THE TOBACCO PLANT.

DURHAM, N. C.

IT SNOWS. it snows!" cries the schooll oy-"Hurrah!" and his short Is ringing through parlor and hall, While swift as the wing of the swallow, he's And his playmates have answered his call; It makes the heart leap but to witness their con. O. if, when that dying malefac- wrong; and yet I cannot die so. The upholstery of the king's couch. Proud wealth has no pleasures, I trow, Like the rapture that throbs in the pulse of As he gathers his treasures of snow: Then lay not the trappings of gold on thine While health and the riches-of nature are It snows!" sighs the Imbecile-"Ah!" and Comes heavy, as clogged with a weight; While from the pale aspect of Nature-in He turns to the blaze of his grate: And nearer, and nearer, his soft-cushion'd Is wheel'd tow'rds the life-giving flame-He dreads a chall pull of the snow-burden'd Lest it wither his delicate frame: Oh, small is the pleasure existence can give, When the fear that we shall die only proves 'It snows!" cries the Traveller-"Ho!" and Has quicken'd his steed's larging (ace; The wind rathes by, but its howlis unheard-Unfell the sharp drift in his face;

For bright through the tempest his own Av. though leagnes intervened he consee: come of me? Oh, that I were to lie through and through. They tell me There's the clear, glowing hearth, and the upon the fire that is never quenched. I must die forever. They will push come to the middle cross. We stood And his wife with their habes at her knee. God and to be reconciled to Him table prepared, 1,000 years to purchase the favor of me Blest thought! how it lightens the grie -laden again! Oh eternity! Oh eternity! That those we love dearest are safe from its. Who can discover the abyss of eternity? Who can paraphrase upon "It shows" eries the Belle-"Dear, how these words: "Forever and forever. lucky! and turns From her mirror to watch the flat es tall; Like the first rose of summer her dimpled While musing on sleigh-ride and ball; There are visions of congress, of splendor, lite has been wasted, and only a my when this day's herrors have from one way, and saw only the right and mirth. Pleating over each drear wimer's day; STANDS BETWEEN THE SOUL But the tintings of Hope, on this stormbeaten earth.
Will melt, like the snow-flakes, away;

urn, turn thee to heaven, fair a aiden, for That world has a fountain ne'er open'd in cross. Let not one drop of that blood comest into Thy kingdom. Only fall upon my check. Rend not my just remember me." "it snows," eries the Widow to God!" and ear with that cry. I see it now as Likewise noist we repent. You weapons of torture had gone only Have stilled the voice of her prayer; Its burden yell read in her tear-wollen eyes, On her check, sunk with fasting and care, Tis night and her fatherless a k her for But He gives the young ravens their day had that man heard the talent, robbed Him of our services; only the spear that went into His And she trusts, till her dark hearth adds And she lays on her last chip of wood. Poor sufferer! that sorrow that God only you reject Him. That right hand end of ten years you find that he has silence and composure that before Tis a pitiful 1.; to be 1 oor when it snows! SARAH JOSEPHA HALE. THE ORCHARD ON THE HILL. God, shall with his ax, hew down has given us wages all the time. One worst, and hell had hurled its sharp-Dr. Talmage's Sermon, Preached Sunday Morning, Nov. 14th. "Allel when they were come to the place, which is called Cuivary, these they error, ed Him and the male factors one on the right Land and the other on the let. - 1.ake 23:33.

Just outside of Jerusalem is swell of ground toward which ;

crowd is ascending, for it is the day ferers. Some tear their own hair in a frehzy of grief. Some stand in si-

THE RIGHT BEARING POISON,

mity of the

NATURAL HEART AGAINST CHRIST!

of execution. What a mighty assemblage! Some for curiosity to heirs of heaven. hear what the malefactors will say and to see how they will act. The three persons to be executed are already there. Some of the spectators are vile of hip and bloated of cheek. Some look up with revenge, hardly able to keep their hands off the suf-

> who got up to see Him die? TELL ME, THOU SUN

lent horror. Some break out into uncontrollable weeping. Fome slap in mid heaven, who for Him their hands in delight that the offen- didst pull down over thy face ders are to be punished at last. The thy veil of darkness? Tell me, ye soldiers with drawn swords drive lepers who were cleansed, ye dead and the rattling fangs. Have you horrors of hell. When the Swiss back the mob, which presses on so who were raised, is He the Son of ever noticed the climax in this pas- were many years ago contending received a verdict in his favor, Judge haunts of Congressmen. hard. There is fear that the pro- God? Ave! ave! responds the unisage of Scripture: "The heart is de- against their enemies, they saw these Maguire, of the San Francisco Suceedings may be interrupted. Let verse. The flowers breathe it, the ceitful? That seems enough. But enemies arrayed in solid phalanx, preme Court, on the 27th rult, deci- city physicians have been about the German legion, now stationed at stars chime it, the redeemed celebrate | the passage goes on and says: "The | and | knew not how to break their Jerusalem, on horseback dash along it, the angels rise up on their heart is deceitful above all things," ranks; but one of their heroes rushed the line and force back the surging thrones to announce it. And yet on Will you not say that is enough? out in front of his regiment and multitude. "Back with you" is the that miserable malefactor's "if" how But the passage goes on further and shouted: "Make way for liberty." cry. "Have you never seen a man many shall be wrecked for eternity! says: "The heart is deceitful above the weapons of the enemy were die before?"

That little "if" has enough venom in all things and desperately wicked."

The weapons of the enemy were plunged into his heart, but while Three crosses in a row. An up- its sting to cause the death of the If we could see the true condition of they were slaying him of course right piece and two transverse pieces | soul. No "if" about it. I know it. the unpardoned before God, what | their ranks were broken, and through -one on the top, on which the hands | Ecce Deus! I feel it thoroughly- wringing of hands there would be! that gap in the ranks the Swiss are mailed, and one at the middle, on through every muscle of the body. What a thousand-voiced shrick of marched to victory. Christ saw all failed for $150,000, failing to give Lamar's letter and the whole queswhich the victim sat. Three trees and through every aculty of my supplication and despair! But you the powers of darkness assailing men. him any stock in the Pace Company. tion. The Secretary in his letter to laden twilight, is decidedly more Miller also. just planted. Yet bearing fruit—the mind, and through every energy of are a sinner. I speak not He cried out: "Make way for the re- They now claim, when an account- the Commissioners said that he was cozy and inviting for the one in the middle apples of love. Norway pine and tropical orange cross, the red berries of the forest are At any moment it may slip from the To this middle cross, my dying and Lebanon cedar would not make apt to be poisonous, and around this cliffs and crush your forever. May hearers look, that your souls may so strange a grove as this orehard of tree of carnage grow the red. poison- the Lord Almighty, by His grace, live. I showed you the right hand Calvary. Stand and give a look at our berries of which many have help us to repent of our sins while cross in order that you might see the three crosses. Just look at the tasted and died. I can see no use repentance is possible. one on the right. Its victim dies for this right hand cross, except it be This left hand cross was a believe lieving. I showed you the left scoffing. More tremendous than his used as a lever with which to upturn ing cross. There was no guess work hand cross, that you might see what physical anguish is his scorn and the unbelief of the world. hatred of Him on the middle cross. Here, from the right hand cross, I plication. The left hand cross flung middle cross, that you may see what This one on the right turns half way go to thelen. Pass clear to the other litself at the foot of the middle cross. Christ has done around on the spikes to hiss at the side. That victim also twists him-expecting mercy. Faith is only just one in the middle. If the scoffer self upon the nails to look at the cen- opening the hand to take what Christ hates him with a perfect hatred. I deliver the sufferer of the middle door of God's mercy with the tip of think he wishes he were down on cross. He eries to the railer cursing your fingers, but as a warrior, with the ground, that he might spear on the other side; "Silence! begauntleted fists, beats at the eastle Him. He envices the mechanics tween us is innocence, is agony. We gate, so with all the aroused energies who, with their nails have nailed suffer for our crimes. Silence!" of our souls, let us pound at the gate Him fast. Amid the settling dark- Gather around this leat hand cross. of heaven. That gate is locked. Youness and louder than the crash of Oh, ye people! be not afraid. Bitter go to it with the rocks hear him jeer out these herbs are sometimes a tonic for the words: "Ah! Ah! you poor wretch, body, and the bitter aloes that you pretended to be a God and vet you and life to thy soul.

let these legions master you." It This left hand cross is was in some such hate that Voltaire, A REPENTING CROSS. in his death hour, because he thought he saw Christ in his bedroom, got up on his elbow and cried out: "Crush that wretch," What had the middle cross done to rouse up this right hand cross? Nothing. O, the en-

let Him die for Himself, not for me." says: "Oh, I am a guilty wretch; I with yours," There has always been a war between deserve this. There is no need of Forthwith, the left hand cross be- until it becomes a throne; and the this right handscross and the middle my cursing. That will not stop the comes the abode of contentment, worn face of cross, and wherever there is an un- pain. There is no need of blasphem- The pillow of the malefactor, soaked believing heart, thus the fight goes ling Christ, for He has done me no lin blood, becomes like the crimson tor peristed, the faithlessness of man tortures of my body are outdone by When the body became still, and had perished, then that tree which the tortures of my soul. The past is the surgeons feeling the pulse, said yields pelson would have budded a scene of misdolag; the present a one to another; "He is dead," the and bloss med with life for all the crucifixion; the future an everlasting last mark of pain I ad gone from his world! Look up into that disturbed undoing. Come back, thou hiding face. Peace had smoothed his forecountenance of the sufferer and see midday sun! Kiss my check with head. Peace closed his eyes. Peace what a ghastly thing it is to reject one bright ray of comfort. What! closed his lips. Now you see why Christ. Dehold in that awful face, no help from above—no help from there were two transverse pieces on in that pitiful look, in that unblessed above—no help from beneath? Then the cross, for it has become a ladder death hour, the stings of the sinner's 1 must turn to my companion in into the skies. That dying head is departure. What a plunge into sorrow, the one on the middle cross, leasy which has under it the promise; darkness! Standing high upon the I have heard that He knows how to | "This day thou shalt be with Me in cross on the top of the hill, so that help a man when he is in trouble. Paradise. Ye whose lips have been to die; Christ says: "Save that man all their people asked for. It is the all the world may look at him he I have heard that He can cure the filled with blasphenty, ye whose says: "Here I go out of a miserable | wounded. I have beard that He can | hands for many years have wrought life into a wretched eternity!" One! pardon the sinner. Surely, in all unrighteousness, ye who have com-Two! Three! Listen to the crash of His wanderings up and down the panioned with the unclean, ye who the fall, all ye ages! So Hobbes, dy- earth. He never saw one more in have scaled every height of transgresing after he had seventy years in 'need of His torgiveness! Blessed sion, and fathorned every depth and which to prepare for eternity said: One! I turn to Thee! Wilt Thou passed every extreme of iniquity— We are sick; Jesus is the "balm of with civil service principles or with "Were I master of all the world I look for the moment away from Thy | mercy! mercy! would give it all to live one day own pangs to pity me? Lord, it is longer." Sir Frincis Newport, hover- not to have my hands relieved or ing over the brink, cried out; my feet taken from the torture, "Wretch that I am, whither shall I can stand all this, but oh! my sins! fly from this breast? What will be- my sins! my sins! they pierce me

OUT INTO THE DARKNESS it all. Hear the cry of the dying down apples of love. Uncover your That right hand cross—thousands Thou comest into Thy kingdom. I seene as this. You may have seen have perished upon it in worse agos ask no great things. I seek for no father, or mother, or companion, of nies. For what is physical pain throne in heaven, no chariot to take child die, but never so affecting a compared to remosse, at the last, that the to the skies; but just think of scene as this. The railing thief looked when the shout of heavenly welcome | saw the left side of Christ's face. But and its everlasting overthrow? Oh takes Thee back into Thy glory, from where you sit to-day, in the full God! let me die anywhere rather Thou wilt not forget me, wilt Thou? blaze of Gospel light, you see than at the foot of that right hand Lord, remember me when Thou never before—the local someness and say; "I have solen nothing," I through the facty portions of the horror of my unbelief. That dying reply; "We have all been guilty or body, the torture would not have malefactor was not so much to blame the mightiest felony of the universe, been so great, but they went through as I. Christianity, was not estable for we have robbed (field-robbed) the hands, and feet and temples; the lished, and perhaps not until that Himrof our time, robbed Him of our most sensitive portions. It was not thy. We go forth again for more were at the last session well known Christ. But after Christ has stood. Suppose you send a man west as an Iside, but the sins of all the racealmost nineteen centuries, work- agent of your firm, and every month a thousand spears—plunge after and the Alexanders, and the exars, have been returned because of this ing the wonders of His grace, you pay him his salary, and at the plunge, deeper and deeper, until the riess with its long beam overshads been serving another firm, but take characterized. Him gave way into a ows all the earth. It is planted in ing your salary, would you art con- groan, through which sumbled the the heart of the race. When will demn him as dishonest? God sent parrows of time and the woes of eterthe time come when the spirit of us into this world to serve Him. He nity. Homen hate had done its that right hand cross, until it shall half of us have been serving another est javelin, and devils had vented fall at the foot of that middle cross. master. When a man is convicted their hottest rage, when, with every and unbelief, the railing malefactor of treason he is brought out; a regi- nerve of His body in torture, and of the world shall perish from all our ment surrounds him and the com- every fibre of His heart in excruciahearts 2 Away from me, thou spirit of mand is given: "Attention, company. tion, He cried out: "My God, my palm and scepter, and here by these something about using influence unbelief! I hate thee! With this Take aim! Fire!" And the man God! why hast thou forsaken me? sword of God I thrus, thee back and falls with a hundred bullets through It was a vicarious cross. The right and by this wounded heart, cry: Some of them construed it to mean a thrust thee through. Down to hell: his heart! There comes a time in a hand cross suffered for itself, the left down most accursed monster of the man's history when the Lord ca'ls hand cross for itself, but the middle power unto the Lamb, for ever and to get "dots" on them to be used in the earth, and talk to the millions up the troops of his iniquities, and at cross for you. When a king was dythou has already dammed. Talk nor God's command they pour into him ing a young man cried: "Pour my A Famous Tobacco Case at Last lenger to these sons of God, these aconcentrated volley of torture. You blood into his veins that he die not, there any "if" about it? Tell me. by the cliffs, and you see sunlight that the king lived, but the young thou stay, that in robes of light did and flowers at the mouth of the cave; man died. Christ saw the race per-interest to many persons in Durham, their personal influence. The genrun to point out His birthplace? Tell but take a torch and go in, and be- ishing. He cried: "Pour me, thou sea, that didst put thy fore you have gone far you see the hand over thy lip when He bade flashing eye of the wild beast, or hear thee be still? Tell me, ye dead, the hiss of the serpent. So the world scens in the sunlight of worldliness; but as I wave the torch of God's cavern of the heart—alas! for my soul. Living I will preach it, to the person who sits next to your demption of the world." All the dying I will pillow my head upon but to you. You are a sinner. All weapons of infernal wrath struck losses he will have nothing, but on ter had been misconceived. It was and the one at the left bitter aloes; its consolations-Jesus the God. the transgressions of a lifetime have Him, but as they struck him our the other hand, he will receive a not intended to be mandatory on the Away then, from this right hand been gathered up into an avalanche. race marched out free.

A BUNCH OF KEYS.

Him take my sins. If he will die or heaped upon it the stones. He only bear my cross, but help you but the middle cross and even that

The dying thief rejoiced to see That fountain in his day; And there may I, as vile as he,

Wash all my sins away, I have shown you the right hand cross and the left hand cross; now at the one; and found it yielded poison. We stood at the other and found it yielded bitter aloes. Come unless Thou wilt help me. I confess | now to the middle gross, and shake thief: Lord, remember me when head. You never saw so tender: passed. Think of me a little-of me, side of Christ's face. The penitent the one now hanging at Tny side - thief looked from the other way, and

CHRIST'S EUIL, FACE.

It was a suffering cross. If the say; "I don't feel myself to be a sin- The veins of the young man were "If thou be the Son of God," Was ner." That may be. Walk along tapped and the blood transferred, so

> MY BLOOD INTO THEIR VEINS, that they die not.".

My hand is free now, because Christ's was bound. I gain heaven. because Christ for me endured the what an awful thing it is to be unbein that prayer; no "if" in that sup- it is to repent. Now I show you the

the world. Men say: "Back with of his victim, he flung the mangled Paradise;" as much as to say, "I see fade out of sight, and then the left tariff taxation.

in your dream will begin to change,

CALVARY WILL BECOME RADIANT with gladness; and instead of the are thirsty; Christ is the river of turned out and Democrats put in salvation to slake our thirst. We their places. Ransom in North Carare hungry; Jesus says; "I am the olina and Butler and Hampton in bread of life." We are condemned | South Carolina have got pretty much from going down into the pit; I am some thing with Voorhees of Indithe ransom," We are tossed on a ana. These people are growling at sea of trouble; Jesus comes over it, the moon. They don't begin to saving: "It is I, be not afraid." know what it is they want to say. We are in darkness; Jesus says: "I The Congressmen I have talked with am the bright and morning star." all declare that the trouble was not Gilead. We are dead: hear the the President, but with the vast shrouds rend and the grave hillocks | number of disappointed office-seekheave as He cries: "I am the Resur- ers who, under the old system, would rection and the Life; he that believe not have received one place in a eth in Me, though he were dead, yet hundred; no, nor one inga thoushall be live." We want justificas sand. The friends of the administion; "Being justified by faith, we tration are not dismayed by the crithave peace with God through our jeism of Hoosiers, Tar Heels and F. Lord Jesus Christ. We want to F. V's. The best men in all these exercise faith; "Believe in the Lord States side with the President, and Jesus Christ and thou shall be saved. " the fact is well know here and has I want to get from under condemna- its due weight. No effort to break tion: "There is now, there ore, no down the President's policy will succondemnation to them who are in good. Nothing has hitherto resulted Christ Jesus." The cross-He cars but disaster to those who have tried dured it. The crown—He won it. or at least severely rebuked. Vance's Heights of Heaven sing it, and speech in the Senate fell flat on the worlds of light to worlds of it fit at country at large. The defeat of Cox, troubles for Jesus. From dioleonda Thou hast conquered." And then east and northwest. we go forth again to gather more trophies, and we bid the redeemed have been shaken by what is called of ages, the sons and daughters of the Lord Almighty, to come. And Settled.

[Western Tobacco Journal.] of his tedious lawsuit.

ding that he was entitled to a third | equally exercised over the enforce- | This Stamps Bro. Blount as a interest in the property when he paid | ment of regulations in the Pension his proportion of losses in the Seal office requiring a certificate of par-Rock Tobacco Company, and his ticulars from the attending physician proportion to the paid up capital of in cases of absence for illness. The

the L. B. Pace Tobacco Company. position of the commissioners has ing is had, and Jones pays up his satisfied that the purpose of the letthird interest in what is considered | physicians nor designed to elicit disa good paying company. The case closures of professional confidence, has been for nearly five years un- He regarded it in the light of a re-

This Reads Pretty Well.

[Excuset from Senator Leck's Catea , ospeech.] Free trade produces no revenue. Prohibitory protection produces none. The only difference between the two to the people would be cheap goods under free trade, dear goods could get one hand loose, and He ter cross—yet, not to scoff. It is to offers us. The work is all done, the Poets have sung its praise, and under protection, and goods at half avoid complications the word of the were within reach, he would smite worship. He, too, would like to get bridge is built strong enough for us sculptors have attempted to comthe middle sufferer in the face. He his hands loose; not to smite, but to all to walk over. Tap not at the memorate it in marble, and martyrs But the government must have rev-Christians dying quietly in their nomical administration of public bedshave leaned their heads against affairs, and outside of whiskey and it. This hour may all our souls em- tobacco, which are legitimate objects brace it with an eestacy of affection. of taxation, I agree that the balance Lay hold of that cross, sinner! of the needed revenue ought to be Everything else will fail you. With- raised by tariff taxation, and that it out a strong grip on that you perish. ought to be so adjusted as to be as Put your hand on that and you are near as practicable uniform through-I knew you were an imposter! You grow on this tree shall give strength You try philosophy. That will not safe, though a world swing from be-out the United States, and that it open it. A large door generally has neath your feet. O, that I might should foster, stimulate and encoura ponderous key. I take the cross engrave on your souls ineffaceably age the largest amount of production 8,500 days during the past year. and place the foot of it in the lock, the three crosses, and that if in your in our manufacturing establishand by the two arms of the cross I waking moments you will not heed, in interemoving burdens and charges As men who have been nearly turn the lock, and the door opens. then that in your dream this com- especially on raw materials, so drowned tell us, that in one mo- This left hand cre s was a pardon- ing night, you might see on the hill that our manufactured goods could ment, while they were under the ing cross. The cooles were only two back of Jerusalem the three spectable sent to Central and South Ameriwater, their whole life passed before or three yards apart. It did not ta e cles: the right hand cross showing ca, to Asia, Africa and the islands them, so I suppose in one moment. long for Christ to hear. Christ might unbelief dying without Christ, the of the seas, and give our factory opthe dying malefactor thought over have turned away and said: "How left hand showing what it is to be eracives work for twelve months inall his past life. Of that night, when darest thou speak to me? I am the pardoned, while the central cross stead of six. It is useless to talk are perfectly pleasant. he went into an unguarded door and | Lord of heaven and earth. I have | pours out upon your soul the sun- about raising revenue by direct taxes, The world likes a sentimental Christ, took all the silver, the gold, the jewels, seen your violence. When you struck burst of heaven as it says: "By all which must be apportioned among the Treasury Department has or a philanthropic Christ, but a and as the sleeper stirred he put a down that man in the darkness I these wounds I plead for thy heart. the several States in proportion to brought nearly all of the principals Christ who comes to snatch men knife through his heart. Of that day saw you. You are getting a just re- I have loved thee with an everlasting their population as determined by to their desks. Of eighty-eight all away from their sins—away with when, in the lonely pass, he met the ward. Die in darkness—die forever." love. Rivers cannot quench it, the preceding census. Taxation except thirty had returned yester-Him! On this right hand cross wayfarer, and regardless of the cries But Jesus said not so, but rather: Floods cannot drown it." And while proportioned to population is more day. Only about ten are expected to-day I see typified the unbelief of and prayers and tears and struggles "This day thou shalt be with me in you look, the right hand cross will unjust and unequal than even bad to remain away.

Him from the heart, I will not let corpse into the dust of the highway you there; don't worry. I will net will be gone; nothing will remain OUR WASHINGTON LETTER. the American Ornithologists Union, Washington, D. C., Nov. 17.—Although many o. the Southern Dem- tion of Singing Birds."

State Library

ocrats who have been here since the All the cranks who come here are trip. He is one of the best endowed election have ascribed recent losses not members of Congress or officein North Carolina, Virginia and seekers. One old fellow dresses well, other States to the policy of the Ad- drives about in cabs, the fares of mad niob at the foot of the cross will ministration, and especially to civil which he never pays, and puts real be a multitude kneeling. And you service reform, it is very clear to estate agents to a great deal of trouble and I will be among them: But not others that they have not made out showing him around. He claims to we will not wait for such a dream.
In this our most aroused mood we or the originators of reform. As a own thousands of acres in Kentucky and Tennessee. Everybody treats gentleman said to-day: "Why, that this fine old customer and everybody dle cross sin, sorrow, life, death, charge is exploded by the fact that everything. We are slaves; Christ so far as all these States are contained and everything and everything of the fact that so far as all these States are contained and everything. Some in-law, Mr. H. Theo, Ellyson, those are who are imposed on so last Friday. It is believed that the gives deliverance to the captive. We cerned the Republicans have been easily.

ried it. The flames of hell—He said to destroy civil service reform. Its fered them. The s'arme-He en- worst enemies have been silenced, round the heavens cry; "Glory! Willis and Findlay for renomination vas due to other causes as well as Let us go forth and gather the their support of the administration and Flaggtown has been increased. Gen. W. F. Sherman was directly mines we gather the diamonds, from centirely to that it can be shown that Ceylon banks we gainer the pearls | a greater number of anti-reformers from all lands and kingdoms we were not returned to the Congress. gather precious stones, and we bring In North Carolina my excellent the glistering burdens and put them friends, Bennett, Greene and Skinner. down at the feet of Jesus and say: and elsewhere Morrison, Curtin, "All these are thine; Thou art wor- Bragg, Cabell and many others who trophies, and into one sheaf we here as enemies of the reform policy gather all the scepters of the Casars, adopted by the President may not and the sultans, and of all the royal- fact, but the argument is a fair one ties and dominions; and then we to offset that which makes the adbring the sheaf of scepters and put it ministration responsible for all the down at the feet of Jesus and say: Ill luck of the party and denies to it Thou art king of kings, and these the credit for obvious victiories in the

the police scandal, and gossip over it has not yet ceased. Maj. Walker, the hosts of heaven bring crown, and chief of the Metropolitan police, said bleeding feet and this riven side, with Congressmen to his lieutenants. "Blessing, and honor, and glory, and | dogging of the footsteps of members crease of the police force. There is P. m. a difference in the testimony elicited in the pending examination, as to whether he said anything of the sort Here is something that may be of or only that he desired them to use Mr. Witcher Jones is a cousin of our | eral judgment, however, is that he quest made to the physicians for additional information in behalf of the applicant. It was stated that some city physicians had abused confidence by granting certificates to persons not entitled to them. After discussion the Medical Society deeided that the position of the department was right, and that in order to that some physicians had abused the confidence reposed in them. Altohow can any but a general and vague certificate be required without such violation? In the matter of absences there has been a saving of more than

Local and Congressional circles

The story that ex-Senator and Congressman-elect Charles R. Brackalew, of Pennsylvania, was to be appointed Attorney General, is officially denied at the White House. Mr. Garland has no idea of resigning, and his relations with the President

The order against substitutes in

Among the topics discussed by base ball catcher's mask.

1 column, one insertion,.... 6.00 $1.50 PER ANNUM.

PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT. new in session in this city, are "Migration of Birds," and "The Destruc-

NORTH CAROLINA NOTES.

The President told Col. Staples he very much regretted the defeat of Mr. Reid, and was much surprised Arrivals: A. B. Andrews, C. M. Busbee, J. W. Higsdale, A. E. Wilson, A. E. Cowan, H. G. Williams, they are painted, evidently.

Hearne. ham county, James W. Moore, post-toward Parijell, and about what po-den county, mail to Ellis; Star, doctrines of the late-candidate for Pamlico county, mail to Stonewall. Mayor, New York Star, The site of Whilley, Stanly county, has been changed one mile south-

Railway mail service has been established between Wilson and Favetteville, by Selma, Smithfield, Milo, Lucknow, Rhodes and Kyle's Landing, six times a week- or oftener if the trains run. The service has been ordered discontinued between Smithfield and Goldsboro, November 30th. Star service between Thomasville to three times a week McNeely Leaksville route. On the route be- settled down in New York for the tween Jacksonville and Swansboro, winter, and it is said he has some Shackelford is omitted. liam H. Edwards, Merchant Mills; to come. When his literary work Henry 1'. Bowen, Monticello; Thad- comes to fight, it will probably de-Ms Gallop, Harbinger; Jacob D. dent Davis tinued from Gordonton to Bushy ing. He was in the city during the Fork, and from Laws to Hurdle's day, and seemed very well. The rive at Henderson at 6-15 p. m.; of the old North State.-Richmond leave Townsville, Mondays, Wednes- | Dispatch,

We Do, We Do, We Do.

[Wilson Mirror.] We love to look into the witchery deeps of their soulful eyes, and bathe our vision in those waves of radiance Mr. T. D. Jones, and we congratulate | committed a gross impropriety even | which seem brighter and more beauhim upon the successful termination in saying that much, and deserves tiful than the twinkling gleams of removal. It is probable that the trembling stars which thread with "Mr. Witcher Jones, formerly of case will come up in the approach; luster the darkness of the night. Christ's was crushed. My brow is Virginia, who has been litigating for ling session of the Congress. Several We love to hear their voices, for a truth, and go down into the deep painless now, because Christ's was several years with Brandenstein and of the members who have spoken on woman's voice always has a melody torn. My soul escapes, because Esberg, Bachman & Co., of San Fran- the subject have expressed the opin- as sweet as the notes which slip from cisco, Cal., to secure recognition as a | ion that the matter should be further | the music lined throats of tuneful part owner of the J. B. Pace Tobacco investigated. The police know a robins, when they pour out to each Works, of Richmond, Va., has at last | great deal about the habits and other their feelings in the delightful ripple of their own entrancing song-

Connoisseur.

[Wilson Mirror.]

"The defendants claimed that the been sustained by the Secretary of home and then swing on the gate lowes his prominence in politics to plaintiff was only a partner in the the Interior and the Medical Society | with her an hour afterwards. The his success as a banker, and that his Seal Rock Tobacco Company, which of the District have discussed Mr. parlor with the lamp lowered to money seems to be his only recom-"Two souls with but a single thought,

Two hearts that beat as one.

Let Everybody Keep It.

[Goldshoro Argus.] We see from our exchanges that a number of towns in this State are going to keep Thanksgiving Pay, Thursday next, becomingly. We hope the business men of Goldsboro | Cleveland, in his proclamation: will come together and agree that it is meet that one day in the year day of Thanksgiving to Him "from whom all blessings flow."

We'll Bet He Didn't Find a Bottle.

[Daily Workman.]

ailroad meeting.

A Man of Many Escapes.

[Chicago Advance.] Bishop Whipple's escape from the Rio Railroad disaster recalls the fact that a change of plan at the last moment alone prevented his being on the train that went down at Ashtabula, and likewise on the sleeper that was hurled over the Mendota Bluffs a few years ago.

An Omnibus Invention.

[Wilson Mirror.]

2 columns, one insertion, . . . . . . 10.00 Space to suit advertiser charged for in accordance with above rates.

RATES FOR ADVERTISING:

1 inch, one month, ..... 2.00

1 inch, six months,.... 4.00

column, three months,..... 10.00

column, one year, 30.00 column, three months, 17.50

column, six months, ...... 30.00

column, three months,..... 30.00

column, one year,..... 100.00

column, six months...... 55.00

Henry Watterson's health is said to be fully restored by the European of American editors.

Judge Atkins, of Richmond, is a veritable Judge Walter Clark. On last Friday he sentenced two gamblers to two months' imprisonment, and fined each $100.

Mr. Alexander Walker, of Richcause of his death was heart trouble. He has been for many years a prominent merchant of Richmond.

Two Michigan editors are soon to don ecclesiastical vestments. Ex-Congressman George Willard, editor Some of the North Carolina visi- of the Battle Creek Jougnal, will be ors favor ex-Gov. Jarvis for Governor | an Episcopal divine, and George W. Buckley, another editor from the same town, will join the Unitarian

Dr. C. J. Watkins, Turner Reid, J. T. Henry George is, it is reported, Morchead, W. B. Young, John (?) about to visit Ireland to discuss the Wilkes, Miss Ruth Lamer, W. H. land question in connection with home rule. There will be general New postoflices: Boyd, Rocking- expectation as to his present attitude sition, if any, the great Irish leader Offices discontinued: Lake, Bla- will take regarding the distinctive

Mr. Armour, the great Chiengo meat packer, and family escaped poisoning last week, by the smallest circumstance. Two presumable socialists or marchists sent a package of buckwheat flour to his house, which, upon being examined by a chemist, showed enough strychnine to kill a dozen familes. It seems that Mr. Powderly can't manage Delmonico's last week by a party of postoffice is embraced between New York admirers. The speaking Price's Store and Matrimony, on the was all informal. The General has important diterary work on hand, Postmasters commissioned: Wil- and will be very busy for some time deus C. Davis, Morehead City; Levi Vote some of its energy to ex-Presi-

Polms, Ames; Andrew J. Beck, Mr. A. Y. Stokes, of this city, died Cid; Andrew J. Floyd, Ashpole. very suddenly, at his home in Special service has been discon- Goodhland county, yesterday eventelegram ahnouncing his death gave Mail schedule changed as follows no particulars. Allen Young Stokes between Henderson and Clarkesville: was a native of Caswell county, N. Leave Henderson daily, except Sun- | C., having first seen the light of day days, at 7 a.m.; arrive at Townsville | there April 25, 1819. His father was by I p m.; leave Townsville daily, the late Sylvanus Stokes, Esq., a except Sundays, at 4:15 p. m.; ar- respectable farmer of Caswell county days and Fridays at 1 p. m.; arrive | Speaker Carlisle was present at at Clarkesville by 6 p. m.; leave the fourth amount banquet of the Clarksville, Tuesdays, Thursdays at Iroquois Club, the famous Demoextoriting appropriations for an intoast, "American Industries," was responded to by the Speaker in a well considered, cloquent speech, which we have not space to reproduce. In the course of his speech he gave utterance to this: "No matter who may desert, who may falter, the great light for reform will go on. This country does not belong to the monopolists or communists, and the people will save it from both." Yes, reform will go on, for it is right.

> Messrs, Warner Miller and Levi P. Morton will antagonize each other for the position Mr. Miller now holds, United States Senator from New York. It will be remembered that Mr. Miller was elected to the Senate when Roscoe Conkling and "me too" Platt resigned in a huff The New York Star prefers Miller to Morton, and says that Mr. Miller has waged his political contests openly and with entire frankness, and, fur-We have been asked to announce thermore, represents the principles that it is wrong to accompany a girl of his party, and that Mr. Morton semblance the poesy of sentiment mendation. If that is so, we prefer

Ex-President Arthur is dead. He had been a great sufferer. For two years he had slowly and surely approached his grave. His disease baffled all medical skill, and he prepared himself for the worst. He died peacefully surrounded by family and friends, and his death has caused much sorrow. The following tribute is paid him by President "Mr. Arthur was called to the chair of Chief Magistracy of the nation by should be peculiarly observed as a a tragedy which cast its shadow over the entire government. His assumption of the grave duties was marked by an evident and conscientious sense of his responsibilities and an earnest desire to meet them in a patriotic and benevolent spirit. With dignity and ability he sustained the Some thief stole ex-President important duties of his station, and gether this is a knotty subject. If, Hayes valise a few days ago at Cin- the reputation of his personal worth, it must be said, the government is cinnati. Ohio, while he was at the conspicuous graciousness and patriinjured by imposition, on the other Grand Central depot waiting to take otic fidelity will long be cherished hand it is disgraceful to require a the train for home. He had been by his fellow countrymen." And violation of professional secrets; and lown to Atlanta, Ga., to attend a the Herald has the following: "It was the singular fortune of Chester A. Arthur and of the country that he was able to rise with ease and dignity to responsibilities which neither the country nor himself had ever expected he would assume. His taste, his patriotism and his mental horizon expanded as he rose. He handled social and diplomatic exigencies with almost unerring tact and wisdom. In word and deed what he did was marked by gracious moderation. He never lost sight of what was due to the people whom he represented; and, to his lasting honor, no narrow, personal motives or early The latest style of bustle is made affiliations of sympathy or fellowof watch-spring steel wire, and may | ship deflected his course from the be used for a colander, a rat trap, a high minded path he had determined portable lightning conductor or a to follow." We have more to say of him on our editorial page.