Sam Jones and His Critics. Under this caption, the Greens-"We have never had the privilege of seeing or hearing the Rev. Sam Jones, and therefore our estimate of him is from the accounts we have seen. Some of his reputed sayings are tough, indeed; but one of two things must be true, either he did not speak as reported, or if he did they did not impair the force of his preaching. Thus his hard sayings may be disposed of. If they fitted the people for whom they were intended, our disapproval of them amounts to nothing. Speaking of 'hard sayings,' it will be remembered that on one occasion when our Saviour had announced the hitherto unknown fact that his flesh was to be eaten and his blood drank, many of his disciples said, 'this is a hard saying, and from that time many of them 'went back and walked no more with him.' They had never heard such a statement, and so it is guage or manner which we esteem to be of more moment than the overwhelming and glorious success of Rev, Sam Jones in the conversion of sinners, the standard is a mere toy in comparison.
