A Black Crime.
 NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—A Memphis, Tenn., special to the Herald says: At Tiptonville, Tenn., a lanterny on the Mississippi river about one hundred and fifty miles north of here, some weeks ago a young man married the daughter of Mrs. J. F. Atchison, a widow. The young man's father, learning that his son's mother-in-law possessed $300 or $400, concocted the plan for him, his son, and the young wife, to murder the old lady for the purpose of robbery. The plan was agreed upon and the crime was committed. The neighbors learned of the crime, fixed the guilt upon the trio, and the latter hastily departed. A posse of indignant citizens followed, overtook and hanged the entire party to the limb of a tree.

A Burning Lake.
 INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 19.—Near Newdecker, a village in Southern Indiana, a small lake is burning, and is emitting a peculiar sulphuric odor. The community is excited, and those living near the lake are preparing to leave the place.

The lake is about half a mile in circumference. The fire covers the eastern surface with a steady blaze six inches in height. No smoke is perceptible.

The Gladstone Rejoicing.
 LONDON, Jan. 19.—The election of Mr. Wilson, the Gladstonian candidate in the Govan division of the Lanarkshire, yesterday, to fill the seat in the House of Commons made vacant by the death of Sir William Pearce Bart. has caused the greatest rejoicing among the members of the Gladstonian party.

Answered With a Bullet.
 WINSTON, Jan. 19.—Mr. Harrell, an employe on the Wilkesboro road, was coming to Winston this evening when he was approached by a negro and a demand made for his money or his life. His answer was, "You can't get it," when he immediately drew his pistol and fired upon the leader, the ball penetrating his head, and killing him instantly. The other negroes then fled.

Mr. Harrell has just come in and given himself up to the sheriff. The negro has not been identified.

McGlynn's Followers Under The Ban.
 NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Archbishop Corrigan has issued a circular which will be read in the Catholic churches in this diocese to-morrow, which says that all the followers of Dr. McGlynn and those who attend the meeting of the Anti-Poverty Society will incur the ban of the church and that absolution will be denied them.

She is "Grateful."
 I saved the life of my little girl by a prompt use of Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption.—Mrs. Wm. V. HARRIS, New York. R. Blacknall & Son.
