Powderly to Succeed Himself. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 19.—The assembly of the delegates to the General Assembly of the Knights of Labor to continue Mr. Powderly as their representative has been expressed to him for- seven delegates who repre- sent the Canadian assemblies, called on him and asked him to accept the nomination and more. He gave them to understand that he would do so pro- vided he could choose his own ad- visers on the general executive board. The report indicates that he will be re-elected, and there is now only a question of opinion regarding the time he shall be done. Under any circumstances Mr. Powderly will un- doubtedly continue in office and will probably name his own cabinet. Canada is to be represented on the gen- eral executive board. The South has been looking to the selection of a representative business man.

Steamer Elpinstone on Fire. CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 19.—A steamer Elpinstone, on her way from New York to the steamer Elpinstone, ly- ing at the wharf on the oppo- site side of the pier from Sand- wich Island. The Elpinstone is loading cotton for Bremen. Several pumps are pouring water into her. The fire proved to be slight, but necessitated the filling of the fore- hold compartment with water. About 2,700 bales of cotton is liable to damage by water, but the loss can- not be given until the cargo is dis- charged. Part of the cargo is in- volved in the Atlantic Mutual of New York, and the rest abroad.

Stockman Brutally Murdered. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 19.—A stock- man named Wm. Durant was brut- ally murdered at his home near Johnstown, Pa., Friday night last. He was called from his house by a party of men who shot him in the back, riddling his body with bullets. Durant had been quarreling with his neighbors, Davis and Jeffries. The assassination aroused his neighbors, who, arming themselves, rushed down and killed Silas Jef- fers and Abe Davis, who were sus- pected of having led the party that murdered Durant.

The California Earthquake. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 19.—Ob- servations on the movements of the earthquake taken at the University of California and at Alameda show the motion and direction to be vir- tually the same as in this city. The University of California reports the shock to be the severest since 1871. In some places children are reported to have been rolled out of their cradles. The shock was followed by a rattling sound which was distinctly felt.

Sackville's Effects Sold. WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Lord Sack- ville's surplus effects were disposed of by auction to-day and the sale was to such portions of the British nation as were thrown open, a great number of which were never seen before. Everything that had high prices, people frequent- ly bidding for articles they could not afford to inspect.

Snow in Maryland and Virginia. BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 19.—Two inches of snow fell here last night. Heavy snow is reported on the mountains.

Snow in Virginia. RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 19.—Snow in this vicinity last night to the depth of two inches, followed by a hard and drizzling rain.

Death of the Assistant Inspector-General of the Army. WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The Hon. Henry J. Farnsworth, Asst. Inspector-General, who came to the city a week ago for medical treat- ment, died at 11 o'clock this morn- ing.

Danville Tobacco Exposition. DANVILLE, Va., Nov. 19.—Thus far samples of tobacco have been secured for the great tobacco expo- sition which will begin here Wednes- day. The display of tobacco is the largest and best ever seen in Virginia.

The Yellow Fever. CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 19.—Sur- geon Martin reports five new cases of yellow fever—one white and four colored. The weather is warm; the pestilential miasma prevails and busi- ness is entirely suspended.

Heavy Snow of the Season. CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Dispatches from points in northern Illinois, In- diana and Eastern Iowa report the heaviest fall of snow of the season since 1880.

Doctors Conquer Death. CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—After an experience I have come to the con- clusion that two-thirds of all deaths from pneumonia and consumption, can be avoided if Dr. Acker's English Sarsaparilla for Consumption were only care- fully used in time. This wonderful Remedy holds under a positive guarantee by Dr. Acker & Son.
