"SATAN ON HIS TRAVELS."

Dr. Talmage's Sermon, Preached

Sunday, Nov. 11th, 1888.

Text: "And the Lord said unto Satan: whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the Lord, and said: From going to and fro in the earth and from walking up and down in it."

Job 1:7.

In 1672 was printed the largest book ever published, two huge volumes of near five thousand pages in small type, the author Joseph Caryl.

It was a commentary on this Book of Job. When it took a year for the journey from England to India, the son of the author of this commentary pying himself, and this greatest scoundrel of the universe made reply with blazing effrontery, and instead of acknowledging any of the mischief he had been doing, said he had been an earthly pedestrian and had lived a sort of circumambula-tory peripatetic life. "And the creature of my text has many names.

He is called in sacred and profane literature Abaddon, Apollyon, Ahri-devils, Lucifer the brilliant devil, Diabolus the depairing devil, Mam-devil, Baal the military devil, Mere-father of lies and has for his children and grandchildren and great grand-gave the names of ambassadors of evil which he thought Satan sent to different countries: Mammon, am-ambassador to France: Martinet, ambassador to Switzerland; Rim-there was a princess of devils by the
