no man pays his workmen more than he is compelled to pay.

what he says, he is living in the wrong country. He ought to go higher. He is too good to stay here, and ought to die young.

It is a delusion, it is a lie.

The true reason why high protecsystem of legalized robbery, is because it puts millions of dollars in their pockets, and enables them, not to pay higher wages, but to spend more money for horses and carriages, men Messrs. J. A. and W. H. Long. and fine houses, and $10,000 cooks, and steam yachts, and Scotch hunt ing grounds.

Why will the workingmen be longer hoodwinked?

OUR EXCHANGES.

Clinton Caucasian: Mr. Horace Boykin, son of Mr. Lewis M. Boykin, an announcement of whose misfortune in having his thigh fractured was made in our last issue, we are pleased to learn is bearing his suffering with much cheerfulness and patience, and is getting along quite as well as could be expected. We trust his recovery will be speedy and complete.

Fayetteville Journal: It is rumored that one of our prominent capitalists and some Philadelphians are thinking of building a $250,000 cotton factory on the vacant lot corner Gillespie and Franklin streets. We hope that the project will be carried out. Nothing would be of more benefit to our city than three or four more cotton factories, and our citizens ought all to take an interest in this project and encourage the idea.

A leading member of the Alliance said to the Chromicle: "Some Democrats seem afraid that the Alliance men will defeat Fowle. They are very foolish. I came to the Democratic Convention an enthusiastic Alexander man, as did many others. By that very act I pledged my sacred honor to use all the efforts in my power to secure the election of the nominee of the Convention. It is an insult to the farmers to sav now that they will be untrue to their duty. They will labor for Fowle equally as hard as for Alexander, because their honor, and their interest as well, are involved in the struggle."

Another Alliance man said: "There are those who, if Fowle is defeated, will put the blame on the Alliance. For that reason, if no other, the Alliance men are going to see to it that he is elected.
