FROM WASHINGTON.

A Good Position—Salary 750 Pounds—Can a North Carolina Farmer Get It?—Senate and the Tariff—Personals.

Special Correspondence to THE PLANT.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—A day or two ago, I sent you an item to which I fear I did not give sufficient prominence. It may prove to be of unusual local importance. So, I will state the facts at length. Some weeks ago, the Secretary of the Colony of Queensland, Australia, wrote to the Agricultural Department asking for the name of an American farmer who would come out there to teach the Australians American methods of farming for 600 pounds (about $3,000) a year. Few responses were sent and these were from New York, New Jersey, Delaware, and one from Michigan, all of whom were unsatisfactory. The Department has recently received another letter from the same source, offering 750 pounds (about $3,700) for a practical and theoretical American farmer. There are men among your readers who, I think, can fill the bill. I would like to see a Durham county man get the place, because THE TOBACCO PLANT, being the only daily paper in the State that regularly employs a Washington correspondent, first published the information. During the next half century, Australia will make tremendous strides. The climate and the people in many localities, are very desirable. The salary is a good one and the work necessarily congenial. So far, there have been no applications from North Carolina for the place. There is a young, talented, energetic Wake county farmer who would fill the bill admirably. I mean Mr. Otho Wilson. It may be too late for any of our farmers by the time they are impressed with importance of the place to apply. The slow methods that still prevail in North Carolina prevent many of our otherwise most deserving citizens from getting a great many of this world's good things. But, in the interest of the readers of THE PLANT, I will see Senators Ransom and Vance to-day, and if the place is not taken, I will ask them to have it held open for applications from their constituents for several days. I will, of course, let you know the result immediately. $3,700 is not picked up every year by a farmer. The applicant must be well qualified practically and theoretically.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland will probably be in Richmond, October 14th. Can you not induce them to extend their visit to Durham, and be present at your Exposition? I hope you will invite them. The President and Col. Lamont returned from their short visit to Philadelphia this afternoon.

A number of North Carolinians from the western part of the State passed through this city yesterday and to-day. All were stopped at quarantine, but were allowed to go through or stop in the city. Several are here now. There are no fears of yellow fever as far north as this.

Sherman, Allison and Hiscock have been in conference all day. The outcome of their deliberations seems to substantiate the telegram sent THE PLANT Saturday about the tariff situation.

Very few members were present in the House yesterday.

Senator Vance made a short speech on a Mississippi amendment introduced by Senator George, and evidently knew more about the matter than Mr. George did himself.

Amendment added to deficiency bill to-day pays W. B. Ferguson and Fred C. Fisher, Esqs., of Waynesville, $600 apiece for legal services rendered the Cherokee Indians.

Mr. Wm. Latimer, of the Acme Manufacturing Co., near Wilmington, has written to Maj. McClammy that the establishment is kept running night and day to supply the demand for the pine leaf cotton bagging mentioned in a recent letter to THE PLANT. They expect to supply the whole South next year.

Mr. Simmons will speak at Eagles, Edgecomb county, next Thursday.

News from the Capital.

Special Correspondence to THE PLANT. RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 25, '88.

At 6 o'clock, p. m., yesterday, the grand jury returned a true bill against J. C. Parrish, as was expected. To-day he will be put upon trial for his most brutal crime, outrage upon his own daughter. The child, as well as her mother and little brother, were before the grand jury.

Your correspondent's attention was called yesterday afternoon to quite a pretty girl who was seated in the office of the Clerk of the Superior court, and he was informed that she was the plaintiff in a suit for slander. Now, this slander-business is a bad thing. At nearly every term of court here there are such cases, it is sad to say. This case was before the grand jury, and the pretty plaintiff was awaiting the issue. Her name is Massey and that of the defendant is Jones. She swears that he said extremely naughty things about her. The Superior court began its work yesterday, the case of the Norfolk Southern Railroad vs. Ely being argued.

Col. Theodore F. Davidson is back at his desk in his office. He brings good news from the west, and says that the Democrats propose to cancel the Republican majority of 1,000 in Buncombe county. He says he has never seen such careful work, and so much of it, done by the Democrats in any canvass as they have done in this. They have been everywhere in the mountain section, and the amount of political literature in demand and circulated there shows that the people are reading.

Just as the Republicans are putting money in the campaign in the second and fourth districts, they are sending it to the ninth. An Asheville Radical got a couple of thousand a few days ago from the protective tariff league for the special purpose of defeating the Democratic nominee for Congress. That's what the protection people are working for—to get in Republican Congressmen who will be their tools. They propose to spend any amount of money in an effort to get a majority in the next House.

Col. Hindale informs us of the sale of the valuable property of the defunct North Carolina Millstone Company at Parkwood, Moore county. It was worth over $75,000 or rather was valued at that figure. The sale was made by Col. Hindale and Ernest Hayward, Esq., the assignees. The plant sold for $11,400, the buildings and supplies at $3,000, and the engine for only $1,500. It is not believed by the assignees that the manufactory will again be operated, though Cooke & Co., of New York, who bought the plant, claims that it will be.

There was quite a sensation on the streets yesterday. A negro named John Thompson became violently insane and kicked up a regular "bobbery." He ran all the people out of a millinery establishment and alarmed half a score of other people. Three policemen took him, a raving maniac, to the station house. He will be sent to the asylum for the insane at Goldsboro.

Mr. Wilson, secretary of the State Agricultural Society, has a letter from Senator Vance, in which the latter says he will be here at the fair, and will, as he puts it, "discourse a little, not promising a set speech."

There was quite a procession along Fayetteville street yesterday, on its way to the colored fair grounds. It was made up of exhibits by colored people of Cabarrus county, gathered by the indefatigable president of the association, Warren C. Coleman. From the appearance of matters last night, the weather may knock the fair out again this year, just as it did last. Secretary Williamson says the exhibit is good and that the people will be here. A good many came yesterday. The cheap fare, only one cent per mile, gives all a chance.

Capt. J. J. Thomas, one of the best informed men in the cotton trade, remarked to your correspondent last night that things again look very unfavorable for the cotton growers. Under the influence of bright skies and the sunshine the cotton was opening very rapidly. The cloudy, cold weather, with the driving rain will do a vast deal of damage if prolonged. Every hour of sunshine is imperatively needed now. The cotton business is quite bent. The railway people feel this severely. The freight business is very light, both as to shipments and receipts.

Mr. George Sloman, for many years in the dry goods and clothing trade here, died yesterday, aged 71, after barely a week's sickness.

For some nights past the electric lights have not been working well in some cases. There are some changes of the dynamo in progress. There continue to be two stations. There is a demand for more light.

Another capital case before the present term of court is that Sampson Cotton, colored, of Cary, who is charged with infanticide. His daughter, Martha Cotton, is charged with concealing the birth of the infant which was killed.

TOBACCO DEPARTMENT.

Alex. Walker, Editor.

DURHAM, N. C., Sept. 25, 1888.

Small breaks and common, prices high. The following counties represented: Alamance county by Mr. W. J. Ecler.

Durham county by Messrs. Lottie Cozart, A. W. Winstead.

Granville county by Messrs. J. B. Trebble, A. A. Lyon.

Person county by Messrs. Sam Barnett, C. Mitchell, J. O'Brian, Scott Morris.

The Tobacco Department has to give way to Dr. Talmage's sermon to-day. We intended to give our readers the interview the Twin City Daily had with P. H. Hanes & Co.; look out for it in to-morrow's paper and read it. You will find that what we have been saying is true: Don't forget to send to Maj. R. L. Ragland and procure some genuine Little Oronoko tobacco seed for a portion of your crop for next year.

Asheville, N. C.

We learn our planters were busy during the five or six bright days last week cutting, and the cool and cloudy weather now, with some rain yesterday, proved their wisdom. They will now, doubtless, continue to cut until the crop on the hill is so reduced as to be in their power to save from frost. The result of this course (which is now, evidently, the best policy for them) will be a loss to them of about five cents per pound on the crop, which is estimated at five million pounds.

R. P. WALKER.
