

Our banks are solid and have the confidence of the people. —Fayetteville and Rocky Mount Fairs are both in progress this week.

—Mr. M. W. Reed's dwelling, on Ransom street, begins to present quite a nice appearance.

—Until further notice, the night services at Trinity Methodist church will commence at 7 o'clock.

—The horse carriage horses should be practiced, but it occurs to us that Main street is a dangerous place for the work.

—Read the announcement of the Directors of the First National Bank in this issue of THE PLANT. The confidence of the people in the Bank is fully attested by the fact that no run is being made upon it and that its deposits largely exceed all demands.

—Durham, with its brow crowned with the laurels of magnificent triumphs, shows its courage in the hour of adversity. May the clouds soon pass away and Durham's star shine with brighter lustre because of the darkness that now hangs about her.

—We return thanks for an invitation to attend the marriage of our townsmen, Mr. John W. Groom and Miss Ella W. Stephens, daughter of Mrs. M. F. Stephens, which will take place at the house of the bride, in Reidsville, N. C., on the 21st inst.

—We hope that for these young people there is a bright and happy future.

—At a regular meeting of Durham Lodge, No. 352, held at their hall on Tuesday night last, the following officers were elected, appointed and installed: N. M. Johnson, W. M.; J. F. Freedland, S. W.; A. E. Lloyd, J. W.; J. W. Blackwell, Treas.; James Southgate, Secy; H. N. Snow, S. Deacon; S. Lehman, J. Deacon; W. P. Robbins, Tyler.

—We are satisfied that whiskey is being sold in Durham. Mayor Christian can't you catch the rascals that are selling it? It is so easy to catch the ones that are drinking it for us to believe if we had only "dear old" on it, but we read it and reproduce it to-day. We felt like exclaiming, "Ed la Brute!" but we reflected that they were not in Cesar's despairing condition, but were alive and kicking and able to take care of ourselves, even if the Messenger and Jordan are again us.

—The Wilmington Messenger's injustice to Durham excites surprise. We could hardly have expected worse from the most bitter Radical sheet in the State. It would be hard for us to believe if we had only "dear old" on it, but we read it and reproduce it to-day. We felt like exclaiming, "Ed la Brute!" but we reflected that they were not in Cesar's despairing condition, but were alive and kicking and able to take care of ourselves, even if the Messenger and Jordan are again us.

—We are glad to learn that Prof. Steele's School of penmanship, book-keeping and photography is continually increasing. The number of pupils is now in the neighborhood of one hundred, and we are informed. We would be glad if the Professor could receive sufficient encouragement to establish a business College in Durham. Why not?

A FINANCIAL CRASH.

PLUCKY DURHAM USTERRIFIED AMIDST DISASTER.

Assignments Forced Upon Several of Our Leading Business Houses.

Like a flash of lightning from a clear sky, to many, was the announcement Thursday morning that Col. W. T. Blackwell, President of the Bank of Durham, together with a number of our leading business men had made assignments. The news spread like wild fire and it was not long before the matter was the subject of comment upon the streets.

There was no undue excitement, however, and the failures were discussed with calmness and determination to make the best of the situation.

Investigation proved that matters were not as bad as was at first feared. The Bank of Durham, we are assured, will pay one hundred cents in the dollar upon every dollar of its deposits and it is thought that others will nearly or quite pay every dollar they owe. The failures were not due to the lack of assets but to the want of ready money to meet pressing demands.

We are not in position to-day to enter fully into a review of the situation, but as every cloud has a silver lining, let us hope that from what now appears a calamity will come results of a salutary nature, and that it will not be long until the business of the town is upon a safer and surer foundation than ever before.

We give below a detailed statement of the assignments:

W. T. BLACKWELL. W. T. Blackwell assigns to V. Ballard and W. S. Halliburton, Trustees, to be appointed as follows:

1. Expenses of executing the trust.

2. Personal property exemption of $500 to each partner.

3. Costs of executing trust; rents, amounts due clerks and assistants.

4. W. T. Blackwell, $7,000.

5. Mary E. Chadwick, $1,111.61 and interest and $70 and interest.

6. M. M. Bowen, $1,000 and interest.

7. To all other creditors pro rata and equally with each other.

8. Surplus, if any, to W. H. Muse and W. H. Shaw.

ROBBINS & STONE. Charles Robbins and W. H. Stone, composing the firm of Robbins & Stone, dealers in dry goods, assign to W. S. Halliburton. Proceeds to be applied as follows:

1. Personal property exemption of $500 each to Charles Robbins and W. H. Stone, Jr.

2. Actual costs of executing trust, including $100 to J. S. Manning, attorney for services; all taxes, insurance and rents of store.

3. What ever sums may be due upon settlement with J. M. Jeans, W. H. Stone, Sr., and Charles Westbrook, clerks.

4. First National Bank, $1,000 and interest; Eugene Morehead & Co., $500 and interest.

5. H. B. Claffin & Co., about $1,979.25; S. R. Perry, $225; Mrs. E. A. Yearby, about $50; Mrs. M. A. Robbins, $408; Aaron Claffin & Co., $701; W. H. Lyon & Co., $1,245.53.

6. All other creditors.

7. Any surplus to Charles Robbins and W. H. Stone, Jr., partners.

J. W. BLACKWELL. J. W. Blackwell assigns to S. E. Watts and J. M. W. Hicks. He conveys all his personal property and twenty tracts or lots of land.

Proceeds of sales to be applied as follows:

1. Personal property exemption of $500.

2. To all employees and clerks amounts due for salaries.

3. To W. W. Fuller, attorney, $250 for services rendered.

4. To Penn Mutual Life Insurance Co., $2,000 due by note and interest thereon.

5. To the expenses of executing the trust.

6. To W. T. Blackwell or Bank of Durham, about $80,000, notes and acceptances.

7. To Jno. B. Christian, such balance, if any, as may be due him on a note of about $510; to W. T. Blackwell, about $100, due by note; to J. L. Markham, W. J. Wyatt & Co., S. Lehman, Robertson, Lloyd & Co., R. Blackwell & Son, Mrs. M. A. Harden, Mrs. J. G. Bart, Mrs. Ada Smith, Jones & Lyon, W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., and J. L. Blackwell, amounts due them.

8. To all other creditors equally and pro rata.

9. The surplus, if any, to J. W. Blackwell or his order or legal representatives.

Listen at This. These are disquieting times it is true, but put yourselves on your good behavior and take hold and let's pull through. "Beyond the Alps lie Italy." Hard work, economy and standing close together, and speaking well of each other, will soon show that the cloud that now hangs like such a pall, has a silver lining.

Sidewalks. We would be pleased to have the present Board of Aldermen to have the sidewalks of the town put in such good condition as to make them agreeable to the people of the town for their good works.

If you would please the people, make their walking easy. Good sidewalks do this.

Into New Quarters. The colored graded school, which occupied temporary quarters on Main street, below the Eganer warehouse, has moved into the brick building erected for its use near the site of the building which was occupied by the school last year and which was destroyed by fire some months ago. The school now has comfortable and commodious quarters.

Plant Photographs. Mr. W. S. Albright and family have moved to Graham.

Mr. John Whitaker is back from a visit to the Richmond Exposition.

Mr. Will Thaxton holds the fort at Kaufman's during the absence of Mr. W. A. Muse.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Morgan have returned from a visit to the Richmond Exposition.

Mrs. T. G. Cozart, principal of the Methodist Female Seminary, is confined at home by sickness, we are sorry to hear.

Capt. S. B. West has gone North to purchase a stock of fancy and family groceries for the store to be opened in the O'Brian building by himself and son, Mr. C. B. West. Look out for announcement in THE PLANT.

which J. S. Carr is surety, endorser or guarantor solely or jointly with W. T. Blackwell or any other or others.

JORDAN AGAIN.

The Wilmington Messenger Condemns His "Radical" Dismissals Fruitless Advice.

The Wilmington Messenger, of Tuesday, contains rather a queer editorial upon the subject of "The Reported Outrage at Durham," in which the editor, in a somewhat injudicious and a promoter of strife, who was invited to take his departure from this section, is both condemned and apologized for. In order that we may not be accused of garbling or of doing our contemporary injustice, and in order that our readers may see just what the Messenger says upon the subject, we give the article in full, with our comments thereupon appended:

"The associated press dispatches bring from Boston a narrative which we do not feel compelled to believe, but the fact that the Durham Recorder of Friday bears out the main features of the story. The Recorder says, under the head of 'Jordan escorted out of town':

"Last night J. C. Jordan, white, when taken from a street car, was seized upon by a committee and notified to leave town by 8 o'clock. He refused to do so, and was again notified to leave and obey the command. At 10 o'clock he was taken from the store of A. M. Higbee and placed in a carriage, and was being taken to the depot by the Recorder's party, when a mob of about a hundred men, some of whom had been invited to leave town, in a body, descended upon the carriage and demanded that Jordan should be taken to the depot. The Recorder's party, who were in the carriage, were unable to do so, and Jordan was escorted out of town by a mob of about a hundred men, some of whom had been invited to leave town, in a body, descended upon the carriage and demanded that Jordan should be taken to the depot.
