NOTICE!
Certain evil-disposed persons, since the close of the public schools in Durham, have from time to time entered upon the premises of the public school buildings, committed divers nuisances and in some instances seriously injured public school property. Such acts are crimes under the law and it is the intention of the committee to punish the perpetrators, if we can get sufficient evidence to convict. We request all good citizens and especially patrons of the public schools, to aid us in putting a stop to these unlawful acts. Parents are requested to keep their children of the school premises during vacation, and all persons are hereby forbidden to trespass on school premises in Durham. Any information that will enable the committee to enforce the law for the protection of school property will be thankfully received.

ANNOUNCEMENT!
At the solicitation of several leading business men of Durham, and because the first and second editions of the "History of Durham" have been exhausted, and being unable to supply the continued demand, I have undertaken to revise, enlarge and improve said book.
Special attention will be devoted to the Biographical Department, new and better engravings will be introduced, and the third will be, in every respect, an improvement on the first and second editions.
In the body of the history much new matter will be introduced, with fine engravings of leading places of interest.
Parties interested in the work, and wishing further information, are requested to confer with, or address the author,
H. V. PAUL,
Durham, N. C.
